

News From Eastern Ontario

NEWS FROM THE DISTRICT

CLIPPED FROM THE WHIG'S MANY BRIGHT EXCHANGES.

In Brief Form the Events in The Country About Kingston Are Told—Full of Interest to Many.

Belleville gas is advanced from $1.25 per thousand to $1.45. Major Macdowell, V.C., arrived at Brockville without notice and side-tracked a civic reception.

The death took place at Belleville on Tuesday of George Lee, aged six years. Death was due to diphtheria.

Mrs. Ann Woods, Latta, died Sunday at the age of eighty-five years. She leaves two sons and three daughters.

Charles Wesley Bacon, Belleville, died Monday morning in his seventy-fifth year. He was before retirement a well-known and prosperous farmer.

George Francis Bartlett, Russell, Redversville, died on Saturday in his seventy-ninth year at the home of his daughter, Mrs. John Wilson, Rawdon.

Miss Olive Myrtle Burnham, Yonge Mills, only daughter of the late Burrell and Mrs. Burnham, passed peacefully away on Sunday last.

Mrs. Allen Bowers, Brockville, passed away Sunday at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Rachel Henderson, at the advanced age of seventy-eight.

Isaac Barlow, Haycock, interested in garden work, has been growing some exceptionally large gooseberries, which measured three and four inches in circumference.

The condition of Mrs. Jean, Concession, a patient in Cobourg hospital, suffering from injuries received while escaping from the flames of her burning home, is very serious.

Harriet Cook, widow of the late Richard S. Cook, Shannonville, died on Tuesday in Frenont at the home of her son, Melbourne Cook. Mrs. Cook has been ill since December.

Hugh Billings, Royal Flying Corps, whose home is in Billings Bridge, and who has scores of friends in Brockville and vicinity, has been made a prisoner and is now held in Germany.

Major George H. Johnson, formerly chief engineer for McLachlin Bros., Arnprior, has been promoted to the rank of lieutenant colonel. He is in charge of forestry operations in Brazil.

A pretty midsummer wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kerr, Thomaspark, on Aug. 1st, when their daughter, Mary Helena, became the bride of Harper R. Broad, Cooper.

James Henderson is wanted by the Brockville police on charges of forgery and fraud alleged to have been committed during the week-end.

Henderson is a deserter from the Canadian Mounted Rifles.

Angus William Fraser, K.C., Ottawa lawyer, foremost temperance advocate, and representative citizen, member of the law firm of Perkins, Fraser and McCormick, died in the Royal Victoria Hospital, Montreal, after undergoing an operation.

Suffering from burns about the thigh, arm and neck, little three-year-old Hazel Valcour, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Valcour, Brockville, is a patient in hospital as a result of playing with matches. Miss Irene Aherne, M.A., a member of the editorial staff of the Belleville Ontario has resigned and left for Smith's Falls. After vacation she will enter upon a year's course at Boston as specialist in teaching of deaf.

Edward McLennan, Neville, Sask., passed away at St. Vincent de Paul Hospital, Brockville, on Saturday at the age of fifty-seven years. The deceased, born at South Gower, was visiting his daughter, Mrs. Clinton Bush, Mills Roche, when he was taken ill.

GANANOQUE

(From the Correspondent.)

Aug. 15.—Grace Sunday School orchestra went to Inverary on Monday evening to furnish music at an entertainment in that village.

The steamer Missisquoi had fair passage on her trip to Kingston yesterday morning.

Senator and Mrs. Taylor, who in company with Mrs. Taylor's mother have been spending the past few days in town, left at noon yesterday for the Capital.

Miss Nellie Lake, formerly of the staff of the local public schools, who has been located for the past few years on the staff of the public school at Sudbury, is spending part of her vacation here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Schuyler Lake, Garden street.

Mrs. John Mallory, Brockville, spent some time during the past few days in town guest of her brother, Frank Shurtliff, Charles street.

