BAKER'S COCOA HAS GREAT FOOD VALUE

THE food value of cocoa has been proven by centuries of use, and dietitians and physicians the world over are enthusiastic in their endorsements of it. It is said to contain more nourishment than beef, in a more readily assimilated form. The choice, however, should be a high-grade cocoa,—"Baker's" of course.

IS YOUR HAIR SLIPPING?

The presence of dandruff and falling hair conveys a warning which it is best to heed. At first the loss of hair may be so slight as to be hardly noticeable. But no matter how little it may be at first, it is working toward the same and inevitable result, and that is total baldness.

You may have hair enough today, but how about tomorrow and the day after? Dandruff and falling hair mean baldness sooner or later and demand the immediate regular and energetic use of Newbro's Hairicide. It keeps the scalp free from dirt and dandruff and allows the hair to grow abundantly and naturally. By this means total incurable baldness may be prevented.

Hairicide does not stain or dye and has a most exquisite fragrance which makes it especially pleasing to the ladies. It stops itching almost instantly.

You may be told that there are remedies "just as good as Hairicide." You cannot afford to take chances with nor can you expect to obtain results from "an off brand" article. Insist on having genuine Hairicide, the Original Germ-Remedy for Dandruff.

You can get a sample of this delightful hair dressing and a booklet on the care of the hair by sending ten cents in silver or postage to The Hairicide Co., Dept. S, Detroit, Mich. Try Hairicide once and you will never be without it.

Sold everywhere in 50 cent and $1.00 sizes and guaranteed to give satisfaction or money refunded.

Applications obtained at the barber shops and beauty parlors.

ADVICE ON A DIFFICULT PROBLEM

(Copyright, 1916, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)
"How long have you had Tillie?"
"This was Aunt Tabitha's opening remark after Kenneth departed, and it was not difficult for me to guess that I was to receive some advice on the servant problem."

"Only a short time," I replied casually. "You know, we have been keeping house only a few weeks. Mr. Higginbotham had employed her and we inherited her from him."
"Huh!" sniffed Aunt Tabitha. "I would hardly call her a desirable legacy."

"We have found her very faithful," Aunt Tabitha bridled.
"I suppose I was expected to ask what Aunt Tabitha had found wrong with the maid, but I did not, and presently she proceeded to tell me."
"I always insist upon my maids getting up when I do," Aunt Tabitha went on. "This morning I suppose I was up two hours before Tillie made her appearance, and when she did come down to the kitchen she was as sleepy as if she was still in bed. I asked her if she was walking in her sleep, and what do you suppose she said to me?"

"I can't imagine," I replied sweetly, secretly hoping that Tillie had given her a bit of impudence.
"Why, the good-for-nothing thing told me that when she walked in her sleep she went away from the kitchen and not toward it. 'You see,' she said, 'tossing her freckled head, I slave here so much when I am awake that when I am asleep I have sense enough to go somewhere else.'"

"What do you think of that?"
"You don't mean that she was really impertinent, do you, Aunt Tabitha?" I inquired solicitously.
"Why, of course she was impertinent!"

"I shall have to speak to her about it."
"You need not. I am quite sure that I lectured her severely enough. I have always considered it of the greatest importance to keep servants in their place. I never allow them to speak back to me. They are employed to do what they are told to do, and if they can't do it, out they go."

"But it is so hard to get good servants," I remarked languidly, using the same tone that I had heard some of my acquaintances use under similar circumstances. "One must be considerate of their feelings, otherwise they will not remain."
"Considerate!" Ah! that word! Aunt Tabitha contemptuously. "They lose respect for you when you are considerate. The way to deal with servants is to hold a tight rein on them."

"I suppose then that you lectured Tillie into her proper place?"
"Yes, of course," replied Aunt Tabitha in such a doubtful tone that I almost smiled openly. "I told her a few things, but I am afraid you have spoiled her. She insisted upon speaking back to me until I thought it best to retire from the kitchen and leave her to herself. But my retirement did not stop her from talking."

"I heard her talking things about in there and shouting at imaginary objects long after I left. I think she has a violent temper."
"I do not know whether she has or not," I replied. "I have never seen her aroused, but if what you tell me is true I shall be very careful not to arouse it."

"But you must control her. She must be taught her proper position."
It seemed to me that Aunt Tabitha was broaching a plan to gain my cooperation in dealing with Tillie, but I had no intention of being drawn into such a scheme.

"Come," I said suddenly. "Let's take a walk about the garden. I want to show you what lovely grounds we have."
Aunt Tabitha arose grudgingly and prepared to follow me. I knew she much preferred to discuss Tillie.

Tour of Instruction Cars.
The Grand Trunk Railway is co-operating with the Ontario Department of Agriculture, in connection with the operation of Agriculture Instruction Cars over its line. Two cars are used, and will contain exhibits relating to seed-testing and selection; under drainage and soil moisture control; water supply and sewage disposal; use of fertilizer and lime, corn, cereal, root, potato and garden vegetable production; drying; insect pests and plant diseases; poultry, etc. The cars will be open for exhibition at Kingston on Monday, December 3rd, from 10 a. m. to 5:30 p. m. Special attention will be devoted to children from 10 a. m. to noon. Not only farmers but all interested in food production and economy may derive value from the demonstrations.

Over 5,000,000 women are now employed in gainful occupations in Great Britain.

