For many years Mr. Noble had lived at Salmon Point, and he was highly respected in the community. Prior to the rural mail delivery system he was postmaster at Salmon Point. His wife, who was before marriage Caroline Reynolds, survives. Their only daughter died some years ago. George Thibault and Mrs. Scott, Cherry Valley, are sisters of the deceased.

OBITUARY

The Late Mrs. Bernard Quinn.
 A sad death occurred on Sunday morning in Barriefield when Mary Anne Fowler, relict of the late Bernard Quinn, passed away at the home of her father, Patrick Fowler. The late Mrs. Quinn was born in Barriefield twenty-nine years ago, and among the villagers had many friends who will regret her demise.

About four years ago the deceased was bereaved when her husband was thrown from a sleigh on Princess street and died from the effects of a fractured skull. For the past three years she had been in poor health, and gradually declined.

The late Mrs. Quinn was a Roman Catholic in religion and was closely identified with the interests of her church. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Fowler, Barriefield, survive.

The funeral took place on Tuesday morning at the home of the late Mrs. Quinn in the Church of the Holy Name, Cusheendall.

The Late Capt. John Guild.
 A well-known mariner, who has sailed from Kingston for many years, died very suddenly on Saturday night in the person of Capt. John Guild. The deceased, although in failing health for the past two years, was in good spirits on Saturday afternoon, and went out for a short walk.

When he returned he mentioned that he was not feeling very well and retired to his room to rest. Shortly afterwards he was seized with a stroke and death ensued before anything could be done to revive him.

The late Capt. Guild was born in Glenburnie seventy-two years ago, and was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Guild, parents of pure Scotch lineage. As a boy he was lured to the water, and it was his delight to sail in the hot summer days.

With the coming of manhood he opened up a store at the corner of Bay and Bagot streets, which he successfully conducted for some time. The call to the life of a mariner was too strong to resist, however, and while yet a young man he started sailing.

For many years he was engaged on lake trade for the Sowards Coal Company.

In the city the late Capt. Guild was well known, and his geniality and friendliness won for him many staunch friends who regret sincerely his death.

The deceased was a Scotch Presbyterian in religion, and was a faithful member and attendant of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church. He was also a member of Kingston lodge No. 59, I.O.O.F.

Besides his wife, residing on Lower Charles street there are two sons and three daughters surviving. W. T. Guild of Kingston, Capt. John Guild now at Halifax, en route for overseas service with the Canadian forces, Mrs. J. J. Murphy, Long Island, and Misses Christina and Elizabeth at home. Another son, Stanley C. Guild, was killed in France in April, 1916, while on duty with the 21st Battalion.

The funeral took place from his late residence on Tuesday afternoon to Cataract cemetery.

Death of Nonagenarian.
 A nonagenarian, whose face has been familiar to many generations in the district of Sudbury, passed away in the General Hospital on Monday in the person of Almond Roushorne. The late Mr. Roushorne was born ninety-one years and six months ago in Canada, and was a well-known farmer of Sudbury. At the end of last August he was brought to the hospital, and death ensued largely as a result of his very advanced age. He was a Methodist in religion. The funeral is to be held from the home of his son, Wellington, to Wilmer cemetery.

Late John Simmons.
 John J. Simmons succumbed to an attack of heart failure on Tuesday morning. He retired in good health, and it was not until quite late in the morning that he was discovered dead. Deceased was forty-six years of age and had lived in Kingston most of his life, having been born here. He was unmarried and is survived by his parents, four brothers and one sister.

Canadian Casualties.
 Presumed to have died—G. W. Allen, Peterboro; F. W. Roberts, Cobourg; R. J. Perring, Portmouth. Wounded—E. Campbell, Vank-leek Hill; Lieut. W. W. Lowery, Frankfort; S. E. Jex, Port Hope.

GET RID OF HUMORS AND AVOID DISEASE

Humors in the blood cause internal derangements that affect the whole system, as well as pimples, boils and other eruptions. They affect all the organs and functions, membranes and tissues, and are directly responsible for the readiness with which some people contract disease.

For forty years Hood's Sarsaparilla has been more successful than any other medicine in expelling humors and removing their inward and outward effects. It is distinguished for its thoroughness in purifying the blood, which it enriches and invigorates. No other medicine acts like it, for no other medicine is like it.

Get Hood's Sarsaparilla today. Insist on having Hood's.

Dandruff Surely Destroys The Hair

Girls—if you want plenty of thick, beautiful, glossy, silky hair, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for it will starve your hair and ruin it if you don't.

It doesn't do much good to try to brush or wash it out. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the fingers tips.

By morning, most if not all of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it.

You will find, too, that all itching and itching of the scalp will stop, and your hair will look and feel hundreds times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and four ounces is all you will need, no matter how much dandruff you have. This simple remedy never fails.

IMPERIAL LIFE

The interest earnings of The Imperial Life Insurance Company have been sufficient to cover all death claims and other payments to policyholders, and more over $750,000.00. This is the result of conservative interest rate and a low death rate, two important factors in the accumulation of profits for policyholders.

"MIRACLE GIRL" Gives Army Edison to 3rd Regiment, N.G.N.J.

Ashbury Park, N.J. Anna Case, soprano of the Metropolitan Opera Co., who sings exclusively for the New Edison Recording Laboratories, on Saturday presented an Army and Navy Medal to the Third New Jersey Regiment, of which Colonel Thomas D. Landon is head. Miss Case motored down to Sea Girt, where the regiment is in camp and surprised the "boys of the Third" with a "war phonograph" and a number of records. She sang "Our America," a song of her own composition, arranged for the band by Bandmaster Stark of the Edison Storage Battery Band, and the "Star Spangled Banner." She also sang in direct comparison with her own voice as recorded on the New Edison. The soldiers made it the big day of the year at Sea Girt. Colonel Landon showered prizes upon Miss Case for her gift, and particularly dwelt upon her career. Being a New Jersey girl, the gift was considered all the more appropriate for a New Jersey Regiment, said the Colonel. Then he told them of the plucky fight of Miss Case and of her being proud of her humble origin. She is the daughter of a blacksmith, and, he said, she is not afraid to let it be known. Gov. Edge introduced Miss Case to the camp. She was taken on a tour of inspection by Colonel Landon, who pointed out the camp kitchen and other interesting sights. Thursday she was the guest of Governor Edge at dinner. (Come in and hear some of the records by Miss Case on the New Edison.)
