NOW IS TIME FOR ACTION

DEPREDEATIONS OF TUSSOCK MOTH ARE NOT BEING CHECKED

Should the City Take Action?—Great Quantities of Leaves are Being Eaten by the Pests.

The tussock moth which has been doing so much damage in various parts of Canada and the United States continues its ravages in Kingston and no very stringent measures seem to have been taken against it.

Citizens do not seem to have been generally aroused to the seriousness of the situation. If the depredations of the pest are allowed to continue the outlook for shade trees is poor indeed.

The moth seeks good company and has infested the best parts of the residential section around King, Bagot and Barrie streets and the city park. Along the trees running by the street railway track the little cocoons can be seen and in them is the troublesome pest.

Undoubtedly Prof. Klugh's suggestion that the nests be removed from the trees is the best that has been made at this late time and a thorough arousing of citizens to the situation is needed. There should be no dilly-dallying in this matter.

SUMMER SCHOOL CLOSED

A Profitable Six Weeks Have Been Spent in Kingston.

On Friday Queen's University Summer School was officially closed. Year by year men and women have been coming to the University to broaden their educational outlook and to increase their knowledge.

The Summer School has gained a reputation not only in Ontario, but all over the Dominion of Canada and from north and south, east and west the students have come. The school has prospered and each student is urged to further its work wherever possible.

J. T. Curtis, president of the Summer School Association, has filled the office most ably this year. He has taken an active interest in all its activities and has worked up an enthusiasm that will not soon wane.

Pleasant times have been spent, warm friendships made, a profitable time has been spent, and some of the famous Queen's spirit has been instilled into the short term students. They leave for their homes well satisfied with their six weeks in Kingston.

MORE CARE TO POPULATION.

A Visitor Says That Kingston Stands Surprisingly High.

A visitor to the city recently said: "I have always heard sad stories about the unprogressiveness of Kingston. There are more cars seemingly here in proportion to the population than in any place that I have ever been in, and that is surprising when one considers your roads."

The thought is certainly a true one in that Kingston to-day stands out as one of the foremost cities in the automobile world. Everything from a Ford to a Packard seems to be in the local garages. It is indeed a credit to the city that it should stand out in this way to the visitor and thus present a fact which, because of its familiarity, is lost to the local resident.

Memorial Plaque Details Arranged.

In connection with the competition for designs for a memorial plaque to be presented to the next of kin of members of His Majesty's naval and military forces who have fallen in the war, all competitors must be British-born subjects, and each model submitted should be delivered in London not later than November, 1917. The following inscription has been decided upon to form part of the design: "He died for freedom and honor." Intending competitors should address inquiries to Sir Joseph Pope, Under Secretary of State for External Affairs, Ottawa.

Scholarship Awarded.

Announcement is made of the Sydenham High School scholarships awarded by the Frontenac Entrance Board on the results of the Junior High School entrance examination for 1917. They are: First scholarship—Paul Miller and Marlon Sullivan. Second scholarship—Grace Garrett. Third scholarship—Mildred Fraser and Allen Knapp.

600 On Excursion.

The Young People's Society of Cooke's Church ran a successful excursion among the islands on Thursday evening. About 600 people went aboard the Thousand Islander and until 10.30 o'clock enjoyed the music of the steamer orchestra and a delightful trip on the river.

Picnic For Lieut. Hazelton.

About thirty-four members of Miss Libbie Allen's class in Queen Street Methodist church attended a picnic at Lake Ontario Park on Thursday afternoon in honour of Lieut. and Mrs. A. Hazelton. Lieut. Hazelton is lately returned from the front.

Barges Ashore.

As the tug Myra was proceeding down the river Monday night with the coal laden barges Arthur, Middlesex, and J. D. Dunn in tow, the vessel's steering gear broke, and it became necessary to cut loose from the barges, which were swept by the swift current against Canada island, abreast of Morrisburg.

The current runs about nine miles an hour at that point, and the tugs were thrown hard aground. The Arthur is in a serious position, being six feet out all around, and the other two barges are but little better off. The tug managed to save herself.

The underwriters were notified and the Donnelly wrecking fleet will be asked to release the stranded vessels. The barges sprung a leak after striking, and are now full of water. The Middlesex brought up against the bank, which was sunk a year ago, and her stern was badly twisted by the impact.
