Books And Their Authors

A RETROSPECT

By Very Rev. George Corbet, V.C. 93 Pages.

A complimentary copy of this interesting book has been received by the British Whig from its esteemed author, the pastor of St. Columban's of such historic value. church, Cornwall, Ont. The volume deals with the inception and history of the first Catholic diocese of Upper Canada and the evolution of the By Mrs. Belloc Lowndes. 338 Pages. out" that he describes. Is world Catholic separate school system. It was a pleasant surprise to the present reviewer to discover that the opening article, containing an acapplause.'

Twenty-one years later, in 1861. Bishop Horan, of Kingston, had the remains brought to Kingston and deposited in the cathedral. A very laudatory and touching obituary notice, copied from the British Whig, is published in connection with this event. The lamented bishop laid the foundation in Upper Canada for Catholic Separate school, and his labors in this behalf are elabesteem to all classes and creeds. It satisfactory, albeit it ends in rosy office copy of Harper's Bazar that is fitting that the memory of so noble light. a man and so excellent an ecclesiastic should be perpetuated in this volume. The book closes with a letter from the author to Most Rev. M. J.

Spratt, archbishop of Kingston, da- tation of timely topics. The fourth ted at Cornwall on April 26th, 1916, year of war bids fair to be the first and with a reproduction of Pope of reconstruction. Therefore, the Benedict's encyclical letter on the bi- Yale Review responds to the desires lingual question in Canada. Rev. of thoughtful readers for guidance, Fr. Corbet deserves the thanks of with a group of remarkable contri-Canada for his effort in putting into | butions to a better understanding of abiding form documents and facts the times. In an article as persua-

LILLA: A PART OF HER LIFE.

Co., Toronto, Publishers.

An Enoch Arden story of the prescount of the emigration from the ent war-an Enoch Arden brought Scottish Highlands to North America down to date—has been given us by and the establishment of the Catholic this popular author. But it isn't diocese of Upper Canada, was in the every Enoch Arden who will look form of a quotation from a British through a window and go away in Karma of greed and sin which the Whig pamphlet published in 1839, silence. Sometimes he comes back world is expiating. The vast mind of In it are preserved many facts of from the dim and distant past, and, China and the Serbian disaster are historic value. There follow several well, makes things lively for all con- too little understood. A Serbian paletters from Bishop Macdonell, dated cerned. Occasionally he asserts his triot discusses the latter, a specialist at Kingston as far back as 1836 and individuality and his rights, and so in Chinese affairs the former, Among 1838, testifying to the valor of the introduces an element of tragedy into other notable articles are: "The Highland settlers and the splendid the lives of those who were nearest Tired Business Man," by Robert services they rendered to the Em- if not dearest to him. Such is the Grant; "On Buying Old Books," by pire in its days of peril. A chapter character Mrs. Lowndes has present- Charles S. Brooks; "Birth Control," of keen interest to Kingstonians is ed us in her new book. The idea be- by A. G. Keller; "Virgil and the New that devoted to a report of a din-hind the story is not new, but the Patriotism. by Anne C. E. Allison; ner given in Kingston, on May 29th. author's original treatment of it is British Novelists, Ltd., Book Re-1839, by the Celtic Society in honor unusual and skilful. There is a sub- views, etc. of the venerable prelate previous to stance to "Lilla" that comes from the his departure for the United King- fact that the authoress possesses undom. Among the contributors to the doubted literary ability and handles evening's programme was Dr. Bar- her material with such skill that the ker, the founder of the Whig. "He incidents in her plot, which are was called upon for a song," we startling and perhaps a little melo- ing than another for the coming winread, "and gave in most admirable dramatic, do not destroy a certain ter," says Madame Paquin in an exstyle 'When Vulcan Forged the Bolts sense of reality in the story. Lilla clusive article cabled from Paris of Jove, which drew forth vehement has a rich if unobstrusive person- especially for the October issue of ality, a strong and wholesome char- Harper's Bazar, "it is the use of the While at Dumfries, Scotland, Bis- acter. In the midst of her war work dress with the manteau—the long. hop Macdonell passed peacefully comes the magic touch at the door separate coat of many purposes. of her heart that changes all the which by its very simplicity carries world for her. But dark tragedy with it a certain sober distinction follows fast behind. The story moves significant of the pretty French rapidly, through tense and gripping phrase, le Manteau Royal. With rare climaxes to its inevitable conclusion. exceptions this manteau has replaced The incidents of the story are un- the tailored suit. The great coufolded by a woman who understands turiers of Paris in this have thought the craftsmanship of novel writing, alike, and have made charming not Not a happy ending, but a note of only the manteau itself, but the spiritual triumph, is struck by the frocks to be worn under it." author. The characters in this book In these days of high prices, and orated in detail. In all his letters are well realized, and the story when clothes especially are so expenand addresses he manifests a kindly moves with grace and ease to its sive, it is well to be sure that the spirit and a broad toleration, paying conclusion, yet the reader realizes clothes you buy are in the very laever and anon a generous tribute of that the artistic ending is not quite est fashion. We have noticed in our

