SIR SAM HUGHES ALLOWED

THE SOLDIERS TO MARCH IN THE ORANGE PARADES

No Order Issued Against Them Walking Here Thursday—They Marched to Church in Orange and Odd-fellows' Parades.

Some time ago, C. R. Webster, acting for the committee in charge of the arrangements for the Orange celebration in the city on Thursday, wrote to Brig-Gen. T. D. R. Hemming, G.O.C., asking for permission to join the parade of soldiers of that day. He received the reply that the military authorities are not having a parade on that date.

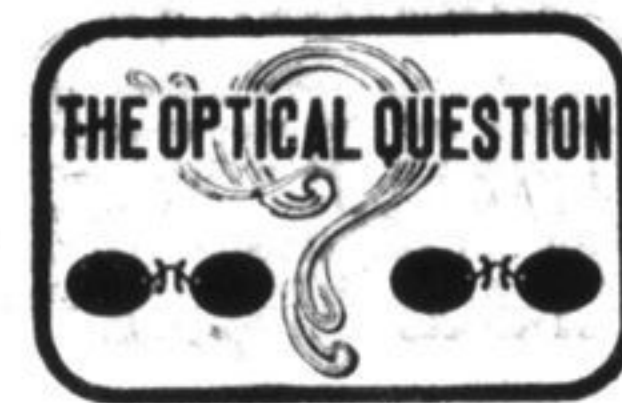

Paragraph 367, Kings Regulations and Orders reads: "An officer or soldier is forbidden to institute or take part in any meetings, demonstrations or processions for party or political purposes in barracks, camps, quarters or their vicinity. Under no circumstances whatever will either attend such meetings wherever held, in uniform."

Headquarters is not issuing any order against soldiers marching in the Orange parade on Thursday. When Sir Sam Hughes was Minister of Militia he sent a circular letter to districts headquarters which stated that military bands could take part in Orange processions providing the Union Jack was flown at the head of the column. Acting on this order the 8th C.M.R. pipers went to Gananoque in 1915 and took part in the Orange celebration there.

As soldiers marched in the Orange-men's and Oddfellows church parades recently it is taken for granted that they may march in Thursday's parade.

THE WEATHER MAN ASKED

FOR A FINE, WARM DAY ON THE 12TH.

Big Events Promised at the Fair Grounds—Lester Boyce to be Starter of the Races.

The horsemen are waiting anxiously for the weatherman to make a clearance of the rain and start Old So! pouring down enough hot rays to dry the track at the Fair Grounds. The track, which has been in use by the Gentlemen's Driving and Matinee Club for several months past, is in splendid condition, provided the rain does not continue. A few hours of warm weather would make it one of the best in Eastern Ontario for tomorrow, and under those conditions the horsemen offer the fastest and most closely contested races ever staged here.

The entries for the races have been pouring in to the secretary, and each of the four classes is well filled. The drivers have been training their speeders for the last few weeks in anticipation, and among the enthusiasts are arguments and discussions already as to the merits of the various entries.

Some of the horses which have already been entered for the "big show" of the Orangemen are: Weng Co., Faust Patchen, Frank R., Weston Gentry, Judge Murphy, Tango Girl, Queen Direct, Penalty, Silver Forbes, Bernard McKinney, Roy Alcone, Armordale, Billy Dillon, Little Minnie, Bobby Holl, Joe Patchen, Maringo, Senator Murphy, Nellie Murphy, Walnut Lamb, Brino Baron, Genet, Maud R., and Exaltation.

Lester J. Boyce, a prominent and experienced Napanee horseman, will be starter for the day. John Redden, Frederick Laidley and W. F. Kelly are the judges, and Dr. Nicholson and W. Hartman are to be timekeepers.

WOMAN DROPPED CHARGE
ACCUSED HUSBAND OF NON-SUPPORT BUT SOFTENED
Mrs. Charles Dumas Came Here From Ottawa to Prosecute Her Hubby But Changed Her Mind—Man in Khaki Paid Fine For Tippling.
They say it is a woman's privilege to change her mind. A woman exercised this privilege in a court case on Wednesday morning.
Mrs. Charles Dumas came to Kingston, from Ottawa, and took out a warrant against her husband, charging him with non-support, but on the accused pleading "not guilty" to the charge, when arraigned before Magistrate Farrell, on Wednesday morning, the complainant stated that she desired to withdraw the charge. Her heart had evidently been softened by the meeting she had with her husband before court opened. Magistrate Farrell said he would allow her to do so. The couple are elderly people. Mrs. Dumas walks with the assistance of a cane. It is stated that Dumas has been living in Kingston for the past three years.
Wearing the King's uniform, a young man pleaded guilty to being intoxicated in a public place. When put in the box to tell where he got his liquor, he said it came by express from Montreal. The "joy water" arrived Tuesday, and the celebration occurred on the same day. The usual $10 and costs, was imposed.
