

Automobile Headlights

New Standard Headlights Corning Conaphores

Light never more than 42 inches above the road. Headlight range of 500 feet with a 21 c.p. bulb properly focused.

Cuts out all the glare, yet uses all the light, complying with the law of the city and state in glare laws.

Penetrates fog, dust or smoke so you can drive 25 miles an hour under adverse weather conditions. Has strong side-light which illuminates the roadside. The noviol beams make the green stand out so you can distinguish bushes and ditches.

Never clogs with dust or mud in summer or with ice or snow in winter and is easily put on any car.

You will have to get them. Why not now and have the pleasure of good light and not bother the other fellow.

COBB AND ROUSCH HOLD LEADERSHIP Battles for Big League Batting Crowns Now for Second Place.

The battles for big league batting crowns are now nearly settled for this year. Averages show only a close battle for second place. Rousch, Cincinnati, leads the National League with 348. 20 points ahead of Walter Cruise, St. Louis. In the American League Ty Cobb with 380 is 18 points ahead of George Sisler, St. Louis. Cruise is hitting .218, and Benny Kauff and Roger Hornsby are tied at .314 for third place. Grogg, Cincinnati; Wilhoit, New York; T. Clarke, Cincinnati; Prendergast, Chicago; Zimmerman, New York; Griffith and Reuther, Cincinnati, are other .300 hitters. Lister, St. Louis; Bader, Boston; Speaker, Cleveland; Ruth, Boston; Russell, Chicago; Russell, New York; Chapman, Cleveland; Bodie Philadelphia; Harris, Cleveland; Veach, Detroit; and McInnis, Philadelphia, follow Cobb in the 300 class of the American League.

ATHLETICS IN TROUBLE St. Catharines Crowd Meet with Hardships in Chicago.

The unauthorized joint of the St. Catharines Athletics to Chicago has got them into serious trouble with the Ontario Amateur Lacrosse Association, and at present the Athletics are on the suspended list, the game with Young Toronto, scheduled for Saturday being indefinitely postponed. The trip to Chicago was primarily arranged to provide one of the features of a big Red Cross Athletic festival at Weighman Park, the grounds of the Chicago Cubs, last Saturday. Apparently, the tour was taken without consulting any authority or making any effort to obtain the sanction necessary for an Ontario team intending to pay abroad. The Red Cross game was not the sum of the activities of the tour, though. On Sunday, which is a forbidden day to Amateur lacrosse players, the Athletics got deeper into trouble by playing another game with the Calumet, in which Fitzgerald and Kalls, St. Catharines pros, figured on the Chicago team, and at which a "gate" was taken. In their two days' visit the St. Catharines' team appear to have accumulated all the difficulties that could be gathered in that space of time and which it will take a good deal longer to clear up. Their present status, therefore, is that of a suspended club, due to lack of representations and explanations at headquarters.

Matty is waiting to hear from scout Larry Sutton. The old sleuth has been spending several weeks in the bushes and is expected to bob up with several new pitchers.

Baseball Briefs

The major league Marathon record is 24 games, played by Philadelphia and Boston in the American circuit.

There may be a stampede among baseball players next spring. Commissioner Hoover threatens to put them on rations.

Cleveland paper claims Ty Cobb is on the downgrade. Still he has a long way to go.

Johnny Evers has taken another new lease of life. He is holding in sensational style for the Phillies.

The Giants' lead has made the National League race topheavy, but the gap between second and third places in the American League struggle is producing similar conditions.

Griffith let Jameson go because he couldn't hit. Now Jameson is one of the Athletics' leading hitters.

Rumored that Percy J. Haughton and his partners will sell the Boston Braves when the season is over.

Hank Gowdy has not been missed by the Braves for the reason that Truesdler has turned out to be a splendid backstop.

The Pirates will not get very high this year, but the team is young and quite sure to improve. In two or three years the Pittsburgh club may be back in the place of prominence which Fred Clarke's team formerly held.

Joe Evans, of the Clevealands, is a coming third baseman. He possesses a powerful throwing arm and can hit.

John McGraw has one record that is unique in his brilliant career as a manager. The plot of the Giants has taken back more pastimers he had previously canned than has any other manager.

