TWO CITIZENS INTERFERE ARE SURVEYING HIGHWAY

WITH THE MILITARY MACHINERY OF THIS DISTRICT

One is a Politician, the Other a Jack-of-All-Trades—They Aim to Get Votes, But Their Game May be Spoiled.

A newspaper man who recently returned from overseas, said to the Whig "Take it from me, the kinks that are being made by people in Canada now in the name of returned soldiers, seldom, if ever, originate with men who have seen the firing line. It is the man who never reached France, probably not England, or even Halifax, who is doing the kicking."

This surprising statement certainly is borne out by recent facts that have come to light locally. Certain changes have been made and these it will be understood originated not by returned soldiers, but through two civilians, one a politician the other a cosmopolitan character.

They seem to be doing a great amount of work presumably for the returned heroes. In one case they forced the resignation of a lieutenant who was selected by his officer commanding for an overseas draft. The officer commanding is a man who has been through many months of French warfare, but who, on his return is not allowed to make his own selection of officers because of the interference of two civilians.

The public seems to grasp the extent to which civilian interference is working into the military machinery of this district. Only recently a conference between the military authorities and these two civilians was held. It resulted in the resignations of two of the most experienced officers. Both have tried to go overseas, but have failed. Now their services are lost to the country.

The Whig is quite sure that the returned soldiers will be able to think for themselves and will certainly spurn the plans of those who think their votes may be corralled.

KINGSTON MARINE CIRCLES

SCHOONER ABBIE L. ANDREWS ARRIVED IN PORT

Notes of Interest About a Number of Vessels—Movements of Boats in and About Kingston Harbor.

The schooner Abbie L. Andrews, which sunk at the wharf in Oswego some days ago, has been raised and was brought to Kingston on Tuesday night in tow of Sorensen Hunkley. She has coal for Sorensen and the steamer John Thom which was towed across the lake by the wrecking steamer Cornwall has been taken to Ogdensburg for repairs to the rudder.

The steamer H. M. Pellatt arrived from Montreal on Wednesday morning, and will undergo a general overhauling at the Kingston Shipbuilding Company's wharf before being sent for service at a distant port. The barge Mamie is still on the drydock following a collision several weeks ago but work is being rushed to completion.

The steamer Rideau Queen, which has been laid up for several weeks following a breakdown, has been fitted up and left for Picton at 4.30 p.m. on Tuesday on her first trip. She is replacing the steamer Varuna which will be laid up for a time here.

The steamer Haddington arrived from Montreal at 2.50 p.m. on Tuesday but was despatched down the river to Clayton to tow the steam-barge W. M. Egan to Kingston. Both vessels arrived at 4.45 p.m. and cleared light for Erie to load coal.

The steamer Kingston arrived from Prescott at 4.50 p.m. and cleared for Toronto at 5.05 p.m. on Tuesday.

The steamer Ionic passed up from Montreal to Toronto and Fort William at 11.30 p.m. on Tuesday.

The steamer Calgarian passed up from Montreal to Lake Erie to load coal at 2 a.m. on Wednesday.

The steamer Toronto arrived from Toronto at 4.35 a.m. and cleared for Prescott at 5.30 a.m. on Wednesday.

The steamer Jex arrived with coal from Oswego for J. Sowards.

M. T. Co's Bulletin:—The tug Bronson and Hall arrived up from Montreal with four light barges.

The tug Thomson arrived up with two light barges from Montreal.

The steamer Arabian was due to pass down on Wednesday grain laden from Port Colborne to Montreal.

The tug Magnolia cleared with the barge Brookdale for Port Dalhousie.

SPORTS AT BARRIEFIELD.

Field Events Were Held There on Wednesday Afternoon.

That sports are being considered as part of soldiers' training is shown by the fact that Wednesday afternoon has been set aside for competitive games at Barriefield camp. Beginning at 2 o'clock sharp, the following events were staged:

Heats of 100 yards run, one mile run, wheelbarrow race, 100 yards final shot put, two boxing bouts, running broad jump, bagger's race, relay race of four teams. Immediately the field events are run off the final baseball game for the Camp Championship, between Army Service and Engineers will take place. Both teams will come onto the field prepared for victory and will each bring a strong support of rooters. Engineers beat Service the last time these teams faced each other on the diamond, but the Service boys think they are strong enough to pull out ahead and fresh from last night's win over Meda they are feeling prepared to go the limit. Engineers are in good shape, and if they play the same class of ball as that in the last two games they look to have a shade over Service.

