

ARRIVES SAFELY IN JAPAN

EX-ALD. WILLIAM DUNLOP WENT FROM KINGSTON

To Visit His Son, Rev. Dr. J. G. Dunlop—Quite Hot in Japan—Mr. Dunlop Climbs to Volcano.

The Whig is in receipt of an interesting letter from Ex-ald. William Dunlop, from Kanawza, Japan, where he went to pay a visit to his son, Rev. Dr. J. G. Dunlop.

Mr. Dunlop says he had a very cold voyage across the Pacific, but that since his arrival, it has been very hot. There were three severe electrical storms. Two dwellings were struck by lightning, but luckily no person was injured.

Kanawza is the summer resort for the missionaries and others, and it is where the volcano Assama is located. It is 8,500 feet high. Mr. Dunlop has climbed it.

The former Kingstonian made his trip across the Pacific on the Empress of Asia, a very fine steamer to travel on.

It is of interest to note that Mr. Dunlop has two sons and a grandson in England and France. His daughter, Miss Margaret Dunlop, has volunteered for overseas service from a Massachusetts hospital as a nurse. The son in Japan is engaged in missionary work.

Buying the Orchards.

The Ontario Government bought the majority of the orchards at Wellington and have rented the fruit storage of W. P. Niles, Limited, where the fruit will be packed and boxed for shipment to the boys at the front. This will give employment to a large number of men and boys, as a large quantity of boxes will be made as well as the picking and packing of the fruit. We understand that Lester Smith, who has been employed for some time by the Ontario Government in this particular branch, will have charge of this locality.

CLEARING IT OUT.

One of J. Wesley Allison's Promotions at Morrisburg.

What seems to be the final chapter in the history of the Morrisburg Tin Plate Company is now being written. Workmen are engaged in the demolition of the big buildings in which the company, for some years, manufactured tin plate and sheet steel, and the machinery is being taken out for shipment to Hamilton. The enterprise, which attracted such wide attention, was promoted about ten years ago by J. Wesley Allison, who secured a contract for the erection of the buildings. The company was capitalized at $1,000,000 and paid-up stock amounted to approximately $400,000. Shareholders, whose numbers were large and whose expectations were high, were located all over the continent, and some resided in Europe. The company, though a growing concern for a number of years, never paid dividends. There were about two hundred employees, who received good wages while the factory was in operation. It never ran very steadily. One of the reasons for the interruption in manufacturing was the frequent shortage of power at the electrical power works, whose construction was undertaken by Morrisburg at a cost of about $800,000, in return for having the industry located there. Morrisburg is now left with nothing from the enterprise except the experience and the electrical power house, which latter has been made use of by the Hydro-Electric Power Commission of Ontario. Mr. Allison, the promoter, was not a shareholder, nor was he a member of the board of directors.

County Court Case.

Justice of the Peace George Hunter will have an interesting case on Monday. A resident of Harper's Corners has had a summons issued against another resident, charging him with securing money under false pretences. He charges that the man sold him a farm implement while another party had a lien on it.

Letters to the Editor

Saskatchewan Needs Hay.

Adolphustown, Aug. 17.—(To the Editor): The hay of Ontario is sufficient for Ontario for two years. So says the Government report which I know is correct. They advise farmers to plough up meadows and sow rye and wheat this fall, which is also right, and hold surplus hay over in its cheapness now for use next year, which is correct, if all farmers could hold, which is doubtful. Now, what about the cattle in Saskatchewan that will have to be sold this fall for want of hay to winter them. Hay is a bad failure there, as there has been no rain since seed time in the spring. This I know to be true from information received from my friends living there.

Here is what one of them says: "The hay is scarce, and I sincerely wish we had plenty. It will take 300 loads to put our cattle, sheep and horses through. I am quite certain we cannot get it, and will have to sell part of our thoroughbred stock. There has not been one good rain since the crops were seeded, so you can imagine what kind of crops and gardens there are here. We expected to cut plenty of hay off a 50-acre rye grass meadow, but will not cut it at all, as it is no good. In some localities it is a little better, but the best is no good."

Now, then, the Government owns the C.N.R., why should they not arrange to ship this hay over their road at rates low enough, if not free to meet the requirements of the cattlemen there to winter them instead of having to sell for slaughter this fall. A move like this by the Government now that they own this railway is the most commendable act that could be done for the whole Dominion. The cattle raising in the west needs the greatest care and attention in critical times of necessity of feed to protect the beef industry of any agricultural pursuit. Now is the time to strike for protection of beef. Act—not puff and blow.

DESERTER USES TABLE LEG ON HIS JAILER

Charles Edward Rogers Enlisted With Toronto Battalion and Later Highlanders

Charles E. Rogers, who was released from the penitentiary and allowed to join the 253rd Battalion, at Cornwall will come back to serve out the balance of his old sentence—a year and a half—and a new sentence of three years imposed by Police Magistrate Denis, Cornwall, for assaulting his gaoler. Rogers had been stealing from the stores of the 253rd Battalion and was taken to Kingston for trial by court-martial. The military authorities sent him back to Cornwall to be tried under the civil code.

Wednesday he attempted to commit suicide in the jail and on being discovered made a fierce attack on the gaoler, T. W. Ault, with the leg of a table. The man had been un-ruled and made threats of committing suicide and said he would kill anyone who went near him. Nothing but a table was left in the cell. He was closely watched and when it was discovered that he had torn up his clothing to make a rope with which to hang himself, Mr. Ault went in. Rogers thereupon knocked the table over and with his leg with which he attempted to assault the gaoler. He was overpowered and placed in irons.

On Thursday the magistrate added three years to his old sentence. The man belonged to a Toronto battalion and was sent to the penitentiary for desertion. After four or five months of his sentence was served he was allowed out on parole and joined the 253rd.

He claims to be from Texas and says he is twenty-three years of age, although he looks older. He is a powerfully built man, weighing perhaps 175 pounds, and made a fine appearance in the cells.

RAINED ON THE "COPS."

There is Still a Big Leak in the Police Station Roof. There is still a big leak in the roof of the police station roof. While the "city fathers" enjoy their holiday, the roof of the city's "lockup" is being sadly neglected. During the heavy rain storm on Friday afternoon the rain came through in about half a dozen places. In one place there was enough rain for one to have a splendid shower bath and the police constables who happened to be in at the time had to keep shifting about to keep clear of the water.

Algonquin Park.

This attractive Ontario Government reserve of nearly 2,000,000 acres is one of the popular resorts this year. Splendid fishing has been experienced and the weather is all that can be desired. 2,000 feet above the sea and swept by pine-scented winds assures the visitor of pleasant days and cool evenings. The Highland Inn, situated on Cache Lake, is the social centre of this great reserve, and has a log cabin camp, built on picturesque lake some miles distant from the hotel have become most popular. All are of one accord that there is not a summer resort in America that surpasses this beautiful territory. Free illustrated literature telling you all about it from Grand Trunk Railway agents. For reservations, rates, etc. write Miss Jean Lindsay, Manager, Highland Inn, Algonquin Park Station, Ontario.

A Farm Sold.

T. J. Lockhart has sold a farm of 200 acres owned by W. H. Arbuthnot, formerly of Horvath, of the township of Pittsburgh, possession given next March. This is one of the best farms in the township of Storrington.
