PROMOTER BIDS FOR LEONARD-WHITE BOUT

Jim Buckley Says He is Ready to Go Limit on Twenty-round Battle.

Jim Buckley, of New York, one of the men who backed the Kilbane-Leonard bout in Philadelphia, is bidding for a bout between Leonard and White. He says he is prepared to go the limit for a 20-round bout between this pair, but is not so enthusiastic about staging a short bout between the men.

Real Fight When Bold Bendigo Won From Tom Paddock

Bold Bendigo, the great English champion of the ring, fought his last fight when he was forty years old, his opponent being Tom Paddock of Redditch, a man of twenty-seven. The fight was staged at Middlehall and was carried on with extraordinary ferocity. The men became so enraged during the bout that there was great difficulty in keeping them to the rules. "Foul" was being called during every round.

In the forty-ninth round, when the fight had lasted over an hour, Paddock rushed Bendigo and forced him to the ropes. Bendigo fell to the ground in a sitting posture and Paddock struck him two deliberate blows on the head while in that attitude. The foul was so palpable that the referee awarded the decision to Bendigo without hesitation.

Murray of Leafs Is Champion of Question League

Youngsters picked up for trial by major league clubs are of many different types. Some—not many—are shy and reserved, as was Walter Johnson when he started his career. Others are of the smart Alec variety like Walter Rehg, formerly of the Red Sox, now with the Braves, who earned the reputation, when a rookie with the Pirates, of being the freshest busher that ever broke in.

tough on his fellow players. Billy has had little chance to show what he can do on the diamond, but he is hitting 1,000 in the question league.

TY COBB EARNS HIS BIG SALARY.

Tyrus Raymond Cobb is the highest salaried baseball star in the profession. Cobb is drawing $20,000 a year from the Detroit Club, and he is earning the money. Not only is he the best player in the game, but also he is drawing large crowds wherever the Detroit appears. Cobb is leading both Major Leagues in batting and probably will not be overhauled by Speaker, Sisler, or any of the other American League stick-ers. The Georgia peach will be 31 years old next December, and as he takes excellent care of his physical condition, he probably will continue to receive a princely salary from the owners of the Detroit Club for several more seasons. Cobb is said to be worth $200,000. This is his thirteenth year with the Tigers.

Bigbee, King Ward, Pitter, Jacobs, Grimes, Bill Wagner, Schmidt and Fischer of the Pirates were secured by James J. Callahan, the deposed manager who had to walk the plank because the Smokeville critics demanded a change.

Philip Ball, owner of the Browns, denies the report that Fielder Jones will be supplanted by a new manager next year.

PLAY BASEBALL, SAYS PRESIDENT

Wilson Declares There is No Necessity For Stopping National Game.

President Wilson's opinion, expressed through his secretary, J. P. Tumulty, that there is "no necessity at all for stopping or curtailing baseball schedules," was read with enthusiasm by heads of major league teams in Chicago.

Marsans is playing the game of his life for the Yankees and the fans appreciate him. George Davis, once manager of the Giants and White Sox, is with the Browns as head coach and scout. George Sisler is the Browns' only card jester now. He still is playing wonderful ball.
