THE ANNUAL MEETING HELD ON MONDAY AFTERNOON

$222.79—The City Council To Be Asked For An Additional Grant, Mayor Hughes presided at the annual meeting of the City Poor Relief Association which was held in the city council chamber, at 4 o'clock on Monday afternoon. The proceedings were opened with prayer, of-work. Mayor Hughes also paid a warm tribute to the good work carried on by the association's agent Miss Going. The latter had been very active during the year, and as a result of her efforts a great deal of suffering had been relieved. The horrible atrocities of the Austrians when they first entered Serbia were graphically told by Miss Losanitch, a Serbian lecturer, in Convocation Hall before a large audience on Monday evening. Miss Losanitch uppeared in Serbian costume and spoke for two hours.

> Following this onslaught, the te rible plague of typhus descended upon this country. There was nothing with which to fight the disease

> The speaker graphically described the retreat of the Serbians. The speaker's own father and mother were with the multitude that went over the snow-covered mountains in the dead of winter. The refugees died by the hundreds by the way 30,000 children were started on their way to the sea, that they might not fall into the hands of the enemy only 6,000 reached their goal, the rest having perished by the way. Some very remarkable screen pictures were shown by the lecturer. Many of these were taken by a member of the party who fied with King Peter in the terrible retreat, and are the only ones of their kind in existence. They were given to Mics Losanitch by this man in Paris. They showed first the king and his Prime Minister departing in an automobile. Then, when the roads became impassible, carriages were used. These gave way to ox-carts, and finally the royal party trudged on foot. Miss Losanitch proved herself charming personalities that has yet appeared on a Kingston platform to tell something of the war. Her mo-Save your hair! Beautify it!
