

CAPTAIN LAST TO QUIT BOAT

Put Women And Crew Into Yawl as Barge Went Down.

TWO MEN GOT ON A RAFT

BUT BECAME EXHAUSTED AND WERE WASHED OVERBOARD

Capt. Albene Lalonde and Mate on Steamer McVittie Tell Story of Lake Tragedy of Wednesday Morning—High Winds Made Hearing of Distress Whistle Impossible.

That he loaded the two women and a baby and the remainder of his crew into a yawl boat, just as the barge Hiawatha went to the bottom, is the story told by Capt. Albene Lalonde, the only survivor of the lake tragedy of Wednesday morning. The captain was the last to leave his vessel and as the wooden barge sunk he found a hatch cover, and clung to it for two hours, until he was picked up by the steamer McVittie, and taken to Oswego. Capt. Arthur Lalonde, of Montreal, was in command of the steamer McVittie.

Captain Lalonde, of the Hiawatha, speaks no English, but through an interpreter stated that he believes that the heavy sea must have overturned the yawl during the night. It was launched free and clear of the wreck, he said, and the men aboard knew well how to handle it. He is completely at a loss to explain how the yawl was capsized otherwise.

Captain Robert Graham, who commands the Magnolia, put about with the Hiawatha as soon as daylight came made a thorough search of the waters for survivors with no result.

HAD PILES FOR TEN YEARS

And Tried Nearly Everything Except a Surgical Operation Without Obtaining Relief—Tells How Complete Cure Was Effected.

Brantford, Ont., Sept. 22.—There is reported here three cures of chronic cases of piles. In all three cases many treatments were tried before it was discovered that Dr. Chase's Ointment is about the only real cure for this distressing ailment.

Mrs. A. Oates, 22 Orlinson Street, Brantford, Ont., writes: "I have used Dr. Chase's Ointment as a household remedy for over so long, and am particularly indebted to it for a cure from Piles. I had suffered from this annoying trouble for years, and tried nearly everything I heard of. After using Dr. Chase's Ointment a short while I was completely cured."

Mrs. Wm. Shaatz, 155 Albert Street, Kitchener, Ont., writes: "For several years I was troubled with bleeding piles. I tried different remedies for relief without success. I read in Dr. Chase's Almanac of the benefits other people were receiving from Dr. Chase's Ointment, so I sent to your office for a sample box. I found it gave me such relief that I went to a drug store and purchased a full sized box. I have used several boxes since and have derived more benefit from its use than any remedy I have ever used."

Mrs. F. Cussons, Victoria Street, Ingersoll, Ont., writes: "After two years and a half ago I was suffering from Piles. I had tried many different remedies for this distressing trouble, but nothing helped me. Finally I got a box of Dr. Chase's Ointment, and after using it found that I was completely cured, and have not been bothered in this way since. I can cheerfully recommend Dr. Chase's Ointment to anyone suffering as I did."

Dr. Chase's Ointment, 60 cents a box, at all dealers or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto. There are no rivals to Dr. Chase's Ointment as a treatment for Piles. Be sure to get the genuine.

No other boat than the McVittie was in the vicinity during the night.

Washed Off Raft.
The most complete version of the wreck was given by Mate Dauste of the steamer McVittie. He said that about fifteen miles out of Oswego the wheelman on the McVittie sighted a raft, made of three hatchway covers, upon which a man was clinging. Mate Dauste in a small boat rescued the man who was Captain Lalonde of the Hiawatha. Captain Lalonde said that A. Hebert, the mate of the Hiawatha and Joseph Thierge, seaman, with with him on the raft but became exhausted a short time before and were washed into the lake and went down.

The Hiawatha had no davits and the women and child with O. Hainault, whose wife and child were aboard, were placed in the yawl with Hainault and the boat launched. The other men took to the raft. Before the Hiawatha started to sink the bulkheads were knocked out by the crew to allow the water to run off her deck. The waves, however, crept into the hold. The Hiawatha tug Magnolia and about 150 feet from the barge Hilda.

Captain Lalonde said that he blew the distress signal on his small engine six or seven times but could not make the crew of the barge Hilda or the tug hear it on account of the wind being against the sound. He cut the line when he saw that the boat was about to sink.

Saw Men Sink.
The steamer McVittie was but a short distance away when the last two survivors were seen to sink. The others, including the women and child, must have perished in the darkness.

Captain Albert Lalonde, of the McVittie through his glasses saw the last two sink from sight. This was about 6 o'clock in the morning.

Every bit of speed possible was being made by the McVittie.

When picked up the captain of the Hiawatha was exhausted after his two hours' fight for life.

On account of the heavy sea the crew of the tug Magnolia was unable to let go of the barge Hilda and be of any help. The Hiawatha was at the end of the tow.

Made Soundings.
Captain Lalonde said that when he saw there was danger of the barge foundering he cut the tow line which held him to the Hilda. Although the line was practically new, it took but a single blow to sever it, indicating the extent of the strain.

The captain said he made a sounding twenty minutes or half an hour before the boat foundered and found but six inches of water in the hold. A few minutes later the boat began to fill up and he ordered the crew to leave the vessel.

The high wind and sea continued until early in the morning and then it swung around to the south so that by the time the McVittie reached the scene the weather had moderated considerably.

A Curious Feature.
A curious feature of the tragedy was the meeting for the first time of the Captains Lalonde, the rescued and the rescuer. Though of the same name they are no relation to each other, the McVittie's captain coming from Montreal.

