MAPLE ISLAND MYSTERY

THE MURDER OF JOHN A. PAYNE IS RECALLED.

He Was Known to Have Been One of the Ringleaders in the Plot to Assassinate President Lincoln. D. R. Hardy, of Watertown, N.Y., writes as follows to the Watertown Times regarding the mystery of Maple Island.

I read, with much interest, an article in a recent issue of your paper, copied from On The St. Lawrence, which brought to light a real estate transaction, which did, and also did not, take place in the vicinity of Fisher's Landing, which illustrated the whimsical nature of E. N. Robinson, at one time owner of Occident Island, opposite Thousand Island Park.

"He neither gave his name or residence and in a few days ceased his intention of erecting a cabin on Maple Island the better to enjoy his favorite pastime of fishing.

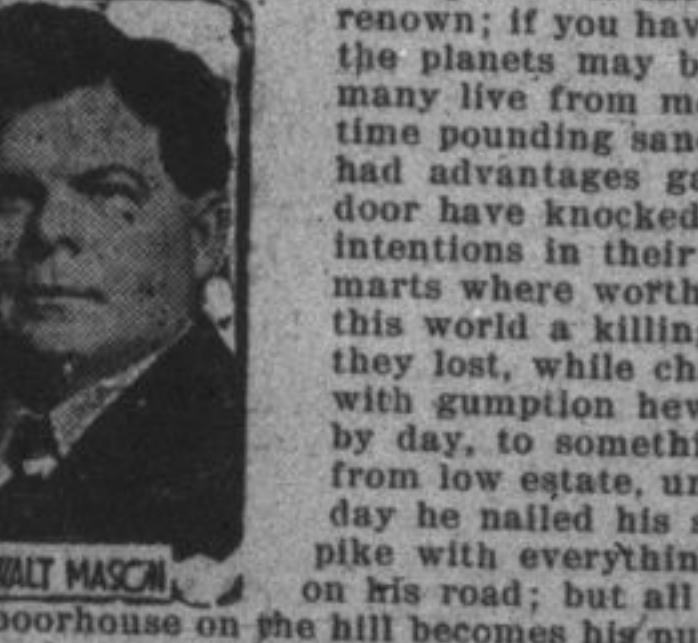

"But an event took place, which arrested the attention and aroused the sympathy of the people. One night in early September the attention of the people in the neighborhood was called to a fire on Maple Island and the remark was made by some that perhaps The Hermit (as he was called) was away and that his cabin had caught fire and burned in his absence.
