Public Library Bulletin

List of Juvenile Books for January.

1918 — Juvenile Cards 25 Cents.

Talford's Last Term H. Avery.

Isn Hardy, Naval Cadet—E. H. Curry.

Polly and the Princess—E. C. Dowd.

To Win or To. Die — G. M. Fenn.

Michael Brother of Jerry — Jack London. Opal Hunters - R. M. McDonald. Gilbert the Outlaw - D. H. Parry. The Newcomers — E. W. Peattle.

Ord Without Ambition—I. S. Robson.

Lass of Richmond Hill — A. H. Sea-

When Beatty Kept the Sea-F. H. Shaw. With Jellicoe in North Sea-F. H. Shaw. The Blue Bonnet Series—C. E. Jacobs.

Heart of Gold—K. Tynan.

Oscar Danby, V.G. — R. Walker.

Secret Bastlenlane — P. F. Westerman.

How We Bastled Die Common Versichen How We Baffled the Germans-E. Wood Trapped in Triped - T. Bevan. Boys' Book of Mounted Police - I. Care of the Body-R. S. Woodworth.

without pain. It is a sticky sub- ple. stance which dries when applied and never inflames or even irritates the

This discovery will prevent thou- The song of life would lose its mirth, thing out of the ordinary rut in the It is a quick, lively story, and so ed" this year. sands of deaths annually from lock- Were there no children to begin it, jaw and infection heretofore resulting from the suicidal habit of cut- No little forms, like buds to grow,

Wash Away

D.D.D. the liquid wash, has be- Unfeeling nature more inhuman, come a household word. It has prov- And man to stoic coldness turn, ed itself a remarkable remedy. If And woman would be less than wo including ulcers, pimples, scales erust or eczema in any form, this remedy will not disappoint you. It has stood the test and today is the master preparation for all skin diseases. Try D.D.D. We guarantee it. Mahood's Drug Store, Kingston.

CHOCOLATTA "The Ready-to-use Chocolate" Contains the Chocolate, Milk and Prepared Instantly by Adding Boiling Water Only. No Cooking or Milk Required.

Mental and Brain Worry, Despon Loss of Energy, Palpitation of the Failing Memory. Price & per box, sir One will please, six vill care. Sold by a s or mailed in plair pkg. on 1 ceipt d less pamphlet me iled free. THE WORT INTERNATIONAL CO., TORON Q. 1887 (Forest Messes)

LOCAL BRANCH TIME TABLE

IN EFFECT JAN. 6TH, 1918.

Trains will leave and arrive at Oit; pot, Post of Johnson Street.

Lve. City Arr. City 1,40 a.m. 2.17 a.m eas . . . 2.58 a.m. 8.35 a.m ther information, apply to, J. P. ey, Agent. Agency for all ocean mahip lines. Open day and night

Passenger Service Halifax and Bristol

Agents, 50 King St. East, Toronto, Ont.

Save Your Coa

James Soward's Coal Co. Phone 155.

Books And Their Authors

THE SAND MAN.

cat Stories, by Harry W. Frees, subsequent career. 277 Pages. Price, $1.50 each.

ou apply just a few drops on the ceeding generation. Some of them ure of success, monder, aching corn and instantly are real gems, of benefit to adults orn is so shriveled that it lifts out little poem, entitled "The Little Peo-

> "A dreary place would be this earth, Were there no little people in it;

And make the admiring heart sur-No little hands, on breast or brow, To keep the thrilling love-cords ten-

Life's song indeed, would lose its American, who seems to be a relifacts relating to that country. She Were there no babies to begin it; A doleful place this world would be, Were there no little people in it.

if delightful Sandman tales. They crime was revenge, and is told the will be eagerly devoured by all youth-ful readers, and even parents will The six-year-old daughter of this lead in the praying members. The number of

OUR' GOVERNMENT; A FOR CANADIANS.

