The Theatres

At the Grand.
"A Man's Man," in which J. Warren Kerrigan makes his initial appearance as an independent star, under the auspices of the new Paralta Plays, will be the featured attraction at the Grand to-night, and again Friday and Saturday, matinee and night. The scenes are staged in the romantic atmosphere of Central America. What is perhaps the most powerful and thrilling love story ever unfolded on stage or screen is ingeniously threaded in and out of the spectacular features of this tremendous photo-drama. No Central American romance would be complete without a revolution. In "A Man's Man" more than 5,000 troops were used in enacting the scenes depicting this feature. One of the uproarious two-reel Lonesome Luke comedies, "Love, Laughs and Pathos," depicts his adventure as a barber, while the latest Pathe News and an interesting scenic will also be shown. The programme will be concluded by an excellent vaudeville act.

The Story of "Maggie."
The story of "Maggie," a new comedy by Edward Peple, in which Phyllis Neilson-Terry will appear at the Grand Opera House next Monday and Tuesday, February 11th and 12th, deals with the adventures of a young Irish girl whose lot has been cast among that great mass of people in New York, which is only a little removed from actual poverty. Into this young woman's life comes a stranger with whom she changes her position from among the sordid surroundings of her work and little pleasure to those of luxury, that she previously had only known through books. The manner in which she conducts herself and the impression she makes upon those with whom she comes into contact in her sphere provides some original situations replete with wholesome comedy, and not without a touch of real heart interest. The piece has been staged by George C. Taylor, which is an assurance that the production will be all that can be desired.

At the Strand.
A double feature bill of exceptional merit will hold the boards at the Strand for the last three days of this week. Harold Lockwood will be seen in his latest Metro wonderplay "The Square Deceiver," a comedy drama of youth and love, being a photoplay version of the novel "Love Me For Myself Alone" which appeared in Smith's Magazine. The world famed Mary Garden will also make her motion picture debut with "Hails," a Goldwyn picture made from the celebrated novel by Anatole France. "Hails" was also her first prima donna role in America in the operatic stage. In conjunction with this double feature bill comedy reels will also be shown.

At Griffin's.
All who have seen Marguerite Clark in her two previous successes, "Bab's Diary" and "Bab's Burglar," will welcome her appearance at Griffin's to-day, Friday and Saturday in the last of the famous sub-life stories, "Bab's Matinee Idol." If you have missed the two aforementioned successes you have surely missed a treat, but you can make up for it by seeing the last. This is the last chance to see Miss Clark as the irrepressible "Bab" "Bab's Matinee Idol" is a whimsically funny story of a boarding school girl's first "affaire de coeur," as Bab grandiloquently calls it herself, and will appeal to girls of all ages who will recognize themselves in Miss Clark's winsome screen portrayal of "Bab." As the stage struck girl Marguerite is her best and most adorable self.

CONCERT AT CATARAQUI.

The Naval Quartette Made Quite a Hit.
A very well attended and successful concert was given on Wednesday evening at Catarauqui by the choir of St. Paul's church, assisted by the "Maestro" concert party and local talent. Dr. J. W. Edwards, M.P., gave an address, and especially mentioned the entertaining ability of Miss Smith, the soprano-voiced daughter of Rev. Mr. Smith, and the "Naval Quartette," which is composed of Messrs. Harte, Shaw, Mayer and Hill. The opening chorus was given by Christ church choir and the closing number by St. Paul's choir. During the evening vocal numbers were given by Mrs. McConnell, Misses Strang, Saunders, Sutherland, Smith and Messrs. Harte, Hill, Platt, Bunt, Shaw, Mayer, Grant, Spence and Rev. Mr. Smith. It proved a delightful programme.

Roosevelt Endorses Osteopathy
New York, Dec. 12.—(My Dear Dr. Green): I wish the American Osteopathic Association all success in its effort to secure for osteopathic physicians the right to serve their country in the army and navy. I am sorry that licensed osteopathic physicians who have passed the Medical Examining Board examinations for commissions on the Medical Corps and have been recommended by the Examining Board for such commissions have not received them. I am glad that the American Osteopathic Association is patriotically endeavoring without cost to the men to give them osteopathic care in the camps and cantonments. I earnestly hope that Congress will pass legislation enabling Osteopathic physicians to serve their country in the capacity for which they are best fitted.

I write on this subject with knowledge. Two of the members of my family have been treated with great profit to themselves for years by Osteopathic physicians. One of these is now with our army in France. It would be to his great advantage if he could have occasional osteopathic treatments, and I am genuinely concerned that he is unable to get them. To give Osteopathic physicians the chance to serve the army in the country as you desire would be a very real benefit.
With all good wishes,
Faithfully yours,
THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

Military News

Lieut. Len Smith, B.Sc. of Queen's, went over almost three years ago as a sapper. He earned his commission and served so well that his friends in Kingston, whom he visited on Wednesday, were delighted to notice he wore the ribbon of the Military Cross decoration won at Vimy Ridge. He is expecting to return overseas in a few weeks.

That Military District No. 3, of which Kingston is the headquarters, is obeying the Military Service Act beyond all expectations and that the men drafted are giving the most satisfactory service possible. In the gist of a statement by Major-General Hemming in Ottawa. The officer commanding this district is precluded from giving information for publication as to the number of men drafted or the number of those who have not reported for service, but he intimated that the number of those who had failed to report was very small and also stated that the drafted men were giving just as good satisfaction as volunteers. In fact, it was his opinion that in many instances these new soldiers were much more enthusiastic than those who had voluntarily enlisted for service.

Major J. P. Quigley, who recently returned from overseas, has been appointed radiographer at Queen's Military Hospital.

Capt. H. A. Boyce has been struck off the strength of Queen's Military Hospital.

Lieut.-Col. Taschereau, A.D.V.S., left on Wednesday for Brockville.

Owing to the irregularity of the train service, many local officers are postponing their inspection trips through the district.

Three officers are now serving as privates in the First Depot Battalion, being Lieuts. J. M. Simpson, 14th Regiment; Lieut. A. Simpson, 7th Regiment; and Lieut. P. M. Sargent, 56th Regiment.

Evidently because of such a great number of over-payment cases now being recorded, Ottawa has issued a statement that the soldiers concerned should take precautions against getting too much money from the paymaster.

Several changes in the personnel of the various units of the district are now announced. Lieut. J. A. Langley has been appointed to the 72nd Battery. Capt. J. A. Peace, late 38th, and Lieut. A. C. Webb, R.C.R., have been transferred from the S. T. Depot to the Second Depot Battalion.

Lieut. Angus MacDonald has been promoted to be a captain in the Army Medical Corps.

Nursing Sisters Hamilton, who recently returned from overseas, reported for duty at the Mowat Memorial Hospital on Thursday.

Lieut. W. Anderson and Lieut. W. G. Anderson, who have been with the Military Hospitals Commission here, are going to St. Lucia as officers of the 75th Battery.