Mr. and Mrs. William Ward and family of Montreal have arrived in town for a visit with Mrs. Ward's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James McKelvie, Garden street.

Mrs. George Lucy and little daughter Miss Dorothea Lucy of Collins Bay are spending a short time in town with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Wheeler, Charles street.

Miss Mabel Walker, Charles street, left for Trenton on Monday for a visit with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. William V. Webster.

John G. McCahey, of Ogdensburg, N.Y., is visiting here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nell McCahey, at the Provincial Hotel.

Gananoque is celebrating her civic holiday to-day and the various manufacturing establishments and mercantile concerns are observing the holiday.

Alexander Amo, Jr., of Syracuse, N.Y., is in town for a few days visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Amo, sr., Wellington street.

Mrs. Peter Amo, Buffalo, N.Y., and son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William Amo, accompanied by the family, are spending a holiday outing at Landon's cottage, about a mile west of the town.

Death of an Ex-M.P.P.

Deseronto, Aug. 15.—Amos Richardson, ex-M.P.P. for East Hastings, died at Deseronto on Tuesday. Deceased, advanced in years, had been in failing health. He had been prominent in municipal politics, having served as reeve and mayor of Deseronto. In June, 1908, he was elected M.P.P. for East Hastings, and proved a valuable member. He was a Conservative and a member of the Methodist church.

HIGH HONORS FOR 21ST TRANSPORTS

Won Cup in Competition—Sergt. W. G. McCullagh Gets Silver Cup.

Letters received in the city show that the 21st Battalion transports have been carrying off high honors. In a recent competition transports won a cup for the best kept horses and transports, and this is, indeed, a very high honor, and coming as it does to a local battalion citizens will be greatly pleased.

Letters also state that Transport Sergt. W. G. McCullagh, son of Samuel McCullagh, of the Armouries, was the recipient of a handsome silver case, on which his name was engraved, from the brigade general. The 21st Battalion transports are "Somewhere in France."

THE CARTOONS OF THE WAR

Interesting Address to Queen's Students by Prof. J. F. Macdonald.

Prof. J. F. Macdonald charmed the members of Queen's University Summer School on Tuesday afternoon with his address on the cartoons of the war.

In a few introductory remarks Prof. Macdonald commented on the importance of the cartoon as a part of the moulding of public opinion.

On a screen the speaker showed a number of the best cartoons which he had had transferred to slides. His collection is adequate and shows clearly the changes that have come as a result of the war.

On a screen the speaker showed a number of the best cartoons which he had had transferred to slides. His collection is adequate and shows clearly the changes that have come as a result of the war.

On a screen the speaker showed a number of the best cartoons which he had had transferred to slides. His collection is adequate and shows clearly the changes that have come as a result of the war.

On a screen the speaker showed a number of the best cartoons which he had had transferred to slides. His collection is adequate and shows clearly the changes that have come as a result of the war.

On a screen the speaker showed a number of the best cartoons which he had had transferred to slides. His collection is adequate and shows clearly the changes that have come as a result of the war.

On a screen the speaker showed a number of the best cartoons which he had had transferred to slides. His collection is adequate and shows clearly the changes that have come as a result of the war.

On a screen the speaker showed a number of the best cartoons which he had had transferred to slides. His collection is adequate and shows clearly the changes that have come as a result of the war.

On a screen the speaker showed a number of the best cartoons which he had had transferred to slides. His collection is adequate and shows clearly the changes that have come as a result of the war.

On a screen the speaker showed a number of the best cartoons which he had had transferred to slides. His collection is adequate and shows clearly the changes that have come as a result of the war.

On a screen the speaker showed a number of the best cartoons which he had had transferred to slides. His collection is adequate and shows clearly the changes that have come as a result of the war.

OBITUARY

Late Mrs. J. A. Cunningham.

About half past eight o'clock on Tuesday evening Mrs. J. A. Cunningham, passed away. The late Mrs. Cunningham fell down stairs in her home at 22 Brock street on Friday morning last and as a result suffered concussion of the brain. She was taken to the Hotel Dieu hospital and for over one hundred hours lay in the ward and never regained consciousness from the moment she was picked up.