WRITES FROM THE FRONT.

Pte. Gerald Ball, a Cole Lake Boy, Tells About French Croops.

Pte. Gerald Ball, a Cole Lake boy overseas, has written a letter home. It reads in part: "We are billeted in a nice little town, which is a grand change from the trenches. The weather has been splendid. Had a big rain shower, which prevented us from having any church service. We went out, but had to come back as it came down thick and heavy for about two hours. The buildings here are all made of brick except a few, which are chalk of about two stores. The streets are narrow, but the land is good. The crops are of wheat, oats, rye and plenty of roots. The grain is now stacked out in the field."

"I see by the papers that there will be conscription in Canada. I hope that it will all end soon and there will be no need of more men."

Canadian Casualties.

They Reached Kingston on Wednesday on Their Way East—Making Cross Section and Profile.

On Wednesday a group of surveyors arrived in the city and surveyed Princess street. They have been working from Napanee.

The survey is the preliminary for the new provincial highway which is to be built from the eastern provincial boundary to Toronto and further west. The men in the city are making cross-sections of the present highway and will complete a profile when their work is finished and all the data obtained.

In all probability the new highway will follow the present road very closely. Except in really necessary places there will be no diversions because of the big expense incurred where land must be purchased.

The Government has already taken over the highway from Toronto to Port Hope and it is understood that A. M. Rankin, M.P.P. is making a strong appeal to have the remainder taken over so that work will not be delayed.

TAMWORTH WEDDING.

A Happy Event at Home of J. N. Wagar.

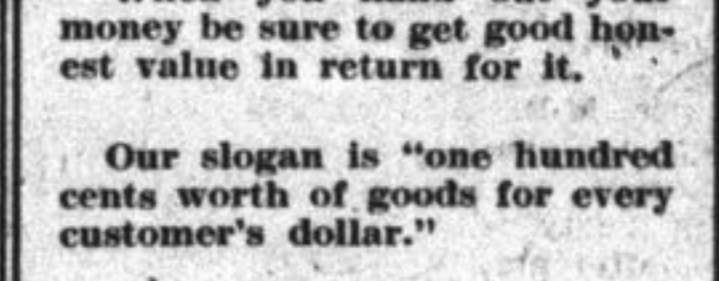

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Wagar was the scene of a pretty event on Aug. 22nd, when their only daughter, Edna Bernice, was united in marriage to Clarence Loughhead, Centreville. Promptly at high noon, to the strains of the Wedding March, played by Mrs. W. W. Rodden, the charming bride entered the drawing room, on the arm of her father, and took her place under a beautiful corner arrangement of evergreens, ferns and carnations.

The bride looked lovely in a gown of white duchesse silk trimmed with pearls and wore a wreath of orange blossoms in her hair. She also carried a shower bouquet of roses and maiden-hair fern.

Miss Jessie Smith, Frankford, gowned in pale pink tulle, acted as bridesmaid and Bert Loughhead, Kingston, brother of the groom, did the duties of best man. Little Miss Jean Rose, Frankford, made a very pretty flower-girl, dressed in white, with leaves of pink, and carried a basket of flowers in which the ring was concealed. Rev. Mr. Rorke, Tamworth, officiated.

After the ceremony, the guests, numbering about eighty-five, repaired to the dining room, where they partook of very dainty and tasty luncheon, which had been prepared by the bride's mother, after which the bridal party left amid showers of confetti to motor to Kingston, where they left by boat for Toronto and Niagara Falls. The bride travelled in a navy blue gingham suit with felt hat to match. The groom's gift to the bride was a pearl and emerald pendant; to the bridesmaid a cameo ring; to the groomsmen a pair of gold cuff links and a masonic emblem; to the flower girl a pearl ring and to the pianist a dainty pearl brooch.

The presents were numerous and costly and included substantial cheques from both the groom's father and the bride's father. Among the guests were friends from Michigan, Toronto, Kingston, Frankford, Madoc, Tweed, Napanee and Enterprise. The happy couple will reside on the groom's farm near Centreville.