By Mabel McLuhan Stevenson. 178 found and murdered him. The en-Pages. Price, 60c. George I. Mewhich holds sway in Canada. For tem of Government will be a god- hidden from the public mind. In mortals, has his faults. Faithful unsend. Beginning with the smallest strong, unrelenting language, Beg- to death, and cheerful under all conand tells just how they are elected. hides nothing, but tells of this dia-There is a large section of the book bolical traffic in all its hideousness, devoted to the educational system of and with all its sensationalism. The Canada, also to the laws which ad- purpose of the book is to be admired. just the customs tariffs, and the var- The author has seen the sore spot, kind to be published in a cheap and paganda which aims at the exter- he was too engressed in money-mak- ed to machine gun corps, and genhandy form, gives a tremendous mination of the nefarious business of ing, or too fond of pleasure, and amount of information in a small white slavery. It is written in Beg- would never make a soldier, but he space. Its eighteen chapters are full bie's usual vigorous style, with the comes in answer to a call which bids service was conducted in Waterof things which every Canadian proper emphasis in the right places, him rise superior to danger, suffering and with no apology for this daring tary facts of our system of self-government in such a way that people Local 9.45 a.m. 10.17 a.m who have never before given any Mail . . . 3.00 p.m. 3.40 p.m thought to the duties of citizenship, 2.12 p.m thought to the duties of citizenship, By Alice Hegan Rice. 413 Pages. will be interested and spurred on to

In addition there is a chapter which gives the rules of procedure for the formation of clubs and societies, and for the conduct of public meetings. This supplies a want that has long been felt. The book is one any aspirants to public office, for provides valuable information on phases of Canadian government.

MIDSTREAM.

by Will Levington Comfort.

Publishers. oack over the years of his life and analyses them .. To some it comes early and to others it comes late. It wealthy factory owner, has his innthe age of thirty five, when he had marries a girl who had appealed to you and help you on your return. Apply to Local Agents or The just achieved success as a novelist, him for assistance. This is a hard Reford Co., Limited. General and he tells the result of his retros-Midway through the alloted span of forget. But forgetting is not easy, years he looks back and picks out the and when Dan comes into her life things which have helped or hind- again four years later, she goes to ered him and gives them to his read- him and finds refuge in the strong

ers. First of all, it is the story of his arms of her lover. life, from earliest boyhood down to This is a beautiful tale of how his thirty-fifth year. It is a most hearts of gold are often found beeventful story, in which war finds a neath the roughest and poorest of he has no duplicate. The developprominent place, in which the writer clothes. In it the reader meets some ment of his particular effectives teils of the influences of women up- odd and humble characters, and on the constructive side, is the one Senate by a vote of 30 to 8. on als life, and in which hard work is learns of the great spirit of com- important thing for him to begin. A Plans have been made to reduce the central theme. He omits nothing radeship which permestes the slums. | man is at his best when he is at his the annual coal consum

| success. He sets his scenes in many brave-hearted, and vivacious Nance ties of the religionist who inflicts climes; in Michigan, Atlanta, Manati as her life story is unfolded, and all tortures upon his body to conquer it, His Songs and Rhymes. By Jenny the Phillippines, Japan and Man-hearts will warm to Dan Lewis, the and the terrors of concentration upon Wallis. 246 Pages. His Kitty- churia, and shows how his experi- slum boy, who made good and provences in these places influenced his ed himself to be a true man.

But it is something more than a The Page Co., Boston, Publishers. mere biography, something bigger These long winter evenings find than a romance. It is a careful and By Julie M. Lippman, 227 Pages. the children climbing upon mother's critical analysis of the forces of good ANXIOUS TO TRY IT fee of rhymes before bedtime. It is a upon a man's life and work, severe tax upon the ingenuity of closing chapter, entitled "The World many parents, to provide these night life and His Mother," is a deep tion, full of absurdity and ridiculous-mysteries, "The Mannequin," will or father's knee clamouring for stor- and evil, and the influences they have

MILLSTONE.

