FROM THE COUNTRYSIDE

Frontenac

ARDEN. Nov. 25.—The winter has made its appearance and the farmers are hauling wood to the village as the roads are in excellent condition. Mrs. F. Knight, who has been in the Hotel Dieu undergoing treatment, is improving. Miss Lily Boomhour is ill of pneumonia. H. Wormwith, Petrol, is home. E. Parks is on the job. Mrs. J. Hughes received word that her son James is wounded. Miss Muriel Deltor is at H. Hannah's. L. Gendron intends moving in his new home on Bridge street. Mr. Hech is at his home in Montreal for a few days. Mr. Barr is at J. Gendron's, Arden. A number of the boys have gone to the city to be examined. Mr. Reid, I.P.S., has been visiting the schools in this district. M. Thompson has gone to Oshawa, where he has secured a position.

INVERARY

Nov. 26.—Robert Knight expects to come home this week from Kingston, where he underwent a successful operation in the General Hospital. George Pount of Kingston, gave an interesting address in the Methodist Church on Sunday morning. Melville Patterson has done the khaki and is now undergoing training in Kingston. He is the only young man from this section who did not obtain exemption. Mr. and Mrs. William Willis and family motored from Morton on Sunday and spent the day at A. F. Holmes'. The Model factory will finish the season's make on Friday. Earl Warner and family have moved to their farm at Yarker. Walter Oliver came home and spent the week-end prior to his leaving for overseas. Word has been received that Archie Kish, who was gassed, and spent some time in a hospital in England, cannot come as was expected but must go back to the trenches. Mr. and Mrs. John Simpson and daughter, Amelia, have arrived home from the west. Mrs. Bartels of Kingston, is renewing acquaintances here. Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Lake have moved into their new home. Mrs. Chrissy, a life-long and highly respected resident, passed peacefully away at the ripe old age of eighty. Her husband predeceased her a few years ago. She leaves a family of seven children to mourn the loss of a kind and affectionate mother. Mrs. Richard Arthur attended the celebration of the eighty-fourth birthday of her mother, Mrs. Moveiland, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John Toland, Kingston. William Bennett is engaged with Carmen Dredger for the ensuing year, and Simon Young is with Elwood Thompson.

Leeds

LYNDHURST. Nov. 25.—Death has claimed the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. William Moorehead. There is to be a memorial sermon in St. Luke's church on Sunday evening. Mrs. Amoz Weeks has returned home after spending two weeks in Yarker with her sister, Mrs. Levi Fluke. Mrs. Robert Moulton, of Berrinton, spent the last week with her father, R. R. Tate. George C. Roddick will soon have his new grist mill in running order.

PORTLAND

Nov. 26.—The ladies of the English church held a bazaar here on Saturday afternoon and evening. The sum of $118 was realized. The snow storm of last week enabled the farmers to supply some of those who were in need of wood. Earl Bon has received a carload of flour and feed, which was much needed as there was not any to be had for some time. Miss Duffield, Elgin, spent the week-end here the guest of Miss Bell Morris. Owing to the illness of Miss Myers, teacher in the junior room, the school was closed for a few days last week. W. H. Murphy, Smith's Falls, was in the village last week.

CAINTOWN

Nov. 26.—Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Powell of Escot, spent one day last week with Mr. and Mrs. John Kincaid. Mr. and Mrs. James Eligh left Monday morning for their home in Chicago, after spending a month here. All the young men around here have been granted exemption. Mrs. H. R. Knowlton of Athens, spent last week at Caintown. Wilfrid Roman and sister Winnie of McIntosh Mills were Sunday visitors at the home of George Luder. Sleighs and cutters are in use now. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Morrow spent a few days recently among friends at Ivy Lea and Lamsdowne. Mrs. Sanford Darling has returned to her home at Little's after spending a week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dickey. Mrs. Nancy Tennant is visiting her daughter, Mrs. H. R. Knowlton of Athens. Mrs. William Graham, spent last week with her son, Bert, of Purvis street. Donald Morris, Charleston, spent Sunday with his brother Clifford.

CHARLESTON

Nov. 26.—Much regret is expressed over the deaths in action of Ptes. Leonard McConnell, Bennie Green and Clarence Maimie, all of Lyndhurst. Quite a number from here attended the political meeting at Athens on Wednesday evening, also the commencement on Friday evening. There will be a memorial service held at St. Luke's church, Lyndhurst on Sunday, Dec. 2nd at 10.30 a.m. for the late Pte. Leonard McConnell, killed in action on Oct. 29th, 1917. There is good sleighing here at present and the people are taking advantage of it. Mr. Purvis and bride (formerly Miss Cooper), of Kingston, were at St. Finlay's last week. Mrs. R. Finlay has returned from a visit with Smith's Falls friends. P. Finlay and sister Maggie accompanied Mr. Purvis and bride to Kingston on Tuesday where a reception was held for the newly-weds. Ormand Munn, Oak Leaf, has come to live with his uncle, P. F. Johnson, and has taken over the farm work. O. A. Munn purchased a fine cover cutter from A. Taylor & Son, Athens, on Saturday. The white fish season is here, but there are few fish.