THE YALE REVIEW. *

sive as it is readable, Simeon Strunsky proves that the war has passed beyond "the captains and the kings." It is the results of a war of "holding Price, $1.35. The Musson Book free trade by devices never thought of before 1914 the key to durable peace? This is the question that Brune Lasker proposes. Prof. Patten drops high explosive into our method of financing the conflict, and proposes a remedy. The historian, Henry Osborn Taylor, discusses the

"If there is one mode more strik-

Miss E, M. A. Steinmetz, the wellknown American fashion artist, and Soulie and Erte, the famous Parisian The October number of this able designers, are contributing their exquarterly is replete with the presenticlusive creations to this magazine.

THE MODERN DESPATCH RIDERS.

These despatch riders ar e no longer mounted on glossy chestnut steeds, nor do they urge their way along the roads with foam flecked sides to the clatter of hoofs. Thes e up to date despatch riders a re mounted on high powered motor bicycles, and it is with a snort and occasional backfire that they speed over the cobbles of the war zone roads. The spare wheel carried on the right hand side prevents serious delay in case of a bad pun cture or breakage of a wheel.

The Man on Watch

No need to send away for liquor when invalid wine is in our midst.

not know what they are missing, the by a good ten years and he has had Lampman might remark that there is 34.2 per cent of alcohol in this too with his yacht and his automoinvalid wine which we hear so much bile. Here's hoping he will live an- new president of the Canadian Loco- cent annual meeting he was elevated well the matters most important in would not send to Quebec for it. Un-choosing the equinoxial gale per- they saw and were very much captiiod for his fair. He is a daring old vated with the dainty circus maids. lad in defying the elements, and should have been an aeronaut.

The Children's Aid Society might expand its work and take care of infants whose mothers think more of the movies than of the comfort of to put the breaks on the people in their offspring. .

cerned, Toronto can have the big oil paid was fair. Wouldn't that make portrait of the jurist which hangs you feel faint, with hogs selling live in the town hall next the door. It | weight at $18 a hundred-weight, gives him a spasm every time he That's more than many a man is looks at it for this justice was one worth. of the notorious Family Compact whose deeds do not look well in print.

No matter who is elected as King- Many Americans are Moving to Wesston's member in the next parliament and no matter which party!

Catarrh Cannot Be Cured the Canadian West continues to be of With LOCAL APPLICATIONS, as they Catarrh is a local disease, greatly inand in order to cure it you must take an internal remedy. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally and acts through the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system. Hall's Catarrh Cure was prescribed by one of the best known, combined with some of the best Cure is what produces such wonderful results in catarrhal conditions. Send for testimonials free. F. S. CHENEY & CO., Props., Toledo, O.

Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

yourself or family your winter's reading,—join the Library where you will Township. He was in his eighty—where he got the library where he got the gains power the war will be won the Entente Allies. That might as well be thoroughly understood now

The Lampman hears that his old NEW HEAD OF THE CANADIAN friend "Tom" McAuley recently celebrated the eightieth anniversary of his birth. A man's alloted time may One of Kingston's Bright Young Men be only three score and ten, but Mc-For the benefit of those who do Auley has put it over the psalmist a blamed good time in the last ten ed to his fathers.

As no appeals were made to the mayor or Police Chief "Bill" Baillie the fair midway, the Lampman presumes that the ministerial densors Bushell took great chances in were perfectly satisfied with what

From Sunbury comes the word that a number of hogs were shipped As far as the Lampman is con- from there this week and the price

—THE TOWN WATCHMAN SETTLERS IN WEST

tern Canada.

Ottawa. Sept. 29 .- The movement of settlers from the United States to considerable volume, according to the statement of officials of the Do-blood purifiers. The perfect combina-tion of the ingredients in Hall's Catarrh

The death took place on Wednes- Curtis and also displayed his talent court for intoxication and earrying its use to apply to such people the the latest war books, books on his- seventh year and was born on the a yachtsman, too, he became well quor, and so was remanded to jail privided for the sale of it in Victoria the latest war books, books on his-tory, travels biography, the sciences, reference works, etc.

