REV. DR. BRUCE TAYLOR

LIKELY TO BE THE NEW PRIN. CHAPLAIN OF QUEEN'S.

He is Minister of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, Montreal—Served as a Chaplain at the Front.

A despatch to the Whig from Montreal says that it has been announced on unofficial but unimpeachable authority that Major the Rev. Dr. Bruce Taylor, of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, Montreal, has been approached to accept the principalship of Queen's University as successor to Rev. Dr. Gordon, who has resigned owing to the condition of his health and to take effect at the close of the college term in 1918.

Members of the Board of Trustees of Queen's say that no appointment has been made, but they do admit that Rev. Dr. Taylor's name is mentioned and with every likelihood of his accepting the appointment if confirmed by the board.

Dr. Taylor is one of the ablest preachers in Canada. He came from Scotland as successor to Rev. Dr. James Barclay some years ago. Besides being a divine he is an able administrator. He served for a year as a chaplain at the front.

John Herron's house at Herron's Mills was struck by lightning during the storm on Wednesday, but very little damage was done.

Gerald Brabazon, M.P., for Pontiac, is after the late Col. Smith's post as Sergeant-at-Arms.
