Constable Arnel Uncarried Box Containing Goods Thief Had Discarded—Goods Shipped by Local Firm to Calabogie.

Searching along the waterfront on Wednesday morning for a skiff which had been reported stolen, Constable Samuel Arnel uncarried a box partially filled with nails, hinges and mouse traps, and an investigation made by the constable showed that a freight car in the local yards, belonging to the Canadian Pacific Railway had been broken into and a box of merchandise stolen.

In the box mentioned there was quite a supply of cartridges and there are all missing, so it is quite evident that the person or persons who stole the box were in search of ammunition. The box was shipped by Dalton & Sons to J. S. Box & Sons, Calabogie. The contents of the box had been dumped out on the ground and after the packages containing the cartridges had been taken out, nails, hinges and mouse traps were dumped back into the box again.

The skiff reported stolen, and for which Constable Arnel was making a search, is the property of Lady Cartwright, at "The Maples."

GIVEN A PURSE OF MONEY

REV. JOHN DAWSON REMEMBERED BY HIS PORTSMOUTH CHARGE

At Gathering Held on Monday Evening at the Home of Alexander Atkins—Warm Words of Praise For Retiring Pastor and His Wife.

On Monday evening, the congregation of the Presbyterian Church at Portsmouth, met at the home of Alexander Atkins, and on behalf of the people of Portsmouth, presented Rev. John Dawson with a purse of money.

The gift was accompanied by the following address: "To the Reverend Mr. and Mrs. Dawson—After seven years association as a friend and pastor, during which time you were ever ready night and day, to do a friendly act to any one, we are shocked by the sudden call for the kind thoughtfulness of yourself and Mrs. Dawson.

We are pleased to know, however, that your ability has been recognized by outsiders, who have sent in an appeal for your help to a much larger field of labor. We trust that the pain to you and your good wife, will, in a measure, amaze the hearts of the parting and the many true-hearted friends you are leaving behind.

An earnest of this meaning, more than a scrap of paper, and token of the good will, your friends and admirers, we pray you to accept this small sum of money, with our best wishes for your success in a new and larger field of activity.

The address was read by Alexander Atkins and the presentation made by Mrs. John Davidson.

Rev. Mr. Dawson replied very feelingly on behalf of Mrs. Dawson and himself, for the gift and kind words.
