FISH IN THE STREAM

That Never Were Caught, But Yankee Hooked Three.

There are fish and fish, and then some more, but Winthrop Lewis, of New York City, who is visiting at Mrs. Charles Vanafstyne's cottage at Dead Man's Bay, takes the laurel wreath for big catches. His genial Yankee thought he would try his fisherman's skill in the waters near Eastview. He was more than amply rewarded after a short time fishing, when he pulled up in succession three pike, weighing respectively eight, five and three pounds. He has a big fish story to take back with him to the other side.

YOUNG MAN'S SUDDEN CALL

"Osie" McCutcheon, Succumbs to Attack of Acute Indigestion.

Corwall, Aug. 25.—Osborne J. (Osie) McCutcheon, a well-known young resident of Corwall, died suddenly at his home on Thursday after an attack of acute indigestion. He was in his usual health up to within half an hour of his death. Some time ago he resigned from the staff of the local branch of the Royal Bank, to accept a position in the office of the St. Lawrence Brewery here, and at the time of his death, was head of the shipbuilding department. He leaves his mother, wife and two young daughters. The funeral will take place Saturday morning.

CONTRACT AWARDED.

M. J. O'Brien Will Erect 22-Room Addition.

Renfrew, Aug. 25.—Work was commenced to-day in enlarging the Hotel Renfrew. The contract was given M. J. O'Brien, and will run over $25,000. An additional frontage of 33 feet will be added, which will extend back 80 feet, providing for 22 additional rooms. The hotel has been a paying investment since it was built.

Royal Bank Manager Resigns.

Corwall, Aug. 25.—Archibald Denny, who for a period of thirty-three years was connected with the old Ontario Bank and for the past eleven years, with the Royal Bank as manager in Corwall, has resigned and is succeeded by F. B. Brownridge, formerly accountant in the Royal here and lately manager of the branch at Newcastle, Ont. Mr. Denny came to Corwall over thirty years ago from Ottawa, and has been prominent in the affairs of the town since that time.

Child Browns in Barrel.

Corwall, Aug. 25.—Oscar, the four-year-old son of Alex. Lindsay, of the west end, was drowned in a barrel of water at his home this afternoon. The little fellow was playing about the yard only a short time before his mother found him. He was still alive, but failed to respond to resuscitation. He had evidently been leaning over the edge and fell in, as he was into the barrel head first when discovered by his mother.

Arranging a Reception.

Lancaster, Aug. 25.—The townspeople are arranging a reception in honor of Miss E. Rayside, who has been overseas for the past two years, as matron in charge of No. 1 Canadian General Hospital at Le Treport, and later as matron at Moor's Barracks; and who has now been appointed supervisor of the military hospitals in Canada, with headquarters in Ottawa.

Sold Summer Home.

Corwall, Aug. 25.—Regret is felt by the people of Sumnerstown and vicinity over the fact that this will be the last summer spent among them by A. R. McMaster, K.C., of Montreal, who has made his home at Fairbairn during the summer months for several years. Mr. McMaster has sold his summer home to Lieut. Col. C. C. Ballantyne, of Montreal.

Treasurer Superannuated.

Cobourg, Aug. 25.—Cobourg Town Council at its last session granted a superannuation allowance of $200 per year to A. Poe, who resigned after serving ably as treasurer of the corporation for many years.

The Commons Friday Night

rejected the amendment by Dr. Fughey to the Soldiers' Voting Bill.

Ye Olde Firme.

The Royal Piano

It makes no difference whether it is a high social function, an educational affair, or a great artistic event, in this country the piano made by Ye Olde Firme is used in nine cases out of ten. We refer to the

Heintzman & Co. Art Piano

as the Royal Piano, because it was specially selected for the use of Queen Mary when in this country as Princess of Wales. This great Canadian instrument has stood the test for 65 years. In tone, in action, in durability, it is recognised as supreme among pianos, and deservedly bears the title: "World's Best Piano."