way of fiction from the pen of Har- requires no concentration of mind old Begbie, and in "Millstone" he for its perusal. has written a book that verges upon the sensational. It is a most striking denunciation of the white slave traffic amongst children, and seems to have been written for the purpose of exposing and trying to abolish the horrors of that inhuman The sterner souls would grow more trade. The chief character in the story is a young English engineer. who is working near a small seaside his deeds, and was seeking forgive- title of "Home University Library." that child tracked him until she gineer learns of these things for the Leod, Limited, Toronto, Publisher. first time with horror and repug- By A.M.I. nance, which is increased when he

CALVARY ALLEY. -

Price, $1.35. William Briggs, Toronto, publisher.

and this story by Alice Hegan Rice is try. woven around this dingy back street and its inhabitants. First is introduced Nance Molloy, a barefooted ttle girl, who, with two boys, Dan Lewis and Mac Clarke, fall into the Pages. S. B. Gundy, Toronto, school Nance faces the world, but battle. tracted by the glamour of the stage, "Canucks" the "Cornstalks" but on her second night she finds out what that life is, and leaves it. An escapade at a ball with Mac Clarke leads to a break with Lowis. For a time Mac, the son of a ings with Nance, while Dan Lewis blow to Nance, who has always lovection in this most unusual auto- ed Dan, but she is persuaded to train graphy, entitled "Midstream." as a nurse and in her work tries to

THE MANNEQUIN Price $1.30. Duffield and Co'y,

That Dries up Compound so there comes to their aid the Sand- which sets the reader thinking hard provide much recreation and amuseman series of stories, songs and rhy- The story is a well written, weil- ment. It is the story of how a mes, which are just of the kind that thought-out narrative. Comfort tells wealthy American girl is mistaken lector calls these days for what you Good news spreads rapidly and druggists here are kept busy dispension of a Cincinnati man, which is said to loosen any corn so it lifts out the children want. The Sandman's "Songs and Rhyinclude all the old favorites of childhood, fo which have been added a number of new and pleasing jinwealthy American girl is mistaken lector calls these days for what you for a mannequin and is carried off owe. It's nice just now to think of the good old summer time.

Wealthy American girl is mistaken lector calls these days for what you do not not a strain to act as lady's companion to a cranky New York Society leader. The action takes place on a pleasure wealthy American girl is mistaken lector calls these days for what you for a mannequin and is carried off to act as lady's companion to a cranky New York Society leader. The action takes place on a pleasure wealthy American girl is mistaken lector calls these days for what you do not not a companion to a cranky New York Society leader. The action takes place on a pleasure wealthy and weaknesses, which confronted him through life, and shows how he finally came out on top. He dooks at him self with the eyes of a stern wash. gles. They are just the sort of thing critic, and ruthlessly and fearlessly yacht where errors come thick and fort to get cheap fish for the people? A quarter of an ounce costs very that mother must always have ready little at any pharmacy, but is said for the children when bedtime comes is a big story, written by a big enacted. The heroine's father nabe sufficient to rid one's feet of that are handed down to each sucyacht. Of course there is an exhil- king all right. The enemy from irating love story written into the without cannot prevail against him book, which makes it quite enjoyable. But on the whole it is too ab-By Harold Begbie. 313 Pages. Mc- surd and farcial to be a great suc- gave each scholar a pound of candy Clelland, Goodchild & Stewart, cess. Its main attraction lies in the at a recent entertainment will. no

To have a full understanding of town and to the hotel where he Serbia. Miss Waring's book gives boards there comes an evil-looking a very clear and concise statement of reached. gious fanatic. Soon after, the Am- gives her readers a very vivid picerican is murdered by a strange wo- ture of the tyranny and oppression to but some people are cruel enough to The "Kittycat Stories" is a series ter he learns that the motive of the out feeling a great wave of sympathy

(In Admiration)

It is astonishing to find how many learns how the girl he loves just es- age with which to conjure, and one Canadians there are who know noth- caped from the clutches of a gang of which brings before our imagination The story is one which exposes led. At his best! Yes, and at less all such, this little book on our sys- many evils which are far too often than his best, for he, like all other To the Memory of the Late governing body, the municipality, it bie lays open the sore that is eating ditions, he is often the inspiration of lands, gives a long account of the his officers, and his good humor at funeral of the late M. V. FitzGerald.