When a woman calls her husband he has been a motor boat enthusiast, Pay a visif to the Library and inthe ground that he married her. at Alexandria Bay. Last summer She had been long ill.

LOCOMOTIVE COMPANY.

reer Ahead.

DR. J. J. HARTY

The entry of the United States in- youth in short breeches. Born in expressions of approval when Nich- Hockey stick handler Ontario ever health and comfort. olas Murray Butler, president of Col- produced being able to manoeuvre the You can get Dr. Williams' Pink the Act was passed—if the war was umbia University, addressing them puck in a smaller area than any other Pills through any dealer in medicine, the excuss was to have left a liquor "on the question of the changing player and working the clusive rubworld," demanded that Congress exher through a mix-up of players in boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Wilof a government official in every counercise its constitutional right to expel marvellous fashion. He figured on llams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont. ty town in Ontario, with all the tax United States Senator La Follette. | several Queen's champion teams in the O. H. A. in the days of old Guy | Solomon Loft was in Belleville who used it right, and if they abused he was successful in leading home the fastest craft afloat." When his father, the Hon. William Harty, purchased the old locomotive works in the fall of 1900, "Jock" hecame a member of the company; and

Who Have Risen in the Business started in to learn the business in both World-He Has a Promising Ca- workshop and office. He was secre-The Whig recalls "Jock" Harty, the pany of a few years ago At the re- be well for the electors to conside, the better for the total abstinence. other ten years before being gather- motive Company of Kingston, as a to the post of president, which his fa- the coming future before they cast der total prohibition in fifty years ther used to occupy. He is also in- their votes. terested in outside iron and steel concerns, and another ten years should > tion in the business world. ested himself in municipal affairs, and the division of office spoils solely, as ten to fanatics at public meetings, represented Cataraqui Ward in the time has proven. City Council, where he gave excellent service to the people, who placed him defeated by his one-plank platform to the type of "Billy" Sunday. at the head of the polls on election "abolish the bar," and then for Hearst day. "Jock" was always popular, to join hands with him and "abolish and always will be, because he has a the bar" was what I call "cut throat," smile for all his friends, and is never or I don't understand English. That too busy to do a favor or lend a help- deceit was practised purely for party Oporto and Mrs. Philip Van Valkening hand. That he will some day be a member of the House of Commons there is not the slightest doubt.

The nerve system is the governing system of the whole body, controlling the heart, lungs, digestion and brain; so it is not surprising that nervous disturbances should cause acute distress. The first stages of nervous debility are noted by irritability and restlessness, in which the victims seem to be oppressed by their nerves. The matter requires immediate attention, for nothing but suitable treatment will prevent a complete to the war and the adoption of the Kingston about the middle of the sev- breakdown. The victim, however, of his many to be used right. What newspapers which announced that selective draft system has not affectenties, "Jock" grew into a sturdy ed emigration to the Western provingouth, and was one of the most popuces. This, it is explained, is due to lar lads in the city. Passing through the fact that the large majority of the Collegiate Institute when Dr. A. It is because Dr. Williams Pink Pills morrow ye die," but that does not The fact is that the Premier started those who seek homes in Canada are P. Knight was headmaster, he entered well-to-do farmers above the military the medical school at Queen's and because Dr. Williams Pink Pills mean that one should make a beast of himself to be merry. The real fact this medicine has cured extreme ner is that there are many wrongs done the liquor traffice. First and worst washington. Sept. age with children too young to be affected by the conscription law.

Since the United States came into the ministry, but he should have hade a good doctor had he cared to follow the war there has been an increased the direction of Canada.

Would Expel La Follette.

Atlantic City, N.J., Sept. 29.—

Came a doctor of medicine in 1897.

Would increase in 1897.

Would Expel La Follette.

Atlantic City, N.J., Sept. 29.—

Came a doctor of medicine in 1897.

Would Expel La Follette.

Came a doctor of medicine in 1897.

Would Expel La Follette.

Came a doctor of medicine in 1897.

Would Expel La Follette.

Came a doctor of medicine in 1897.

Would Expel La Follette.

Came a doctor of medicine in 1897.

Would Expel La Follette.

Came a doctor of medicine in 1897.

Would Expel La Follette.

Came a doctor of medicine in 1897.