The late Mrs. Cunningham was born in Brockville fifty years ago and was the wife of J. A. Cunningham, proprietor of "Beefsteak" Jack's restaurant who is now seriously ill.

The late Mrs. Cunningham was born in Brockville fifty years ago and was the wife of J. A. Cunningham, proprietor of "Beefsteak" Jack's restaurant who is now seriously ill.

The late Mrs. Cunningham was born in Brockville fifty years ago and was the wife of J. A. Cunningham, proprietor of "Beefsteak" Jack's restaurant who is now seriously ill.

The late Mrs. Cunningham was born in Brockville fifty years ago and was the wife of J. A. Cunningham, proprietor of "Beefsteak" Jack's restaurant who is now seriously ill.

The late Mrs. Cunningham was born in Brockville fifty years ago and was the wife of J. A. Cunningham, proprietor of "Beefsteak" Jack's restaurant who is now seriously ill.

The late Mrs. Cunningham was born in Brockville fifty years ago and was the wife of J. A. Cunningham, proprietor of "Beefsteak" Jack's restaurant who is now seriously ill.

The late Mrs. Cunningham was born in Brockville fifty years ago and was the wife of J. A. Cunningham, proprietor of "Beefsteak" Jack's restaurant who is now seriously ill.

The late Mrs. Cunningham was born in Brockville fifty years ago and was the wife of J. A. Cunningham, proprietor of "Beefsteak" Jack's restaurant who is now seriously ill.

The late Mrs. Cunningham was born in Brockville fifty years ago and was the wife of J. A. Cunningham, proprietor of "Beefsteak" Jack's restaurant who is now seriously ill.

The late Mrs. Cunningham was born in Brockville fifty years ago and was the wife of J. A. Cunningham, proprietor of "Beefsteak" Jack's restaurant who is now seriously ill.

The late Mrs. Cunningham was born in Brockville fifty years ago and was the wife of J. A. Cunningham, proprietor of "Beefsteak" Jack's restaurant who is now seriously ill.

The late Mrs. Cunningham was born in Brockville fifty years ago and was the wife of J. A. Cunningham, proprietor of "Beefsteak" Jack's restaurant who is now seriously ill.

The late Mrs. Cunningham was born in Brockville fifty years ago and was the wife of J. A. Cunningham, proprietor of "Beefsteak" Jack's restaurant who is now seriously ill.

The late Mrs. Cunningham was born in Brockville fifty years ago and was the wife of J. A. Cunningham, proprietor of "Beefsteak" Jack's restaurant who is now seriously ill.

The late Mrs. Cunningham was born in Brockville fifty years ago and was the wife of J. A. Cunningham, proprietor of "Beefsteak" Jack's restaurant who is now seriously ill.

The late Mrs. Cunningham was born in Brockville fifty years ago and was the wife of J. A. Cunningham, proprietor of "Beefsteak" Jack's restaurant who is now seriously ill.

The late Mrs. Cunningham was born in Brockville fifty years ago and was the wife of J. A. Cunningham, proprietor of "Beefsteak" Jack's restaurant who is now seriously ill.

The late Mrs. Cunningham was born in Brockville fifty years ago and was the wife of J. A. Cunningham, proprietor of "Beefsteak" Jack's restaurant who is now seriously ill.

PUBLIC SENTIMENT AGAINST HYPHENATES

Bills Introduced at Washington Show Tendency to Curb Hun Activities.

Washington, Aug. 15.—Publication of war news and comment on international or political questions affecting the war in German or other foreign language newspapers unless accompanied by a parallel column in English, would be forbidden by a bill introduced yesterday by Senator King.

Deportation or internment for citizens naturalized within the last twenty years found guilty of uttering or publishing statements disloyal to the United States or tending to incite sedition or insurrection, is proposed in another bill introduced by Senator King. The attorney-general would be instructed to bring suits against such persons to cancel naturalization papers.

