Mr. Hagerly, who also was ill, was rescued.

Ninety-two Years a Widow. Quite recently the world was surprised to hear of the death of the husband of Charlotte Bronte and Anthony Trollope. But although these survivors have been remarkable they are nothing out of the ordinary when one comes to investigate such matters.

The widowhood of the Countess of Desmond, who died lately, extended to seventy years, and even this does not top the record. Agnes Skinner, who died in 1499, at the age of 119, is said to have survived her husband ninety-two years. A much more recent and better authenticated case was the lengthy widowhood of Jean, Countess of Roxburgh, who died in 1753, at the age of ninety-six.

She had been a widow for seventy-one years, her husband, the third earl, having lost his life on the Gloucester Frigate, wrecked in 1682.—Tit Bits.

Counties in Tabloid Form. At Coventry quite a new system of hostel life is to start. One firm has built a village, consisting of cottages in bungalow style, where girls live exclusively with comrades whose homes are situated in the same districts as their own. Thus, all North Country girls find themselves living communal life with friends that they knew at home; and the Scotch girls near their Scottish dialect around them; and any college does not feel lost, for they get together at meal time and bedtime.

Some of these girls are very young but they do not feel homesick or lonely when home-friends are near. On the other hand, those rough corners in manners and character often peculiar to dwellers in particular districts have little chance to get rubbed off when no stranger is present.—Pearson's Weekly.

News From Verona. Verona, Feb. 7.—Floyd Smith, morning for a week's visit under the parental roof. W. A. Watson, leaves for Toronto next week to enlist in the Royal Flying Corps. Mrs. James McMahon was removed to Kingston General Hospital last week for treatment.

Private Delbert Dixon, suffering from gas inhalation in France, has been removed to the Lady Forester convalescent home, Llandudno, North Wales, in writing he speaks highly of the treatment he is receiving.

Death Of Harrowsmith Child. Harrowsmith, Feb. 7.—Sylvia Morris Botting, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Botting, Harrowsmith, passed away on February 4th, aged two years and six months. MENDELS

Kingston, Ont.

WEDDED AT HARTINGTON.

The Woodman-Campbell Nuptials on Wednesday Morning.

Hartington, Feb. 7.—A pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Benjamin Campsall, Hartington, on Wednesday, February 6th, at 10 a.m., when his youngest daughter, Dottie Gwendolyn, Miss Fredericka, was united in wedlock to Stanley Livingston Woodman, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Woodman, Wolfe Island.

The bride presented a picture of girlish loveliness as she entered the drawing-room, carrying a beautiful bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley. Little Miss Gwendolyn Campsall, niece of the bride, and also her namesake, acted as flower-girl, and carried the ring in a basket of flowers. Miss Lillie Woodman, sister of the groom, played the wedding march, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. A. Wilson Stewart, of Harrowsmith.

After congratulations had been extended, the guests repaired to the dining-room, where a dainty luncheon was served. The high esteem in which both young people are held was testified to by the numerous and costly gifts which they received. The groom's gift to the bride was a sunburst of pearls; to the maid of honor, a diamond ring; to the bridesmaids, a diamond pin set with amethysts, and to the flower-girl, a gold ring set with a diamond.

The bride has been a valued worker in the Methodist church at Hartington, and will be greatly missed. She was president of the Epworth League, teacher in the Sunday School, and also organist in the church for the past six years, and her place will be difficult to fill. The happy couple left on the noon train for Toronto, on their return will be side on Wolfe Island, where the groom is a prosperous man.

LADIES! LOOK YOUNG, DARKEN GRAY HAIR

Use the Old-time Sage Tea and Sulphur and Nobody Will Know.

That beautiful, even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray or streaked, just an application or two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred-fold.

Don't bother to prepare the mixture; you can get this famous old recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients at a small cost, all ready for use. It is called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color and lustre of your hair.

Everybody uses "Wyeth's" Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy and lustrous. This ready-to-use preparation is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire dark hair and a youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

The total amount received by the Provincial Treasurer under the Provincial War Tax Act for 1916-17, was $2,859,298.09.
