

THE SOLDIERS FOR UNION

DECLARES MAJOR W. L. GRANT TO THE WHIG.

He Has Arrived in Time to Vote For Nickle—Canada Must Not be False to Her Dead.

Major W. L. Grant, who went overseas, with the 59th Battalion, arrived in Kingston on Monday afternoon, accompanied by Mrs. Grant, three children and nurse. Major Grant will leave shortly to take up his duties as principal of the Upper Canada College, at Toronto.

"I am both glad and sorry to be back," said Major W. L. Grant to the Whig. "Very sorry indeed not to be allowed to return to France. Colonel Dawson had asked for my services, and there is no commanding officer in France under whom all who knew him would more gladly serve. He is honored and respected as the best battalion commander in the whole Fourth Division, and I had hoped to be with him. But General Turner personally ordered me back, and there were nothing for it but to obey."

"But there is no good in crying over spilt milk, and I am indeed glad to be back in this splendid Canada of ours. And among my many reasons for this gladness one is that I arrive in time to vote for my old friend, Mr. Nickle," said Major Grant.

SAYS THE DRUG IS AN ETHER COMPOUND

Just a Few Drops Loosens Any Corn So It Lifts Out Without Pain.

You simply say to the drug store man, "Give me a quarter of an ounce of Freese's." This will cost very little but is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn from one's feet.

A few drops applied directly upon a tender, aching corn should relieve the soreness instantly, and soon the entire corn, root and all, can be lifted out with the fingers without pain. Don't let father die of infection or lockjaw from whitening at his corns, but cut this out and make him try it.

With some powdered delatone and water make enough paste to thickly cover the objectionable hairs, apply and after 2 or 3 minutes rub off, wash the skin, and it will be left soft, clear and hairless. This treatment will not mar the skin, but to avoid disappointment, be careful to get real delatone.

MAJOR W. L. GRANT.

These died that this earth might be fairer and sweeter and more tolerant; and were I in this election to try to vote in any other way than for Nickle I think that their blood would choke me as I marked the ballot. Canada must not be false to her dead; she must not be false to the cause for which they died."

"The Canadian troops in Great Britain and in France will in my opinion vote overwhelmingly in favor of the Unionist Government," he continued. "Take an example. There was no better Grit in Canada than Colonel 'Andy' Thompson, for many years M.P. for Haldimand. He is now the chief scrutineer in the British Isles for the Unionist Government. 'I was a personal friend of Sir Wilfrid Laurier,' he said to me. 'In Parliament and out of Parliament I fought for Laurier and Liberalism. But I have two boys in France lying seriously wounded in hospital, with gunshot wounds. I want to see their places filled.' That is the argument which is conclusive with thousands of life-long Liberals. They feel that Sir Wilfrid Laurier has given up to party what was meant for mankind and at this crisis they cannot follow even so honored a leader in so terrible a renunciation."

"That it is a Unionist Government makes all the difference. Before the splendid patience of Sir Robert Borden and the splendid patriotism of Liberals and Conservatives alike brought about this coalition, nothing was commoner than to hear a man say: 'I am an ex-Tory; the Conservative party has had my last vote.' The Coalition has changed all that. It has given us a government about which we can feel enthusiastic. 'Six months ago all of us in France or England who took an interest in these things felt that the future of Canada depended on the formation of a new party. This new party the Coalition has given us. We shall never go back to the old unreal war-cry. We now have a National Party, in which we can hope that the fair claims of capital, of labor and of government will be recognized."

"But the deepest feeling in our minds was not one of the good to be done after the war by any party, however splendid. There are no Liberals or Conservatives in the trenches. In this election the man who has served in France votes with the shut teeth of the man who has seen his dead. 'George Richardson, so strong, so swift, so tender of heart; Jack Mowat, whose last word was a refusal to go back, as he toiled forward desperately wounded; these and tens of thousands more call to us from beyond the hills of death."

"The canvassers did not forget the chief officers. They remembered them with gifts. R. Meek and Dr. Sands receiving easy chairs, Organizer G. R. Warburton a diamond pin, and Miss Minnie Ball, the secretary, a pearl pendant. It was a remarkable thing that the whole company seemed of the one mind that the Victory Loan must be handled by a Union Government and many were the heartfelt expressions that no one must falter for a moment in aiding the Canadian heroes at the front with reinforcements and equipment. George Smith, the chairman, was happy and funny and kept things moving with a will. At nine o'clock the dinner ended with the National Anthem."

FOURTEEN INCHES OF ICE Has Been Holding Up Navigation in Lachine Canal. Real winter has set in around the Lachine Canal. It was reported on Tuesday morning, that ice fourteen inches thick had formed on the canal; and that the vessels have had a difficult time making headway. The steamer Ontario arrived light, from Montreal; the tug Bronson arrived from Montreal, with three light barges and cleared light for the Cornwall canal; the tug Magnolia arrived from Montreal, with three light barges, and will likely clear for Toronto. The steamer Ionic passed up at 10.30 o'clock Monday night, on her way to Toronto. The steamer Jeska arrived at Crawford's wharf with coal from Fairhaven. The steamer Waffle arrived from Oswego with coal, which is being shipped out of the city by rail. Difficult to Get Electros. Manager Folger of the Public Utilities informs the Whig that he has experienced great difficulty in getting the proper electros for the street arc lamps. So many factories are now making munitions that there is a great scarcity of certain kinds of electros. He hopes to locate the kind shortly and then arc lamps that have been giving trouble will be repaired. Completed His Work. A. J. Murray has completed his duties as collector of gas, water and electric rates. City Auditor Muir is in charge of the collecting department until the new collector, D. L. Wilson assumes his duties. Hydro-Electric Power Test. A test of Hydro-Electric power was made on Sunday just outside the city. It is expected that next Sunday connection will be made with the sub-station on Queen street. Learning from the mistakes of others is the only comfortable way of acquiring a practical education.