Deportation or internment for citizens naturalized within the last twenty years found guilty of uttering or publishing statements disloyal to the United States or tending to incite sedition or insurrection, is proposed in another bill introduced by Senator King. The attorney-general would be instructed to bring suits against such persons to cancel naturalization papers.

Deportation or internment for citizens naturalized within the last twenty years found guilty of uttering or publishing statements disloyal to the United States or tending to incite sedition or insurrection, is proposed in another bill introduced by Senator King. The attorney-general would be instructed to bring suits against such persons to cancel naturalization papers.

Deportation or internment for citizens naturalized within the last twenty years found guilty of uttering or publishing statements disloyal to the United States or tending to incite sedition or insurrection, is proposed in another bill introduced by Senator King. The attorney-general would be instructed to bring suits against such persons to cancel naturalization papers.

Deportation or internment for citizens naturalized within the last twenty years found guilty of uttering or publishing statements disloyal to the United States or tending to incite sedition or insurrection, is proposed in another bill introduced by Senator King. The attorney-general would be instructed to bring suits against such persons to cancel naturalization papers.

Deportation or internment for citizens naturalized within the last twenty years found guilty of uttering or publishing statements disloyal to the United States or tending to incite sedition or insurrection, is proposed in another bill introduced by Senator King. The attorney-general would be instructed to bring suits against such persons to cancel naturalization papers.

Deportation or internment for citizens naturalized within the last twenty years found guilty of uttering or publishing statements disloyal to the United States or tending to incite sedition or insurrection, is proposed in another bill introduced by Senator King. The attorney-general would be instructed to bring suits against such persons to cancel naturalization papers.

Deportation or internment for citizens naturalized within the last twenty years found guilty of uttering or publishing statements disloyal to the United States or tending to incite sedition or insurrection, is proposed in another bill introduced by Senator King. The attorney-general would be instructed to bring suits against such persons to cancel naturalization papers.

Deportation or internment for citizens naturalized within the last twenty years found guilty of uttering or publishing statements disloyal to the United States or tending to incite sedition or insurrection, is proposed in another bill introduced by Senator King. The attorney-general would be instructed to bring suits against such persons to cancel naturalization papers.

Deportation or internment for citizens naturalized within the last twenty years found guilty of uttering or publishing statements disloyal to the United States or tending to incite sedition or insurrection, is proposed in another bill introduced by Senator King. The attorney-general would be instructed to bring suits against such persons to cancel naturalization papers.

Deportation or internment for citizens naturalized within the last twenty years found guilty of uttering or publishing statements disloyal to the United States or tending to incite sedition or insurrection, is proposed in another bill introduced by Senator King. The attorney-general would be instructed to bring suits against such persons to cancel naturalization papers.

Deportation or internment for citizens naturalized within the last twenty years found guilty of uttering or publishing statements disloyal to the United States or tending to incite sedition or insurrection, is proposed in another bill introduced by Senator King. The attorney-general would be instructed to bring suits against such persons to cancel naturalization papers.

Deportation or internment for citizens naturalized within the last twenty years found guilty of uttering or publishing statements disloyal to the United States or tending to incite sedition or insurrection, is proposed in another bill introduced by Senator King. The attorney-general would be instructed to bring suits against such persons to cancel naturalization papers.

Deportation or internment for citizens naturalized within the last twenty years found guilty of uttering or publishing statements disloyal to the United States or tending to incite sedition or insurrection, is proposed in another bill introduced by Senator King. The attorney-general would be instructed to bring suits against such persons to cancel naturalization papers.

Deportation or internment for citizens naturalized within the last twenty years found guilty of uttering or publishing statements disloyal to the United States or tending to incite sedition or insurrection, is proposed in another bill introduced by Senator King. The attorney-general would be instructed to bring suits against such persons to cancel naturalization papers.