LEMONS BRING OUT THE HIDDEN BEAUTY

What girl or woman hasn't heard of lemon juice to remove complexion blemishes; to bleach the skin and to bring out the roses, the freshness and the hidden beauty? But lemon juice alone is acid, therefore irritating, and should be mixed with orchard white this way. Strain through a fine cloth the juice of two fresh lemons into a bottle containing about three ounces of orchard white, then shake well and you have a whole quart pint of skin and complexion lotion at about the cost one usually pays for a small jar of ordinary cold cream. Be sure to strain the lemon juice so no pulp gets into the bottle, then this lotion will remain pure and fresh for months. When applied daily to the face, neck, arms and hands it should help to bleach, clear, smoothen and beautify the skin.

A Stubborn Cough Loosens Right Up

This home-made remedy is a wonder for quick results. Easily and cheaply made.

The prompt and positive action of this simple, inexpensive home-made remedy in quickly healing the inflamed or swollen membranes of the throat, chest or bronchial tubes and breaking up phlegm and mucus, is known the world over in more homes than any other cough remedy. Under its healing, soothing influence, chest soreness goes, phlegm loosens, breathing becomes easier, tickling in the throat stops and you get a good night's restful sleep. The usual throat and chest colds are conquered by it in 24 hours or less. Nothing better for bronchitis, hoarseness, croup, whooping cough, bronchial asthma or winter cough.

To make this splendid cough syrup, pour 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (50 cents worth) into a 16-oz. bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup and shake thoroughly. You then have 16 ounces—a family supply of a much better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made for $8.50. Keeps perfectly, and children love its pleasant taste.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract and is known the world over for its promptness, ease and certainty in overcoming stubborn coughs and chest colds.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex" with full directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Toronto, Ont.

THE ACTIVITIES OF WOMEN

Russian women are not only sufferers, but voters as well. Of the 706,000 teachers in the United States 537,000 are women.

Viscountess Gort has opened a fashionable millinery shop in London.

The chemical industries of Great Britain employ over 8,000 women and girls.

Over 25 per cent. of all women sixteen years of age and over are wage earners, business women, etc.

The King of Siam has a body-guard of 400 trained and armed women doing service in his capital.

The Italian ministry of agriculture has awarded 12,713 prizes to women workers on farms in that country.

Out of every 100 women in the United States, 39 marry between the age of twenty and twenty-four.

There are thousands of women in England who smoke on an average of 300 cigarettes a week.

WHICH?

"This bulk tea is the best I could buy at the price, Mrs. Brown, but I believe you will like Red Rose better."

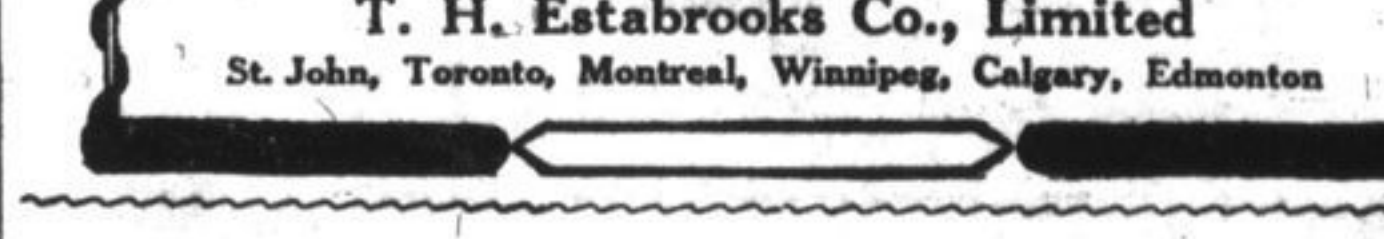

"We use Red Rose at home and like the rich flavor. My wife says it goes further."

Hundreds of grocers are making statements somewhat like this.

They have sold Red Rose Tea for many years and have found the quality so good that they use it in their homes.

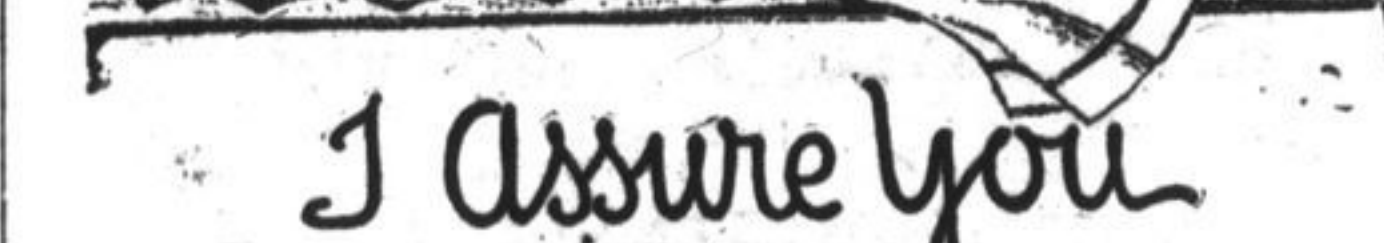

Most grocers naturally like to make an extra profit on their bulk tea, but they cannot help recommending Red Rose Tea because they know it's worth the price.

They know it goes further because it consists chiefly of the tea from Assam in Northern India, the strongest, richest teas grown anywhere in the world. Red Rose tastes better and goes further.