A Word For Margarine.
Hamilton Herald.
Dr. Robertson had much to say on the question of the conservation of food, and the importance of sparing white flour, beef and bacon for the benefit of the Allies. We read: "In his opinion margarine was just as valuable in nutritive properties, pound for pound, as butter, for all ordinary purposes. The only reason it had not been allowed in Canada was that dairymen felt it had been sold in the past not as a substitute for butter, but as a counterfeit of butter. The Government did not want to precipitate a conflict on this question during war-time between the country and city people."

Acknowledges Subscriptions.
G. E. Hague, Treasurer of the Armanian Relief Fund, acknowledges the following subscriptions: $100, Mrs. Robert Chambers; $50, C. C. Benson, Port Hope; $25, Rev. D. and Mrs. Laing; $1, Mrs. Ida Prame, Rev. John Fairlie; 30c a friend.

At Cornwall, after an illness of four days with infantile paralysis, Mrs. Alex. Horton passed away today, aged forty-four years. The deceased was a daughter of the late Roland Hess.

A Valuable Formula.
The following simple and inexpensive mixture has been used for years by a well-known actress, for beautifying her complexion and preserving her youthful appearance, and to-day she looks almost as young as she did twenty years ago. Procure of your druggist one-half ounce of Bergarax and dissolve it in one pint of hot soft water, to which the juice of a lemon has been added. Apply to the skin with a sponge or soft rag, night and morning, allowing it to remain for ten or fifteen minutes, then wash off in warm soft water.

Two Full Moons This Month.
If moonlight nights have any bearing on the number of marriages consummated in any given period, the number of marriages which developed during September of this year in Kingston should be double that of any ordinary month, for this month, for the first time since 1899, there are two nights on which the moon reaches the full phase. The first full moon was on Sept. 1 and the second will be on Sept. 30.

100 Bushel Mark in Oats.
Trenton, Sept. 21.—"Oats in our section are running up to eighty and ninety bushels per acre," said S. O. Beck, of Haldimand County. "Indeed, I believe some fields will reach the hundred mark. When you see the shocks standing on the ground you wonder how such crops ever grew on the land."

Stomach Cramps COLIC
These are very painful, and their attacks are often sudden, and sometimes fatal. The principal seat is in the stomach and bowels, producing severe twisting, cramping pain, and often accompanied by vomiting. If you are troubled in this way, there is only one remedy to cure you, and that one is Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. It has a record of cures extending over 72 years, and we have yet to hear of a case where it has failed to either relieve or cure.

Beware of imitations and substitutes sold by unscrupulous dealers for the sake of greater profits, as these no-name, no-reputation, worthless preparations may prove dangerous to your health.

Mrs. H. Miller, 725 Mark St., Port William, Ont., writes: "Last summer my husband came home from work, and could hardly straighten up for cramps. The first thing I gave him was a dose of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, and I hadn't repeated it very long until he was all right again. It is the only remedy I give my children in the summer for cholera or cramps in the stomach. I have never been without it in the house for the last two or three years."

Price 35c. Put up only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

"Miss Springtime."
Klaw and Erlanger, who for many years have stood pre-eminent in the production of musical comedy, will on Wednesday, Sept. 26th, send their latest and greatest success, "Miss Springtime" to the Grand. Seldom has a happier combination been effected than that of Kalmann, Bolton and Woodhouse, the trio that turned the melodious score, built the laughter compelling book and penned the graceful lyrics that gave "Miss Springtime" her being. Peopled with the best artists that the light musical stage can offer; framed by sets of wondrous beauty from the brush of that master painter of scenery, Joseph Urban; dressed with Babylonian richness, tempered by Grecian artistry and Egyptian effectiveness; and with every charm enhanced by the skilled stage direction of Julian Mitchell and Herbert Gresham there is every reason for "Miss Springtime" being to-day, the most talked about and sought after musical comedy on the American stage. The prominent players in the company, of seventy-five sent to exploit "Miss Springtime" in this city, require no introduction.

"Pretty Baby" Coming Soon.
Jimmie Hodges and Jean Tynes in their 1918 version of their big musical sensation, "Pretty Baby," will be seen at the Grand commencing Saturday, Sept. 29th, 1 matinee and night. This is possibly one of the largest musical comedies to visit here this season. In producing "Pretty Baby" it requires seven mammoth scenes which, in two acts, runs from Long Island to China and back to Broadway by way of Honolulu. Almost everything in the way of songs is woven into the play. Jimmie Hodges is the principal "cut-up" and also producer of the clever comedy. Mr. Hodges has engaged a singing and dancing chorus that is far superior to any seen with traveling organizations. Specialties by the cleverest vaudeville artists, a cast of singing and dancing comedians of more than ordinary ability, make "Pretty Baby" an evening's entertainment well worth while.

Knocked Down by Auto.
Cornwall, Sept. 22.—A serious accident occurred at Avonmore after the fair yesterday. Mrs. Stephenson, wife of Capt. Stephenson, or the steamer Rapids Prince, was crossing the street opposite the Methodist church when an automobile, said to be going at fast speed, knocked her down, one wheel passing over her body. Doctors found that several ribs had been broken, besides serious internal injuries. Mrs. Stephenson's condition is precarious.

The race is not always to the swift and it is never to the loafer.