Deportation or internment for citizens naturalized within the last twenty years found guilty of uttering or publishing statements disloyal to the United States or tending to incite sedition or insurrection, is proposed in another bill introduced by Senator King. The attorney-general would be instructed to bring suits against such persons to cancel naturalization papers.

Deportation or internment for citizens naturalized within the last twenty years found guilty of uttering or publishing statements disloyal to the United States or tending to incite sedition or insurrection, is proposed in another bill introduced by Senator King. The attorney-general would be instructed to bring suits against such persons to cancel naturalization papers.

Deportation or internment for citizens naturalized within the last twenty years found guilty of uttering or publishing statements disloyal to the United States or tending to incite sedition or insurrection, is proposed in another bill introduced by Senator King. The attorney-general would be instructed to bring suits against such persons to cancel naturalization papers.

Deportation or internment for citizens naturalized within the last twenty years found guilty of uttering or publishing statements disloyal to the United States or tending to incite sedition or insurrection, is proposed in another bill introduced by Senator King. The attorney-general would be instructed to bring suits against such persons to cancel naturalization papers.

Deportation or internment for citizens naturalized within the last twenty years found guilty of uttering or publishing statements disloyal to the United States or tending to incite sedition or insurrection, is proposed in another bill introduced by Senator King. The attorney-general would be instructed to bring suits against such persons to cancel naturalization papers.

Deportation or internment for citizens naturalized within the last twenty years found guilty of uttering or publishing statements disloyal to the United States or tending to incite sedition or insurrection, is proposed in another bill introduced by Senator King. The attorney-general would be instructed to bring suits against such persons to cancel naturalization papers.

Deportation or internment for citizens naturalized within the last twenty years found guilty of uttering or publishing statements disloyal to the United States or tending to incite sedition or insurrection, is proposed in another bill introduced by Senator King. The attorney-general would be instructed to bring suits against such persons to cancel naturalization papers.

Deportation or internment for citizens naturalized within the last twenty years found guilty of uttering or publishing statements disloyal to the United States or tending to incite sedition or insurrection, is proposed in another bill introduced by Senator King. The attorney-general would be instructed to bring suits against such persons to cancel naturalization papers.

Deportation or internment for citizens naturalized within the last twenty years found guilty of uttering or publishing statements disloyal to the United States or tending to incite sedition or insurrection, is proposed in another bill introduced by Senator King. The attorney-general would be instructed to bring suits against such persons to cancel naturalization papers.

Deportation or internment for citizens naturalized within the last twenty years found guilty of uttering or publishing statements disloyal to the United States or tending to incite sedition or insurrection, is proposed in another bill introduced by Senator King. The attorney-general would be instructed to bring suits against such persons to cancel naturalization papers.

Deportation or internment for citizens naturalized within the last twenty years found guilty of uttering or publishing statements disloyal to the United States or tending to incite sedition or insurrection, is proposed in another bill introduced by Senator King. The attorney-general would be instructed to bring suits against such persons to cancel naturalization papers.

Deportation or internment for citizens naturalized within the last twenty years found guilty of uttering or publishing statements disloyal to the United States or tending to incite sedition or insurrection, is proposed in another bill introduced by Senator King. The attorney-general would be instructed to bring suits against such persons to cancel naturalization papers.

Deportation or internment for citizens naturalized within the last twenty years found guilty of uttering or publishing statements disloyal to the United States or tending to incite sedition or insurrection, is proposed in another bill introduced by Senator King. The attorney-general would be instructed to bring suits against such persons to cancel naturalization papers.

Deportation or internment for citizens naturalized within the last twenty years found guilty of uttering or publishing statements disloyal to the United States or tending to incite sedition or insurrection, is proposed in another bill introduced by Senator King. The attorney-general would be instructed to bring suits against such persons to cancel naturalization papers.

Deportation or internment for citizens naturalized within the last twenty years found guilty of uttering or publishing statements disloyal to the United States or tending to incite sedition or insurrection, is proposed in another bill introduced by Senator King. The attorney-general would be instructed to bring suits against such persons to cancel naturalization papers.

