NEWS FROM THE DISTRICT

CLIPPED FROM THE WHIG'S MANY BRIGHT EXCHANGES.

In Brief Form the Events In The Country About Kingston Are Told—Full of Interest to Many.

S. J. Nichol, formerly public school principal at Athens, has been engaged to teach next year near Guelph.

William Taylor, Trenton, died on Saturday from gas poisoning.

A Perth farmer recently sold a two-year-old pig that weighed 645 pounds and brought $90.

Mrs. W. W. Robinson, Brockville, died on Wednesday following paralysis. She was sixty-three years of age.

Rev. Charles T. Raynor, Cape Vincent, N.Y., is to be asked to accept the curacy of Trinity Church, Watertown, N.Y.

The barn on the premises of W. H. Code, Cornelia street, Smith's Falls, was destroyed and a quantity of hay consumed in a fire on Tuesday.

J. M. Root, Napanee, has been engaged as principal of the Smith's Falls, Public School. There were a large number of applicants for the position.

The death occurred at St. Francis General Hospital, Smith's Falls, on Monday, of Miss Lillian Georgiana Crummy, daughter of Richard Crummy, Toledo, at the age of forty years.

The Bishop of Ottawa has appointed Prof. Charles W. Coit, B.D., Nashotah Theological Seminary, as locum tenens at Smith's Falls during the absence of the rector, Rev. Canon Bliss, whose health necessitated an extended holiday.

Climbing a fire escape in the old Albion hotel, Arnprior, in order to see the location of a fire, Clarence Richardson, Sydenham, lost his balance, falling heavily to the ground. There were no bones broken, but he sustained severe internal injuries.

The last overseas mail brings the news of the marriage in England on June 14th of Lieut. George E. Wood, eldest son of Rev. and Mrs. George C. Wood, Merrickville. To Miss Ida Marsden, of Park Villas, Ashbourne, Derbyshire, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. Marsden, of the same place.

DEATH AT MABERLY

Of Miss Mary Breehanan—The Hay Crop Promises Well.

Maberly, July 18.—The gardens are looking fine and the hay crop promises to be a good one. Strawberries were scarce this year.

Miss Mary Buchanan, of this place, passed away at her home on Saturday evening after suffering from paralysis for some time. Although unable to move, she was always bright and cheerful, never murmuring nor complaining. The burial service was conducted on Monday by Rev. Mr. Moody, and the remains were laid to rest in the family plot in the Methodist cemetery. She is survived by her mother, one sister, Mrs. (Rev.) Brunet, two brothers in Saskatoon, Robert and Austin, and one brother, William, at home.

Miss Selina Briggs and Cecil Munro are among the successful candidates at the entrance examination. Miss Foxton, attending the Sharbot Lake summer school, spent Sunday at J. W. Walroth's. Miss Mildred Gray returned home on Sunday.

"HOLD OUT AND BLUFF."

(Special to the Whig.)
Paris, July 20.—Le Matin says the programme of Prussian militarism, as set forth by Chancellor Michaelis, may be summarized in the words: "Hold out and bluff."

INCIDENTS OF THE DAY.

Local Notes and Items of General Interest.

Saturday Music Sale. Popular music two for a quarter for all the latest hits. The College Book Store.

A. Shaw, Kingston, and W. S. Herrington, Napanee, were elected to the Board of General Purposes by the Masonic Grand Lodge at Belleville.

Inspector Jack, of the Children's Aid Society, had to make a trip to Arden on Thursday to straighten out a case. A child was restored to its mother.

Work is being rushed at the Richardson Convalescent Home on Happy Island, Rideau Lake. A large number of returned soldiers are there enjoying the beauties of the Rideau and living under canvas.

Gem Safety Razors complete with seven blades in leather case, velvet lined, $1.00. The College Book Store.

It was lucky that no person happened to be passing the Bank of Toronto building on Friday morning, when a big chunk of iron near the eave-trough became loosened and crashed to the sidewalk.

Claude W. Coit, who has been raising his string of horses at Pictou, Napanee and Kingston, left on Friday for the Ducks Islands to arrange for taking off his crop there. His horses are remaining in the city temporarily.

The Hydro Electric wires have now been strung far past Odessa and in a few days should be connected up with those from Napanee. Both gangs have been doing splendid work to bring power from Napanee to Kingston.

Saturday Special. Sing Sharpener $1.25. Complete Gem Safety Razor outfit with seven blades $1.00. The two for $2.00. College Book Store.

If you will tell me why one singer's voice is more pleasing than another, I will tell you why Edison Diamond Disc records are more pleasing than all other disc records. Come in and listen. The J. M. Greene Music Co., Sydenham and Princess streets.

Compared to Kingston's tax of $20 on dealers selling cigarettes, it is of interest to note that Stouffville's tax council demands the payment of a tax of $75 to sell cigarettes. Needless to say there are no cigarettes sold in that village.

A CHAUFFEUR FOUND MURDERED IN TORONTO

Was Son-in-law of Prof. Mulvaney—An Italian by Birth.

(Special to the Whig.)
Toronto, July 20.—With five knife wounds in his back and breast, Tony Ross, licensed chauffeur, and son-in-law of Prof. R. L. Mulvaney, who was found dead on the side of the road on Salisbury avenue, Humber Bay, early this morning by workmen. There was no sign of a struggle near where the body was found. The motive of the murder baffles the police.

Ross was an Italian, and his right name was Lapella. He assumed the name of Ross when he came here from the United States some years ago.
