THE CHRISTMAS TREE FUND

MORE SUBSCRIPTIONS ARE RECEIVED BY THE WHIG.

To Give the Kiddies of Soldiers Overseas a Happy Christmas—The People Are Invited to Subscribe.

"Please find enclosed a small cheque for the British Whig Christmas Tree Fund. Congratulations on such a delightful idea. Wishing them a very happy Christmas, very sincerely, Margaret Dover."

"On behalf of Mrs. Leslie and myself I have much pleasure in enclosing you my cheque for $5 as a contribution towards the Whig fund for Christmas presents to the soldiers' children. Yours truly, J. N. S. Leslie, Lieut.-Col."

Two of the letters received by the Whig on Thursday afternoon convey the sentiments which the Whig hopes are felt by every citizen towards the Christmas Tree Fund. We want everyone to realize what happiness will come to the kiddies of our brave men when they sacrifice a few dollars on their behalf. Their interests are our interests and on their behalf these columns are being used as an appeal for money.

This is one of the most deserving causes the Whig has ever appealed for, and if the conditions were realized there would be a better response.

MASS MEETING IN CITY HALL

the need of a Union Government. If victory was to be won, Canada must do her duty. "We must forget the little things," he added, "and take steps to give the boys at the front reinforcements."

The issue before us in this election is that of reinforcements, and I have no doubt as to what this riding will do. The people of this riding are people who want to see peace come with victory, but I want to impress upon you that elections are sometimes lost because those who want a candidate to win, are so sanguine they do not exert themselves as they should."

"I am not asking you to vote for me as W. F. Nickle, but as a standard bearer of Union Government. I am not asking you to vote for W. F. Nickle, once a Conservative. I am asking you to vote for me as a Unionist." (Cheers.)

Continuing, Mr. Nickle stated that there were some who, no doubt, would say that as he once stood for the Conservative party he could not "change his spots" and that if elected he would still be a Conservative.

"It was for this reason that I withdrew from the field in the first place," added Mr. Nickle, "and stated that I would get behind any man who would support this Union Government. But since some men trying to undermine the new Government, and when I received a petition signed by fifteen hundred people, asking me to stand as the Union candidate, I stated that the time had arrived when I should live up to the doctrine I had preached."

Accepts Responsibility.
"I felt that I must accept the responsibility the people were willing to confer on me. And it is for that reason, and that reason alone, that I am before you. I realize that Canada must still make greater efforts. I do not belong to those who say that Canada has done enough."

Mr. Nickle declared that the name of Canada was linked with all that was glorious, and that if the men were not given reinforcements it would mean that the word "glorious" as applied to Canada would be replaced by that of "cowardice." He believed in the enforcement of the Military Service Act.

Union Government was essential to the cause, and Mr. Nickle said that if elected he would go to Ottawa and support the Union Government to the end, and until such time as peace came with victory.

KINGSTON DRAFTS SAFE.

Sergt. Fred Pense Sent a Telegram on Thursday Evening.

Mrs. J. P. Pense, Princess street, received a telegram on Thursday night from her son, Sergt. F. B. Pense, at Halifax, stating that he and the members of the draft which left Kingston recently were safe. He also told of the safety of Rev. Mr. and Mrs. McKinnon, the latter formerly Miss Eileen Wright of Kingston.

Howard Ryan, the first Kingstonian to enlist in the Canadian army, and who went to the Niobe at Halifax is still with his mother on Pine street anxiously waiting for word, as the Navy Yards are in the zone which was destroyed. It is possible that this cruiser was saved, but no word has yet been obtained. Ryan is now chief blacksmith and has a wife residing on Creighton street in Halifax.

Naval College Safe.

Prof. John Macnaughton of Montreal, formerly of Queen's University, in an address, termed as "cockroaches" all persons everywhere in England and Ireland (there are none in Scotland) as well as in Canada, whose moral status is such that in this hour of life and death, they refuse to serve their country.

David T. Will Says:

"The red blood of personality is in the winter overcoats and ulsters designed by the Semi-ready tailors. They have that magic, indefinable something which makes them different. A Canada ulster is as warm as a conch coat, and more healthy to wear."