Deportation or internment for citizens naturalized within the last twenty years found guilty of uttering or publishing statements disloyal to the United States or tending to incite sedition or insurrection, is proposed in another bill introduced by Senator King. The attorney-general would be instructed to bring suits against such persons to cancel naturalization papers.

Deportation or internment for citizens naturalized within the last twenty years found guilty of uttering or publishing statements disloyal to the United States or tending to incite sedition or insurrection, is proposed in another bill introduced by Senator King. The attorney-general would be instructed to bring suits against such persons to cancel naturalization papers.

Deportation or internment for citizens naturalized within the last twenty years found guilty of uttering or publishing statements disloyal to the United States or tending to incite sedition or insurrection, is proposed in another bill introduced by Senator King. The attorney-general would be instructed to bring suits against such persons to cancel naturalization papers.

Deportation or internment for citizens naturalized within the last twenty years found guilty of uttering or publishing statements disloyal to the United States or tending to incite sedition or insurrection, is proposed in another bill introduced by Senator King. The attorney-general would be instructed to bring suits against such persons to cancel naturalization papers.

Deportation or internment for citizens naturalized within the last twenty years found guilty of uttering or publishing statements disloyal to the United States or tending to incite sedition or insurrection, is proposed in another bill introduced by Senator King. The attorney-general would be instructed to bring suits against such persons to cancel naturalization papers.

Deportation or internment for citizens naturalized within the last twenty years found guilty of uttering or publishing statements disloyal to the United States or tending to incite sedition or insurrection, is proposed in another bill introduced by Senator King. The attorney-general would be instructed to bring suits against such persons to cancel naturalization papers.

Deportation or internment for citizens naturalized within the last twenty years found guilty of uttering or publishing statements disloyal to the United States or tending to incite sedition or insurrection, is proposed in another bill introduced by Senator King. The attorney-general would be instructed to bring suits against such persons to cancel naturalization papers.

Deportation or internment for citizens naturalized within the last twenty years found guilty of uttering or publishing statements disloyal to the United States or tending to incite sedition or insurrection, is proposed in another bill introduced by Senator King. The attorney-general would be instructed to bring suits against such persons to cancel naturalization papers.

Deportation or internment for citizens naturalized within the last twenty years found guilty of uttering or publishing statements disloyal to the United States or tending to incite sedition or insurrection, is proposed in another bill introduced by Senator King. The attorney-general would be instructed to bring suits against such persons to cancel naturalization papers.

Deportation or internment for citizens naturalized within the last twenty years found guilty of uttering or publishing statements disloyal to the United States or tending to incite sedition or insurrection, is proposed in another bill introduced by Senator King. The attorney-general would be instructed to bring suits against such persons to cancel naturalization papers.

Deportation or internment for citizens naturalized within the last twenty years found guilty of uttering or publishing statements disloyal to the United States or tending to incite sedition or insurrection, is proposed in another bill introduced by Senator King. The attorney-general would be instructed to bring suits against such persons to cancel naturalization papers.

HAY SUPPLY FOR YEAR IS ASSURED

Ottawa, Aug. 15.—The Conservation Commission announces that the hay crop this season is phenomenal, the barns packed with timothy.

It is estimated that there is a supply in Canada sufficient for the demands of this year and part of next. The commission points to the fact that farmers should devote more attention and more acreage to the raising of wheat and rye, owing to the shortage of food for human consumption.

It is estimated that there is a supply in Canada sufficient for the demands of this year and part of next. The commission points to the fact that farmers should devote more attention and more acreage to the raising of wheat and rye, owing to the shortage of food for human consumption.

It is estimated that there is a supply in Canada sufficient for the demands of this year and part of next. The commission points to the fact that farmers should devote more attention and more acreage to the raising of wheat and rye, owing to the shortage of food for human consumption.

