WAR SERMONS DELIVERED JACK HAZLETT ELECTED

IN SYDENHAM STREET CHURCH BY REV. T. W. NEAL.

Former Pastor Heard by Large Congregation—God in the Midst of All the Present Conditions.

Rev. T. W. Neal, of Broadway Tabernacle, Toronto, a former pastor, preached at both services in Sydenham street Methodist church on Sunday and his discourses were of a most forceful and inspiring nature.

In his sermon in the morning the speaker referred to the war, and the great changes it was making in the world, and stated that men of strong hearts and minds were needed to meet the present day conditions. We needed to realize that God was among us. There was great need for men of honor, and men who could not be tempted by the spoils of office.

There was too much singing and preaching about the God in Heaven, said the speaker, who declared that he would lose faith in Him, if he did not think that He was in the midst of all the present conditions. A great many had asked why God did not stop the cruel war. God was in the midst of it all, and after this awful struggle was over, there would be a far better world.

The old world was being swept away and a new world was in the making. All the smaller things in life had been put aside and attention was being paid to the bigger things. There was great need for faith in God, who had not lost His control, and the day is coming when all will be well again. It was the duty of the church and its ministers to interpret God to the people.

The edifice was crowded at the evening service when Mr. Neal preached on "Britain's Transformation." With regard to Quebec asking for a referendum as to whether Canada should send new help to her sons overseas, Mr. Neal dramatically declared: "God forgive us!" He told of a Toronto lady, a member of his congregation, who had lost two sons in the war, and her answer was to give a third son who trained in Kingston last winter is now amid the shot and shell.

The musical service in the evening was very fine. It included an anthem, "O Sing to the Lord a New Song," with solo by Capt. H. Angrove; violin solo by Arthur Locke, of Cardinal, and organ solo by Ernest Madrand.

Rev. W. T. G. Brown, the pastor, asked the congregation to subscribe the remainder of the $12,000 necessary to wipe off the mortgage debt.

Queen Street Methodist.

Rev. Lawrence H. Fisher, C.M.P., was heard with much acceptance in Queen Street Methodist church on Sunday. He gave five Gospel Expositions. In the morning he discoursed faith and in the evening his theme was the Virility of Christianity. He has a fine flow of language, a wealth of apt illustration and altogether charmed all who heard him. The music by the choir was very choice, with a good male quartette in the morning and Allan Hafner as soloist at night.

RINGWORM ON CHILD'S HEAD

Caused Great Distress and Spread to Neck and Ears—Cure Was Speedily Effected When Right Treatment Was Recommended.

Grand Bend, Ont., Dec. 3.—There is no disease of the skin more obstinate than ringworm, and the mother who writes this letter does so fully realizing what it will mean to other anxious mothers to know about Dr. Chase's Ointment.

This remarkable cure was brought about two years ago, and as there has been no return of the distressing disease there can be no doubt that the cure is permanent.

Mrs. D. Stebbins, Grand Bend, Ont., writes: "I am going to try to tell you of my experience with Dr. Chase's Ointment. My little girl had sores come out on her head which looked like ringworms. They were spreading fast and I tried home treatment but nothing helped her. I took her to the doctor, and he opened some of the sores, which were as big as the yoke of an egg. The salve he gave me to put on was very severe, and the poor child would cry for an hour or more after an application. For six weeks it continued to spread all over her head and came down to her neck and ears. She suffered terribly. At last some kind ladies told me about Dr. Chase's Ointment, so I got a box and from the first time I put it on she was relieved of pain, and the second time the swelling was all gone. Before we had finished the first box the sores were nearly all gone. I have told all the people around here about your Ointment, and I cannot praise it too much. It is now two years since my little girl was troubled in this way, and it never came back, so you can see she is completely cured. You are at liberty to use this statement for the benefit of others who may be suffering in a similar manner."

Joseph Brenner, J.P., endorses this statement as follows: "This is to certify that I am personally acquainted with Mrs. D. Stebbins of Grand Bend, Ont., and believe her statement with reference to Dr. Chase's Ointment to be true and correct."

AS PRESIDENT OF QUEEN'S ALMA MATER SOCIETY.

The Independents All Defeated—The University Trustees to Help the Athletic Committee Out of a Hole.

On Saturday afternoon the annual elections for positions on the executive of the Alma Mater Society were held at Queen's University. A stern election fight had waged all week between two bodies of students named the Coalitionists and the Independents. The former wished to have an executive by acclamation and composed of representatives of each faculty society, while the Independents believed that only through an election could the most efficient executive be found.

At the Alma Mater Society meeting in the evening the results from the various polling booths showed that not one Independent candidate had been successful. The newly elected executive is:

- Honorary president—Prof. M. B. Baker.
- President—J. M. Hazlett, B.A.
- 1st Vice-president—J. E. Hawley.
- 2nd Vice-president—D. L. McDonald.
- Secretary—Gordon Wrong.
- Assistant Secretary—Miss May Gemmill.
- Critic—C. R. F. McLennan.
- Treasurer—G. G. Vincent.
- Committee—K. H. Maitland R. W. Hamill, J. C. Reynolds, Miss Elizabeth MacCallum.
- Athletic Stiek—L. C. Purvis.

In presenting the report of the Athletic committee the secretary-treasurer, J. M. Hazlett brought the gratifying information that at last the Athletic committee was on a firm financial foundation. For some years past matters have been going from bad to worse owing to the fact that there was less interest in sport because of the war. The financial burden of the students was very heavy, and it was finally decided that some help should be sought from the University authorities.

On Thursday last a deputation waited on the finance and estates committee of the university, and an arrangement was effected whereby the university will pay over about $1,700 to wipe off debts, and in the future will pay for the services of the physical instructor and janitor and half the amount of the lighting and heat bills.

SOCKS WERE APPRECIATED.

Writer Praises the Work of the Red Cross and Y. M. C. A.

Mrs. James Campbell of Clarendon Station, has received a letter from David B. Watson, at No. 7 Canadian General Hospital, France, in which he states that he got a pair of socks Mrs. Campbell sent overseas and remarked that he would be very neglectful if, after all the comfort and ease the socks had given him, he did not write and acknowledge the receipt of them. He states that socks are very scarce in France.

The writer has been in France thirty-three months, and states that he has spent many a pleasant hour as a result of the efforts of the Red Cross Society and the Y. M. C. A.

"The Brat" at the Grand.

The United Producing Co. has a tenstrike in "The Brat," as played at the Grand Opera House on Saturday. The house was packed to capacity. Those who did not attend missed a play of merit as compared to the usual run. It contains three acts of cleverly written and acted scenes. Of course "The Brat" herself is the cause, but the unexpected developments on every side make her and the others in the play all that could be desired. The story is one which in a remote way reminds one of Pygmalion. The street urchin is picked up by a genius as a subject of study and inspiration. She is typical of her kind, and her way of taking to a new life is not overdrawn. "The Brat" is a dandy show.

Hang together or hang separately. Attend meeting to-night at Portsmouth. (See large advertisement.)

YOUR Friends in Flanders Must First be Served

THE millions of fighting men in Europe require most of the wool which ordinarily went into your clothes, and their garments are burned every few weeks for sanitary reasons. This has caused an alarming shortage of wool in the world. England has placed an embargo on all wool, besides buying millions of dollars worth from America. Australian wool is now almost impossible to get.

LOOK carefully to the fabric in your next suit or overcoat.