Washington, Sept. 29.—Willards the liquor traffice. First and worst the liquor traffice. First and worst of all by acts of parliament in imposing such heavy taxes on it. It has been taxed from Morton's time of making his family proof for 25 cents per gallon to its present price of over the motion picture star, the former nerve shattered with the ministry, but he should have hade a good doctor had he cared to follow the new blood made from these ing such heavy taxes on it. It has been taxed from Morton's time of making his family proof for 25 cents per gallon to its present price of over 34 a gallon, and some of it adulteration the liquor traffice. First and worst with the history the ment had falled. The nerves thrive of all by acts of parliament in imposing such heavy taxes on it. It has been taxed from Morton's time of making his family proof for 25 cents per gallon to its present price of over 34 a gallon, and some of it adulteration the liquor traffice.

First and worst with the liquor traffice. First and worst with the ministry, but he should have a dade of all by a Atlantic City, N.J., Sept. 29.— school and college career. He was a good rugby player, but it was on the slight, should lose no time in giv-that entered the stomach. It leads but lots of men make monkeys of the adulteration and the destruction of themselves. Association launched into vehement he was regarded as the cleverest trial, thus regaining their old-time the stomach.

Letters to the Editor

Says There Was Deceit.

Adolphustown, Sept. 27 .- (To the abuse should have been stopped. tary of the former company and vice- Editor) :- The elections for both have not tasted any kind of liquor president of the newly-organized com- houses are near at hand and it would since Sept. 11, 1916, but I am none plank platform, as the electors were mics, a bloodless people.

spoils too.

be repealed by the next Parliament as Methodist Church here. soon as it assembles. It is a drastic Van Rensselaer, secretary of the No. 1 Interna Ltd. 1.41 p.m. penalties for breach of the law, when witnessess. he electors had been deceived by the people kicked him from his throne. The same should be done to Rowell and Hearst.

I think that the first-class hotels for ed to sell it under restrictions, not to dished out, as was done in the past by some hotels. That was the cause of the agitation to abolish the bar without a doubt. However, it was no excuse to abolish the bar. The you will have a people or a country of 1. Do not be duped again by a one- people full of consumptives and anaesee him occupying a still higher posi- six years ago on the reciprocity plank. In closing this letter I would urge It was twisted out of all shape by the the electors to consider well what and Mr. Harty for several years inter- Tories to gain party power and for who they are voting for. Do not liscrazed religious and temperance fa 2. In the Legislature Rowell was natics, or rip-roaring evangelists of

> -FRED. MEMBERY. Portuguese Duke Weds Widow, Rome, Sept. 29.—The Duke of burg, a wealthy American widow, The Temperance Act passed should were married at the American nable injustice to impose such heavy Consul Willys E. Ruffner acted as The Duke and the Duchess have No. 16 Express . . . Hearst party as their votes were cast already been provided with necessary No. 14 Intern'l Ltd. 1.08 p.m. not to "abolish the bar." That kind passports and are going abroad on No. 28 Local Lloyd George to Sue Papers. London, Sept. 29 .- David Lloyd Pullman accommodation, tickets and Liquor has been used from time im- George, the Premier, is commencing all other information, apply to, J. P.

memorial, and is one of God's gifts proceedings for libel against certain of a glutton? He is worse than a on the occasion of last Monday

Pauline Frederick a Bride.

Customers Take Notice We will take your order for delivery All sales for cash. Phone orders

C. O. D. The James Sowards Coal Co.

Phone 155,

LOCAL BRANCH TIME TABLE

In effect Aug. 19th, 1917.

Trains will leave and arrive at City Depot, Foot of Johnson Street.

Going West. William No. 27 Local No. 18 Mail of work is as bad as that of the Russian autocrat who stamped out liquor with one stroke of his pen and the of the late King Carlos of Portugal.

Nos. 1, 6, 7, 13, 14, 16, 18, 19 run daily.
Other trains daily except Sunday.
Direct route to Toronto, Peterboro, Hamilton, Buffalo, London, Detroit. Chicago, Bay City, Saginaw, Montreal, Ottawa, Quebec, Portland, St. John, Hallfax, Boston, and New York. For

Hanley, Agent, Agency for all ocean steamship lines. Open day and night.

Passenger Service Montreal and London (Calling Palmonth to land passeng

Montreal and Bristol For particulars of sailings and rate Reford Co., Dispited, General Agenta.

Connecting at Winnipeg for all Western Canada and Pacific Coast Points HOMESEEKERS' EXCURSIONS "CHANGE EVERY TUESDAY UNTIL OCT. 30th, 1917. Low fares in effect and tickets good for two months Time Table and all information from any Grand Trunk, Canadian Government or T. & N. O. Railway Agent.