RETURNED SOLDIERS HERE.
Party of Forty-two Convalescents Came to City Wednesday.

Forty-two returned soldiers arrived in the city in a special coach via Grand Trunk about 11:30 a.m. Wednesday. The party was met by Mayor Hughes, officials of the Military Hospitals Commission, army and navy veterans and others. After a few words of welcome from the mayor, the party was transferred to the Ojngwanada Military Hospital in military ambulances. Among the local men to come were Staff-Sergt. Parker, Sergt. R. Gibson and Pte. Palamoutain.

Some Carrots These.
When it comes to growing carrots to help on the campaign for increased production citizens will have to take off their hats to Joseph Kehoe, the well-known caretaker at the post office. In his little plot of ground Mr. Kehoe this year turned out a fine lot of carrots. Owing to the fact that this was the first year he experimented on carrots he is to be warmly congratulated on his success. "Joe" has already won fame in raising flowers and now in the vegetable line, he takes on new laurels.

Pte. K. Keill Returns.
Kenneth Keill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Keill, 295 Queen street, arrived in the city on Wednesday afternoon from France. Pte. Keill left here as a private in the McGill University Company of the Princess Pats Regiment. In France he suffered the loss of an eye and has been in hospital in England since then.

British Red Cross Collection.
Mayor Hughes will likely ask the churches to take up collections on Sunday the 28th instant, in aid of the British Red Cross fund. Last year the churches contributed $2,300 while the City Council gave $5,400, making $7,700 in all.

Old Charge Against Him.
James Devine, arrested for drunkenness on Wednesday, was wanted on an old charge. A man arrested for drunkenness last June swore that he got his supply of "joy water" from Devine. The drug nets were out for the accused, but he managed to keep out of the way.

William John Watson, younger son of Samuel Watson, and Miss Gladys Saunders Storey, daughter of the late Charles H. Storey were married in Brockville on Monday.

CHARGED WITH ABDUCTION FROM ORPHANAGE

Some Additional Information as to the Claims of Sister Basil.

The statement of claim in the action of Sister Basil against Archbishop Spratt and others will not be filed for another week, and until then A. B. Cunningham, the plaintiff's counsel, refuses to be interviewed. There is much interest manifested in the case.

From other sources it is learned that Sister Basil claims her room at St. Mary's-On-the-Lake Orphanage was broken into at the hour of midnight in September, 1916, that she was forced into lay garb and taken to a waiting automobile and but for outside interference would have been removed to an insane asylum in the province of Quebec. She claims that the attempted abduction was directed by the Archbishop, the Mother Superior and Dr. Daniel Phelan.

Policeman Naylor, who it is said carried out the attempt is a Catholic and one of the local police force. He was in plain clothes and had no warrant from the police department for his action.

It is said the allegations of the plaintiff will be of a most startling character. It is understood an attempt will be made by the defence to prove that Sister Basil is insane. She is now living in Kingston with a Catholic family and wears the garb of her order. Unstated damages are sought in view of her twenty-nine years in the order.

AN ENGLISH LADY WRITES
Gives Canadians Idea of Feelings Towards Air Raids.

Mrs. N. Beale, 280 Wellington street, has received the following letter from Mrs. J. Smith, 59 Devonshire Road, London:

"We are having some awful times in London with the bombs and Zepps. Last Sunday they were at Southend and 200 people were killed. There are a lot of houses at White Gate Road blown down. They came where Uncle Joseph is, but dropped on bombs. They came in the day time and the Zepps come at night and at night every light is out. We have to sit for five and six hours at a time waiting for daylight. We can hear them dropping their bombs and our gas firing. Last week we had five terrible explosions at the works, and a lot of women were hurt. Some were killed. Never mind, the boys at the front do not run away and the women must not refuse to do their bit.

"I went to a party for one of your boys who has been out in France three years and can not get home to see his wife and four children in Canada. He has a little boy out there who was born the day he came away. He comes to London on ten days leave to see his mother."

A WELCOME SOCIAL.
A Splendid Time Was Spent by Queen Street Epworth League.

Something unique in the way of socials was held by the Epworth League, Queen Street Methodist Church, Tuesday evening. It was a welcome social, and the eighty-five people present enjoyed every minute. New members and visitors were especially indulged, and everything possible was done to make them feel at home.

During the evening a musical programme by Miss B. Quail, Miss Ruby Quail, Miss Allen, Miss E. Pound, and A. Pettigrew added to the delightful entertainment which was arranged by the social committee with Miss Marjorie Ellis in charge. Games were played for some time, and were followed by refreshments. C. A. Grise-wood presided.

WANT TO CENSOR THE MOVING PICTURES
Women's National Council Makes a Request—Province Does Censoring
On Wednesday morning, Mayor Hughes received a communication from the local executive of the National Council of Women stating that the moving pictures presented in Kingston were not sufficiently censored, and asking that the City Council appoint two members of the Women's Council to do the work as it ought to be done.
Mayor Hughes intimated that the City Council has no power in regard to the matter. The moving pictures are censored by officials appointed by the Governments of the provinces of Ontario and Quebec. They are under provincial control. Every picture thrown on a movie screen here has the approval of the provincial censor.
