

Livingston's Pumpkin Growing Competition!

In our spring circular and through the press, we made the following announcement: We will give to every person making application an envelope of pumpkin seeds. To the one growing the largest pumpkin and best formation from the seeds, delivered at our store, on the following days, October 15th, 16th, 17th and 18th, can select any $20 suit, and to the third a $5 pair of trousers. A great many took advantage of our offer and we expect a good big showing. The judging will be held on Monday, Oct. 22nd, and the judges will be Mr. A. M. Rankin, M.P.P., and Mr. J. M. Hughes, Mayor of Kingston. The pumpkins received will be divided between the charitable institutions of this city. You are invited to call during the week commencing Oct. 15th, and see the display of pumpkins and look over the clothes situation. It will not be one bit of trouble for us to show you.

Yours very truly,

C. Livingston & Bro.

Military News

On Saturday Lieut. Col. D. Barrager, who for over two years has been commandant of the Infantry school here and at Barrieffield Camp, left for his home in Belleville to take over his duties as principal of a public school there. The colonel has proved himself to be one of the most capable instructional officers of the district, and his work as commandant of the school has been of a very high standard. During the many months the colonel was here hundreds of officers and N.C.O.s, qualified for their ranks under his capable guidance, and largely through his untiring efforts Military District No. 3 came to its present position among the districts of Canada.

Major G. I. Campbell, C.R.O., left on Wednesday for Toronto to join Lieut. Col. R. J. Gardiner, A.D.M.S. The two officers are leaving for Northern Ontario to establish medical boards at Ville Marie and other points in the north country.

Dr. Harlowe Connell, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Connell, Brock street, has been drafted by the United States Army and reported for duty at Camp Lees. Dr. Connell's brother, Capt. William Connell, is now in France with the Army Medical Corps.

H. W. Adams and C. E. Tanner, of the city, and James Smith and Edgar Wicks, of Napanee, have enlisted in the Railway Construction and Forestry Depot.

Appointments of recruiting officers under the volunteer system for recruits to the Railway Construction and Forestry drafts, Ottawa, are being made for Belleville, Lindsay and other places. It is the intention of the authorities to continue the volunteer system until the Military Service Act comes into force or an election takes place.

Twenty-nine men were examined by the medical board at the base recruiting office on Tuesday. This number was made up of sixteen for class A, one for class B, five for class C, and seven in class E. The total to date is 354.

Captains A. Stewart and J. B. Willoughby, A.M.C. Depot, Barrieffield, are in New York on the British Canadian recruiting mission.

The military "Y" marquee was packed to capacity last night. A programme of excellent movies lasting from 7.30 to 10 o'clock was shown, finishing with two reels on Charlie Chaplin as "The Count." The boys were all in high glee as they left for their different units.

Capt. J. E. Freeman who took a Forestry draft from the city a few months ago is returning this week.

Answering Questions.
"J. M." Kingston asks the Toronto Mail and Empire: I have been separated from my husband for many years. Our only child was a son, whom I brought up and educated entirely by my own earnings. I am now depending entirely on him for my support. He will be of military age before the end of this month. Can he claim exemption from conscription?
Answer: The Act was assented to by the Governor-General about the beginning of September. It does not fix a day or month when young men shall become liable to conscription or come into Class 1. Your son may be able to claim exemption on the ground that he is your sole support. As he had not attained the age of twenty when the Act came into force his name may not be included in Class 1.

The Theatres

At the Grand To-night.
A picturesque addition to the company presenting "The Sky Pilot," is Chief Deer, a full-blooded Iroquois Indian, whose features and physique might serve as a model for artists or for Government coins and banknotes. He is considered an admirable specimen of his race. Chief Deer when a young man lived in the Indian settlement of Kanawaki on the St. Lawrence River, opposite Lachie. Here he was a member of a noted Indian lacrosse team champions of Canada. Other players in the cast who will be seen at the Grand Opera House to-night, are Brandon Tynan, Regina Wallace, Ernest Anderson, Harry D. Southard, Eddie Heron, Louis Leon Hall, Elza Frederic, Isabelle Winlocke, Edwin Caldwell, Joseph Lawrence, Theodore Kehwald and Edward Broadley.

"Mutt and Jeff Divorced."
The fastest of all frolics and the cheeriest of all cartoon comedies is the way press and public elsewhere are describing Bud Fisher's newest nonsense farrago reintroducing his world famed rollicks, Mutt and Jeff, in a tailor-made musical comedy called "Mutt and Jeff Divorced." The production, which is listed for presentation here at the Grand on Saturday, Oct. 13th, matinee and night, is said to excel in its scenic embellishments, costume investiture and chorus costliness, all prior blue ribbon presentations which have made visits of the day remarkable.

At Griffin's.
To-night will be the last opportunity given to see Marguerite Clark's greatest picture "The Amazons." This picture has drawn capacity houses during the two days it has already been shown, and will no doubt duplicate the same, this evening. Many of the interior scenes of "The Amazon" are particularly beautiful, and through the whole picture runs the inimitable Clark humor. George Behr in "The Cook of Canyon Camp" pleases everybody, and will also be shown for the last time to-night, as well as the rest of the programme including the fourteenth episode of "The Mystery of the Double Cross."

At the Strand.
Lovers of refined photoplay will have their last chance of seeing June Caprice in "Every Girl's Dream" at the Strand to-night. This production pleases large and appreciative audiences on Monday and Tuesday. A "Must See" comedy and "Do Children Count?" will also be shown.

For the last three days of this week the headline attraction will be a William Fox seven-reel super de luxe production, "The Tiger Woman," with Theda Bara in the title role. The part that Miss Theda Bara portrays in "The Tiger Woman" shows this marvelous and incomparable screen artist in a role fraught with mystery and tense situations. She eclipses any previous vampire roles that has made her famous. Comedy reels will also be shown.

Princess Street Methodist Event.
The seating capacity of Princess Street Methodist Church was taxed to its utmost Tuesday evening, when the annual tea given by the Sunday school teachers and officers was held. The supper was up to its usual high standard and the programme was an excellent one. W. F. Nickle, M.P., filled the position of chairman. Revs. W. T. G. Brown and E. R. Kelly gave stirring addresses. Miss St. Pierre gave readings in her delightful manner. The musical numbers by Messrs. Jones, Meyer and Haffner gave much pleasure. The evening throughout was a pronounced success.