He leaves it for what? To undergo dist of names covers a column. árdous, monotonous training, to en- Deceased was second son of the dure all the discomforts of camp and late Canon Fitzgerald. An older Calvary Alley is a typical alley in trench existence and perhaps at the brother was agent of National Bank

But that is not the side of Tommy upon which we should fix our gaze. "Tommy" leaves his home and all that it means to fight for things that The Only Medicine hands of the law for taking part in are not material. He leaves it to fola stirring fight between two rival low a vision; a vision of his country gangs of children. Then follows the glorious, standing for right, the story of Nan's life, with which the abode of men who are strong enough lives of these two lads are closely to fight for a great idea , who need 314 Connected. After a spell in a girls' no knotted lash to drive them into finds it hard and unkind. She is at- "Tommy" (and that includes the Springboks") your country never forget you and yours. ave come forward to do your bit, and hare to support you and to gre

Fill your glasses. "Here's to 'Tommy' the very best."

Work and Religion Are One. The value of each man is that States. and he is relentless in his self-conThe telling of it adds greatly to its demnation. He tells how he almost enjoyment, and the book should conbreathes at all. Of course, the lower
The Toronto City Abattoir will be drank himself to death, of his time to be in great demand. No the evolution of a man, the harder it used by the Government for its supawakening, and of his subsequent one can fail to be, touched by the is to find a task for him to distin-ply of fish.

The Father of us all answers when tions rain down, according to our receptivity. 'All our struggle and trainmust master the body first; then the brain-after that, we receive. Thus you see how work and religion are one; how all our years of training, in the thrall of perfecting our task, is but a mastering of body and brain; his brain to keep it silent, in order to hear his soul's voice.

-Will L. Comfort In "Midstream."

The Man on Watch

Get-in the ice supply quick for winter may be short.

lightnes of its texture, which makes doubt, have to buy a new roll book, The public usually expect some- it an ideal companion for idle hours. for the old one will surely be "bust-> whiskey is adulterated. A few days ago a visitor came here from the east with a bottle of bonnie Scotch, By L. F. Baring, 256 Pages. Wil- and when he reached his quarters liams and Morgate, London, Pub- the bottle had burst, through freez-

Talking about the reading of serthe causes and events leading up to mons, the choir girls have the adtion of crime or evil. But to the the unfortunate little kingdom of left after every lap, and giving a sigh of relief when the last page is man, and the young Englishman is which Serbia has for centuries been say that there is a lack of culture brought into touch with the murder- subjected, first by Turkey, and later here. These critics, the Lampman ess and her husband. From the lat- by Austria. No one can read it with- finds, are very narrow themselves.

find in them much that is beautiful couple had been kidnapped a num- fer state' of the Balkans, but who churchmen who can get up in a and instructive. These Sandman ber of years previously, and was not finally gained independence and were meeting and offer prayer is certainstories are a great and helpful train- found for two years, when the par- working out their own destiny when ly few and far between in these ing to children in the things which go ents found her in a dying condition Austria let slip the dogs of war in days. The old-timers were the lads to form high character and healthy in a hospital for contagious dis- July, 1914. The little volume is a however. The Lampinan remembers eases. The man responsible for her most interesting and instructive one, Kingston many years ago praying condition was this evil-looking Am- and is one of a series of books on the for fifteen minutes at a midweek prayer meeting, and after ten minutes of supplication he suddenly stopped, spat in the aisle in order to refresh himself, and then continued his petition, but he was somewhat fatigued at the finish.

-THE TOWN WATCHMAN.

