

Production

Increased effort and efficiency in labor, more economy and less waste in living, building up capital by hard work and greater savings, will enrich you and your country. The men and women at home must produce more to cover war's waste.

It is easier to make money than to save it. A Savings Account at the Bank of Toronto will help you save what your increased effort provides.

ASSETS: $75,000,000

Easy & Practical Home Dress Making Lessons

Prepared Specially for This Newspaper By Pictorial Review

Taupe Cashmere for This Charming Frock. perforations and 2 inches above. Face collar and sew to neck edge of outer waist. Or, if the draped collar is used, adjust to neck edge of back and along small "o" perforations in outer front matching single large "O" perforations in collar and in front.

Arrange outer waist on underbody with center-front, center-backs, under-arm seams and armhole edges even; stitch lower edges together. To make the sleeve, form a plait, creasing on slot perforations, lap folded edge to small "o" perforations and stitch to position, leaving free below single large "O" perforation. Finish for closing. Close seam of sleeve as notched. Sew sleeve in armhole as notched.

Next, take the skirt and join gores as notched, leaving left side seam free above lower large "O" perforation in front gore and finish edges for closing. Adjust skirt to position attaching upper edge, over upper row of gathers in waist, center-fronts and center-backs even; bring small "o" perforation at upper edge of back gore to under-arm seam; leave skirt free from center-front to left side seam and finish for closing. Then slash the tunic to the left of center-front along double small "o" perforations and finish for closing. Form plaits creasing on lines of slot perforations, bring folded edges to corresponding small "o" perforations (simulating box-plait) and press plaits. Adjust tunic to position on skirt.

To make the girdle, plait at back edge bringing slot perforations to corresponding small "o" perforations and tack. Sew straps to front edge with upper edge of upper strap at upper edge of girdle, and lower edge of lower strap at small "o" perforation in girdle. Sew tab to upper edge of girdle, with center-backs and notches even, easing in any fulness. Arrange around the waist and tack.