OUTLET

Nov. 26.—Quite a number are driving sleighs and cutters and the sleighing is fairly good on smooth roads. A number of the young people attended the party at McIntosh Mills last Wednesday evening. Glen Reid made a trip to Athens on Friday last. Mrs. William Crozier is visiting her son and family in Charleston this week. G. A. Bradley Athens visited friends here on Sunday evening and Monday. Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Vanderburg and children spent Sunday under the parental roof. Miss Myrtle Reid is spending the present week with friends in Athens. Claude Goff, Sand Bay, was at George Reid's on Wednesday last. Patrick Kelly passed suddenly and peacefully away between twelve and one o'clock. Mr. Kelly had been confined to his bed for some time but was not considered any worse. He had eaten a hearty dinner and conversed brightly with his daughter, Mrs. Flood, while eating, but when Mrs. Flood left the room a few moments after one of the children heard Mr. Kelly call and when Mrs. Flood hurried to his bedside she found he was sinking fast and the other members of the family and some of the neighbors were summoned but had only reached the house when he passed away. Mr. Kelley was a man of sterling worth, a kind and loving father. The remains were taken to his old home on Monday and on Wednesday his funeral, which was very largely attended, took place at Brewer's Mills Roman Catholic church and cemetery.

PHILIPSVILLE

Nov. 26.—The good sleighing of the past few days is a boon to the farmers who have wood to draw. Miss V. A. Davison, Brockville, has been spending the past month at the home of her grandfather, W. B. Phelps. A quiet wedding took place here recently when G. Lawson and Miss Bertha Hawley of Chantry were united in marriage by Rev. F. C. Chisholm at his home here. Benjamin Shire has returned from the west to spend the winter with his mother. A number of young people from here motored to Athens on Friday to attend the H. S. commencement. The many friends of Miss Johnston of Fortar, former teacher, will be sorry to hear she is suffering from typhoid fever. Miss Amanda Akiva had the misfortune to fall on the ice at her home here, badly spraining her wrist. Mr. and Mrs. Cottes have recently moved into Arren Brown's cottage. A large carload of stock was shipped from this station to Montreal by P. Atcheson on Saturday. Mr. J. Dorway has returned home after visiting her brother, D. W. Downey of Brockville. "The Farmers' Pride" shipped three tons of cheese on Friday last. There have been several farmers in the vicinity who have lost young stock this fall. Of course, calves and young cattle will wander away at times if they get the chance; but the fact that the cattle, in almost every case this fall, have entirely disappeared in an incredibly short time makes it seem doubly strange such losses coming in these times of good prices is pretty hard on the farmers.

Lennox and Addington

NEWBIRGH

Nov. 26.—The Red Cross Society gave an entertainment in the Standard Bank hall on the night of November 23rd. C. Le Roy Kenney of Toronto gave the programme and A. Aylesworth acted as chairman. The proceeds were $70. Mrs. Mathews of Kingston spent a few days with her father, James Davy. Miss Clarie of Shannonville, a returned missionary, spoke in the Presbyterian church on Tuesday evening the 13th. Mr. and Mrs. Wilfrid Sutton and Mr. and Mrs. Walton Hogan motored to Kingston last week. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Caton of Chicago is visiting his brother, A. Caton. Rev. Dr. Young of Toronto was in the village last week.

YARKER

Nov. 22.—Word has been received here that Pte. Arthur Smith has been wounded the second time. Mr. and Mrs. William Bell and family have moved to Belleville where they will reside in future. Miss Lizzie Brown of Marlbank spent a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Stewart Ross of Watertown, N.Y., visited at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. J. Irish; Mrs. Ewart and son Clarence and granddaughter have returned from the west, where they spent two months visiting her daughter, Mrs. Sullivan. William Woodhouse and brother Jack, of Peterboro visited their mother who is ill. Mrs. Myers Warner and son, Robert, of Kingston also visited Mrs. Woodhouse, who is improving. Miss Kimmet of Napanee spent the week with her brother John Kimmet. Mrs. Ferguson of Toronto is with her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. A. Babcock. Fred Babcock has returned home from England, where he spent the last eight months. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Deare and family spent Sunday at Mr. and Mrs. George Deare's. Chickens are making its rounds among the children. The Methodist people of the village are erecting a Sunday school hall.

Thousands of appeals have entered, and more will be, in Quebec Province, by military representatives from the local tribunals' decisions, H. C. Hocken, speaking in West Toronto, said he hoped to have a majority of 5,000.