WATERFORD PAYS HONOR

all times sheds a glamour over the manager of the Bank of Ireland in when you can got ABSOLUTELY FREE, this magnificent outfit complete, consisting of a pair of that city. The paper speaks in the "Tommy"-it calls to our minds kindest manner of the respect and the khaki-clad legions of Greater esteem in which the deceased was Britain coming forth to do their bit held. All the banks and large stores; ed with leather, or a pair of strong heavy hockey boots fous kinds of taxation by which the has seen the need of a great cleans- for their country. He comes from all were closed as the cortege passed by. ing, and has launched this work up- stations in life and from every cor- His two sons, Captain Gerald V. Fitz-This little book, the first of its on the world as part of a great pro- ner of our vast Empire. People said Gerald (Leinster Regiment), attachtleman Cadet Maurice H. FitsGerald and death, for his country and every- ed had been church warden, by the thing he holds good and true. Very Dean of Waterford assisted by Revs. often he lays aside a position in civil Bedeil Stanford and W. E. Kenny. life which promises him prosperity All classes and creeds were repreand all that the heart could wish. Sented. The Waterford Standard's > a slum district of a Kentucky town, end to give up his life for his coun- and died some years ago. The deceased was fifty-three years of age. Canon W. F. FitzGerald, Kingston,

The Baby Needs

Baby's Own Tablets is the only edicine a mother needs for her litle ones. They are a gentle but thorough laxative which instantly relieve all stomach and bowel disorders thus banishing all the minor ills f little ones. Concerning them Mrs. Jos. Levesque, St. Simon, Que., says: -"Baby's Own Tablets are a marvelous medicine for tittle ones. They o endure whatever your lot may never fail to cure stomach and howel troubles and neither my sister-in-law or myself would use any other medicine for our little ones." The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brock-

> Sir Thomas White has arranged to assist the Provincial Governments in their financing this year. He has arranged to assist in meeting the bligations maturing in the United

The national prohibition amend-

Balance of Fit Reform

This Week Only

Not Many Left. Inspection Invited.

Tailors. Princess and Bagot Streets.

A WONDERFUL REMEDY

Orange Lity is daily relieving the ost obstimate cases of Female Dis-

this great world war, it is essential vantage of the congregation in sectown, far removed from any suggest to know something of the history of ing how much of the manuscript is speaking of the benefits and cures it is performing, and so sure am I that it was

ASK YOUR GROCER FOR

Charm Tea

IN PACKAGES.

Black, Green and Mixed. Packed in Kingston, by GEO. ROBERTSON & SON, Limited.

WRITE TO-DAY-before you forget, and we will

Midrom: RECAL MANUFACTURING CO.

friends at only 10 cents a bottle. Six diffe White Rose, Arcadian Violet, Lilac, Carna trope, etc.; no frouble at all to sell; every two or three bottles. You will sell them all Beautiful Bust and Shoulders are possible if you will wear a scientifically constructed Bien Jolie Brassiere. The dragging weight of an unconfined bust so stretches the graceful line to the entire upper body.

supporting muscles that the contour of the figure is spoiled. BENJOLIE put the hust back where it belongs, prevent the full bust from having the appearance of flabbiness, eliminate the danger of dragging muscles and confine the first of the entire upper body. They are the daintiest and most segriceable garments imaginable—come in all materials and styles; Cross Back, Hook-Front, Surplice, Bandeau, etc. Boned with "Waloks," the rustless boning permitting washing without remova-

A Piano of Merit &

This beautiful William Muster Touch player to very different from the dian made 08 years ego, but the quality of the Williams product - the durability that has proven stacif by a 48 years' to the efforts of Coned brains and expect work nodels at our showroom We will arrange terms to suit your pocketbook.

J.M. Greene Music Co., Cor. Syderham & Princess Str., Kingston

r aptry little aw it eanse ts you your amaits lected at will a few

unter

you

hair--but er the r, soft get a ferine