The Theatres

At The Grand.
Patrons of the Grand were well pleased with the delightful programme of pictures and vaudeville offered at this popular playhouse last evening. The feature attraction was the beautiful five-reel Metro Wonderplay of New York and the Thousand Islands. "Miss Robinson Crusoe," starring bewitching Emmy Wehlen. This picture was taken on the Famous Bold estate and its surroundings in the heart of the Thousand Islands, and abounds in many beautiful and familiar scenes. Miss Wehlen as the kidnapped young lady has never been seen to better advantage. The rest of the bill is as varied as it is excellent and includes an O. Henry story, "The Cop and the Anthem," Helen Gibson in "The College Boy's Special" and Pathe News. Miss Phyllis Devlin sang several popular selections in a very pleasing manner. This bill will be repeated for the last time tonight.

At the Strand.
"Two Little Lumps," the first Wm. Fox film starring Jane and Katherine Lee will be shown at the Strand the first three days of next week. This picture shows the five and seven-year-old Baby Grands at their best. They have been seen by motion picture followers many times in photoplays in which others have been starred, but here they blossom out as full-fledged stars themselves. They are the same delightful youngsters as of old and in this new picture their film friends will have many a laugh. Comedy and topical reels will also be shown.

At Griffin's.
Judging by the frequent bursts of applause and hearty laughter echoed simultaneously by the audience at Griffin's last evening the second great triumph of that imitable favorite, Douglas Fairbanks, is without a doubt his best achievement. "Wild and Woolly" is the name of this new picture, which is a western comedy, bubbling over with hearty laughs, punctuated by typical Fairbanks thrills. Our other good feature, "A Sleeping Memory," with the world-renowned emotional actress, Emily Stevens, was also extremely popular with the audience, and is without a doubt one of the most charming of photoplays. To round out an exceptional programme there is the second episode of the great serial, "The Fatal Ring," in which talented Pearl White does some remarkably fine acting. This bill will be repeated tonight for the last time.

The Gray Ghost.
With the four brilliant stars, Priscilla Dean, Eddie Polo, Emory Johnson, Harry Carter, another chapter of "The Gray Ghost" entitled "Shadows," will be presented at the King Edward Monday and Tuesday. Splendid programme for to-night. Usual admission.

Ring up 645 for all kinds unfermented wines.

Military News

As many conscripts as the district headquarters can handle will be summoned for January 3rd, and the balance day by day in such numbers as convenience may dictate. The number thus called up will be considerably in excess of fifteen thousand.

Still another opening has been made for class one men who come under the draft to find a place in the ranks other than the infantry, provided they take the proper recruiting steps within a few days. This is due to a new recruiting campaign on the part of "C" Battery, Royal Canadian Horse Artillery, which has sent Bombardier R. Y. McCarter to Toronto to take fifty select men from that district. According to arrangements made with headquarters, any man physically fit for the artillery, regardless of the class he comes under, may join this organization. This opportunity of avoiding the infantry will be short. With the exception of the present call for "B" Battery, it is expected that what few artillerymen are required in the future will be selected from the draftees.

Mayor Hughes welcomed eighty-nine returned soldiers who arrived here at 8 a.m. Saturday. Sergt. Harrison and Pte. King, of this city, were among the number.

Lieut. W. Bailey, formerly with the central registry at the armouries, was expected to arrive in the city at noon on Saturday from Toronto, having returned from overseas via New York.

Lieut.-Col. R. J. Gardiner, A.D.M.S., returned on Friday from Ottawa.

Capt. H. E. Hodge has been transferred from the 2nd Battalion to the C.E.F. reserve of officers.