Ed Appletton, who refused to join the Baltimore Orioles when ordered to do so by the Brooklyn Dodgers, but who later changed his mind, is on the down grade. Jack Dunn let him go and the Dallas club lured him, but they also turned him out.

PITTSBURG PIRATES HARD LUCK TEAM Are Hopeless Tail-enders But Make Leaders Hustle to Beat 'Em.

All records in the National League were broken by the Pirates and Dodgers last Wednesday. The nearest approach was the 21 innings game between a different brand of Pirates and the Giants at Pittsburgh on July 17th, 1914. A homer by Doyle won for the Giants.

The longest major league game on record was that fought between the Boston Red Sox and the Philadelphia Athletics, in Boston, on Sept. 1st, 1906. The contest went 24 innings, the Mackmen winning.

The record for four consecutive extra innings was tied by the Pirates. They lost to Philadelphia in fourteen innings last Saturday, won from the Dodgers in ten innings on Monday, tied the Dodgers in a thirteen innings game Wednesday. This makes a total of 59 innings.

The previous record of four consecutive extra innings games was established by Detroit and Chicago, which played four extra innings contests in succession, one going twelve innings, the second ten innings, the third eleven innings and the fourth ten. The total is 43 innings, as against the Pirates' 59.

The Pirates, therefore, establish a new record as far as the number of innings is concerned.

It took the Pirates and Dodgers 35 innings to reach a decision. This beats the former record of 26, played between the Senators and Browns, August 27th, and 28th, 1913. Jimmy Hickman, Hi Myers, Casey Stengel and little Bigbee carried off the honors at the bat. Hickman made five hits in nine times at bat, Myers five out of ten, Stengel four out of eight and Bigbee six out of eleven.

The total number of hits made was 47, the Dodgers getting 23 and the Pirates 19.

The Greatest Ever.

Harry Davis, Connie Mack's lieutenant, is of the opinion that Ty Cobb is the greatest ball player who ever wore a uniform. Quoth Harry: "I have watched Cobb with interest. Now and then he has a rival, but he is like Caruso, rivals come and they go, and Cobb is still king. No hitter will ever go good as Cobb. No man was ever faster than Cobb. No outfielder ever covered the earth as he does. No man ever ran bases like Cobb has for ten years. There is only one Cobb. How much longer can he go? I don't know. I was my best at 35, and Cobb looks good to me for at least five more seasons of top work. I don't think he will play one game after he starts to slip. He has told me he was ready to retire the day that Father Time called him back to the field."

Johnson Big Card in Spain.

According to a London paper Jack Johnson is still boycotting the natives of Barcelona, Spain, where he is safe from legal prosecution or extradition and the people take him at his own valuation. Three times a week he is a "toreador", and is said to be piling up the florins. The account also goes on to say that he has acquired an interest in a newspaper, which supplies a queer mixture of socialism and sport. Long screeds in Spanish are published over Johnson's name, but he refrains from discussing them, due to the fact that he rarely knows what they contain. Barcelona is some seaside resort for Johnson—they still believe him champion of the world and are proud to entertain him.

Baseball Tourney at Tweed.

At a baseball tournament held at Tweed between teams from Ivanhoe, Chapman, Lodgeroom and the Tweed ball team, some good ball was put on, and proceedings were watched by a crowd of spectators. Lodgeroom and Chapman were the first to take the field. The former team was handicapped by not having their regular catcher and lost to the other team by a score of 10-5. Ivanhoe and Tweed were next on the diamond, going five and four times to bat, respectively. Ivanhoe was defeated by a score of 14-6. Then came the final clash between Chapman and Tweed, which was watched with great interest. The game was stopped at the third innings, the score standing 12 to 9 in favor of Chapman.

Facts About Walter Johnson.

Here are some of the principal facts in Walter Johnson's wonderful career:

In 1907, his first year in fast company, he pitched 14 games, winning five and losing nine.

In 1912, the first year Washington ever finished in the first division, he won 25 and lost 12 games.

In 1913 he hung 36 victories and lost only seven games. His winning percentage of .788 is his high water mark.

In 1910 he fanned 313 batsmen. Rube Waddell is the only pitcher with a higher total for strike-outs.

In 1912 he came back with 303 strike-outs.

His year of greatest effectiveness was 1913, when he allowed but 109 earned runs per game off his delivery.