Everybody Astonished at the Marvellous Results Obtained From Victory Loan Campaign—All Were for Union Government. The Victory Loan canvassers, executive committee and officers had a jolly wind-up to the campaign at the Frontenac Club on Monday night. It was a Dutch treat. After the dinner cigars were lit and an hour spent in speeches. Robert Meek gave the announcement of the results, Kingston's total being over $2,622,000 and Frontenac County $395,000. These figures created much enthusiasm, and it was added to when it was stated that there had been one subscriber for every five of Kingston population and within a fraction of $100 per capita. The company with one voice exclaimed: "Wonderful, marvellous, overwhelming." Gratitude was manifest in every heart. Then came a review of the campaign, jolly experiences, happy associations, geniality and warmth on behalf of the citizens; a knowledge and appreciation of the needs and claims of the loan; thankfulness that they had the money to offer for such a good cause. The canvassers all rejoiced that they had had a share in the raising of the loan; they enjoyed the work, and long years will not efface the pleasure of their association with the best organized campaign Kingston had ever seen. The executive committee and the officers all came in for high praise. Every chairman of a department had worked with a zeal that was worthy of the highest commendation. The publicity in advance of the canvass had been thorough and effective. Through the noisy time, the military parade and the distribution of literature everybody knew that Kingston was in for a big go. And it was. The canvassers did not forget the chief officers. They remembered them with gifts. R. Meek and Dr. Sands receiving easy chairs, Organizer G. R. Warburton a diamond pin, and Miss Minnie Ball, the secretary, a pearl pendant. Aldermen who opposed the erection of a large hotel on Murray tower felt will suffer, at the coming elections. TROUBLED WITH CONSTIPATION FROM 16 TO 20.

Constipation is one of the commonest ills of mankind, and one too often allowed to go unlooked after until some serious complication sets in. If the bowels are properly looked after there will be no constipation, jaundice, sick or bilious headaches, heartburn, coated tongue, sour stomach, floating specks before the eyes, etc. Milburn's Lax-Liver Pills will keep your bowels so regulated that in no time the constipation will disappear entirely. Miss Emma E. Melanson, Halifax, N.S., writes: "I am now 20 years of age, and since I was 16 I have been greatly troubled with constipation, so much so that at times I was in bed three or four days a month. I tried all the old-fashioned remedies, castor oil, cascara, etc. with only temporary relief until my sister-in-law gave me some of Milburn's Lax-Liver Pills. From the first they seemed beneficial and I gave them a fair trial. This was two years ago, and with an occasional dose I have kept entirely free from constipation for the period mentioned."

Milburn's Lax-Liver Pills are 25c a trial at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

KIDDIES CHRISTMAS TREE

THE WHIG IS RAISING A FUND FOR IT.

Contributions From the Citizens Asked—Help to Give the Soldiers' Children a Happy Christmas.

The Whig's Christmas Tree Fund for soldiers' kiddies is growing. The Christmas entertainment is an assured success. The ladies in charge have been informed that they can go ahead with their arrangements as the citizens will see that the sum of $1,000 is secured.

The announcement made on Saturday had a wonderful effect on the soldiers' kiddies of the city. Their daddies have been overseas, in some cases for three years. Some have never seen them, but only know that somewhere in France is their daddy. When they were informed that the Whig had taken up the matter of seeing that sufficient money would be raised to give them a Christmas Tree, there were broken words of thanks in many homes. Nothing has brought more pleasure into so many homes. The children have been wondering whether Santa Claus would come to them. Mother in many cases has been so busy with a thousand other things to worry her, that she could give no replies to their childish questions. Now they will have their Santa Claus and he will give every one of them a present that will represent the feelings of the citizens of Kingston to the children of the men who have done and are doing their "bit."

The Whig in this campaign is contributing space that at this season of the year is particularly valuable. The only thanks that we want is to hear the childish expressions of delight when the day comes on which they will go to the Armouries and receive their presents. It will be a glorious day for them and it will be a satisfactory day for us. To the ladies who have so spontaneously offered their services, that they will be the same. They will appreciate the feelings of the children. We ask that all citizens unite in bringing this blessing to some 1,500 kiddies whose fathers are over in France aiding in keeping the home fires burning for us. These men deserve to have their children taken care of on the brightest and biggest day of the year. It would be a disgrace if nothing was done and this Christmas Tree Fund gives the citizens the opportunity of helping.

Subscriptions should be made to the Whig and the money will then be turned over to the committee of ladies to buy the presents.

Col. Perreau has forwarded a cheque for $25 for the fund, a subscription collected from each gentleman cadet at the Royal Military College, with the hope that the Christmas event will bring happiness and joy to many of the children of Kingston soldiers overseas. The colonel also adds a personal donation on behalf of Mrs. Perreau and himself.

An Excellent Debate. A very interesting debate took place on Monday evening at the meeting of the Young People's Society of Cooke's church. There was a very large attendance. The title of the debate was: "Resolved, that war is contrary to the teaching of Christ." A Hood led the affirmative, supported by Miss K. Easson. Mr. Wallace and K. Kell supported the negative. The judges were Prof. John Waddell, R. J. Black and Mr. Kelly. They decided in favor of the affirmative. During the judging Miss Ross rendered a solo. An enjoyable evening closed with the National Anthem.
