In his order clothing department he has a full range of cloth which he will make up into suits or overcoats at a very reasonable price and guarantee first class fit.

Kingston's Famous Fur Store

DECEMBER 1ST This Is Fur Time.

Where is the best place to buy?

Some may tell you one place and some another, but don't take anybody's word for it until you see for yourself the magnificent display and wonderful values at Kingston's biggest, brightest, busiest and best-fur store.

We have been making and selling furs for forty years—a longer period than all other fur stores in the vicinity, combined, and we always carry the largest stock of well made, reliable furs between Toronto and Montreal. Buying our skins direct from the hunters and trappers, and making them up on our own premises, enables us to sell retail the highest grade furs at even lower prices than the big city wholesale fur concerns. We stand behind these statements—investigate, it will pay you to make comparisons. Catalogue and price list on request.

BERNHARDT THANKS

Queen's Dramatic Club For Contribution to French War Relief. While the proceeds from the Queen's University Dramatic Club performance, "Green Stockings," were being counted at the Grand Opera House on Friday evening a telegram was received from Madame Sarah Bernhardt, who was the recipient of a cheque, from the club while playing in the city recently to be devoted to French war relief. The translation of the telegram, which was in French is: "Many, many thanks, sir, for the cheque which you were kind enough to send me. I am sending the money to the relief of the Union of Arts, of which Madame Rachel Boyer is president in Paris. An admirable work and very helpful to all the artists at the front. Again a thousand thanks, sir. Best wishes. Sarah Bernhardt."

An Unfortunate Loss. A soldier's wife with a family of six children on Tuesday was unfortunate enough to lose a pocket book containing the remainder of her husband's pay, $15 in bills, 90 cents in silver, and an addressed envelope, etc. She feels the loss very keenly because the money was urgently needed, and asks that whoever has found it will kindly return to the Whig Office.
