Todd has won the Military Medal for good work on the field under heavy shell fire, and has several times been recommended for good work. Pte. Wright was a 98th Battalion man, but is now serving with the 3rd Battalion in France.

Above is one of the first photographs of the Kaiser to reach this country in many months. It was taken some time last winter on the occasion of the German Emperor's visit to Rumania, and shows the war lord and his staff sadly inspecting the instruments with which representatives of the Standard Oil Company destroyed the country's great oil wells on the approach of the Austro-German invaders. The mourning band of the Kaiser's withered left ram is in marked contrast to the numerous war crosses that are spread over his

MANHOOD I The quality which rules the world to-day. My friend, there never was a time in the history of the human race when real, sturdy manhood, manly vigor and manly courage counted for as much as they do now, this very minute.
No matter what your years, whether you are 20 or 60, you must be either entirely in the race or entirely out of it. It is invariably the fellow who proves up strongest in this human strength that forgew to the front, while weaklings stand aside; it is he also who is in most demand, and most sought after by all classes of his community, simply be cause he radiates that marvellous magnetic influence which only an abundant vigor and rugged manly health can radiate. I believe any man can hope to