It is estimated that there is a supply in Canada sufficient for the demands of this year and part of next. The commission points to the fact that farmers should devote more attention and more acreage to the raising of wheat and rye, owing to the shortage of food for human consumption.

It is estimated that there is a supply in Canada sufficient for the demands of this year and part of next. The commission points to the fact that farmers should devote more attention and more acreage to the raising of wheat and rye, owing to the shortage of food for human consumption.

It is estimated that there is a supply in Canada sufficient for the demands of this year and part of next. The commission points to the fact that farmers should devote more attention and more acreage to the raising of wheat and rye, owing to the shortage of food for human consumption.

It is estimated that there is a supply in Canada sufficient for the demands of this year and part of next. The commission points to the fact that farmers should devote more attention and more acreage to the raising of wheat and rye, owing to the shortage of food for human consumption.

It is estimated that there is a supply in Canada sufficient for the demands of this year and part of next. The commission points to the fact that farmers should devote more attention and more acreage to the raising of wheat and rye, owing to the shortage of food for human consumption.

It is estimated that there is a supply in Canada sufficient for the demands of this year and part of next. The commission points to the fact that farmers should devote more attention and more acreage to the raising of wheat and rye, owing to the shortage of food for human consumption.

It is estimated that there is a supply in Canada sufficient for the demands of this year and part of next. The commission points to the fact that farmers should devote more attention and more acreage to the raising of wheat and rye, owing to the shortage of food for human consumption.

It is estimated that there is a supply in Canada sufficient for the demands of this year and part of next. The commission points to the fact that farmers should devote more attention and more acreage to the raising of wheat and rye, owing to the shortage of food for human consumption.

It is estimated that there is a supply in Canada sufficient for the demands of this year and part of next. The commission points to the fact that farmers should devote more attention and more acreage to the raising of wheat and rye, owing to the shortage of food for human consumption.

It is estimated that there is a supply in Canada sufficient for the demands of this year and part of next. The commission points to the fact that farmers should devote more attention and more acreage to the raising of wheat and rye, owing to the shortage of food for human consumption.

It is estimated that there is a supply in Canada sufficient for the demands of this year and part of next. The commission points to the fact that farmers should devote more attention and more acreage to the raising of wheat and rye, owing to the shortage of food for human consumption.

It is estimated that there is a supply in Canada sufficient for the demands of this year and part of next. The commission points to the fact that farmers should devote more attention and more acreage to the raising of wheat and rye, owing to the shortage of food for human consumption.

It is estimated that there is a supply in Canada sufficient for the demands of this year and part of next. The commission points to the fact that farmers should devote more attention and more acreage to the raising of wheat and rye, owing to the shortage of food for human consumption.

It is estimated that there is a supply in Canada sufficient for the demands of this year and part of next. The commission points to the fact that farmers should devote more attention and more acreage to the raising of wheat and rye, owing to the shortage of food for human consumption.

It is estimated that there is a supply in Canada sufficient for the demands of this year and part of next. The commission points to the fact that farmers should devote more attention and more acreage to the raising of wheat and rye, owing to the shortage of food for human consumption.

It is estimated that there is a supply in Canada sufficient for the demands of this year and part of next. The commission points to the fact that farmers should devote more attention and more acreage to the raising of wheat and rye, owing to the shortage of food for human consumption.

It is estimated that there is a supply in Canada sufficient for the demands of this year and part of next. The commission points to the fact that farmers should devote more attention and more acreage to the raising of wheat and rye, owing to the shortage of food for human consumption.

It is estimated that there is a supply in Canada sufficient for the demands of this year and part of next. The commission points to the fact that farmers should devote more attention and more acreage to the raising of wheat and rye, owing to the shortage of food for human consumption.

It is estimated that there is a supply in Canada sufficient for the demands of this year and part of next. The commission points to the fact that farmers should devote more attention and more acreage to the raising of wheat and rye, owing to the shortage of food for human consumption.

It is estimated that there is a supply in Canada sufficient for the demands of this year and part of next