LABATT IS MAKING A SPECIAL

Ale and Porter

FOR FAMILY USE

Made from Malt and Hops, exactly like the Old Reliable Ale & Porter, only lower percentage of spirit. It is absolutely pure and superior to anything made in that line in Ontario, many prefer it to the old brands for summer and social drinking.

Lennox and Addington

BATH.
Dec. 20.—Lance-Corporal Allan Hawley, of the 5th C. M. R., returned home a few days ago, after being overseas nearly two years. He was given a hearty welcome by the villagers on his arrival here. The village gave a majority of twenty-seven votes to the Unionist candidate, W. J. Paul. In connection with the bazaar given by the ladies of the Methodist Church last week the debate had to be postponed owing to the bad roads. Miss Ella Sheppard, of Welland, is home for the Christmas holidays.

ODESSA.
Dec. 20.—Fred, Sproule, Toronto, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Sproule, Mrs. Wigan Jenkins, Nanapanie is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Watts. W. T. Hodge, Trenton, has been spending the past week with his family. Charles Babcock, Wilton, has moved in the stone terrace on Main street.

News From Stella.
Stella, Dec. 17.—The ice bridge has once more formed across the bay, but up to date there has been no crossing on it. The island has certainly received its share of snow in the past week. Owing to the stormy, cold weather, the mail carrier, W. J. Beaubien, missed several trips in the past week. It was also very hard for the carriers to make their rounds. The steamer Wolfe Islander was expected to make a trip to the city from here on Tuesday of last week, but the arrangement had to be cancelled.

A union concert was held in Victoria Hall on Friday evening last by the teachers and scholars of S.S. No. 1 and No. 3. It was quite well attended. Rev. and Mrs. J. C. Dixon have returned home from Montreal, where Mr. Dixon has been undergoing treatment for some time past. The many friends here of Miss M. Talk are pleased to hear that she has been able to leave the General Hospital, where she had been undergoing treatment for the past few weeks. W. H. Preston, tax collector, has been making his rounds. S. McDonald has returned home from sailing on the upper lakes.
