Place on Re-Creation 82536. Your guests will hush spell-bound as the rich tones of Spanlding's magnificent bowing stream out in the prelude to Gounod's "Ave Maria." Then a moment's pause and Rappold is there. She is attering the prayer as one inspired. The mellow Latin phrases, set to glorious music, grip the audience with a marvellous appeal. You are listening to Rappold and Spaulding. The phonograph itself has no more to do with it than Spaulding's bits of wood and string. Never was Edison kinder to the world than when he perfected this instrument.

Have Rappold sing for you at your will, in solo, duet or in trio, in opera, oratorio'er lyric-it is the privilege of all owners of the New Edison. You are welcome to a demonstration any time.
