Happenings in the City and Vicinity
—What the Merchants Offer to the Readers of the Whig.
Ring up 645 for sweet elder. How did you like your valentine? This weather is a great relief to the coal users.
Ring up 645 for all kinds unfermented wines.
Kingston's streets are undergoing their usual winter plowing.
Grapes, pears, cucumbers, parsley, green onions, etc., at Carnovsky's.
If the trenches alongside the walks were cleared it would make pleasant walking.
T. Major, of the Brockville Recorder and Times staff, was a visitor in the city on Thursday.
Pianos to rent. C. W. Lindsay, Ltd.

The civic property committee will look after the Inspector Jack's office in the City Buildings.
W. Swain, piano tuner, 190 Clergy street west. Orders left at McCauley's, or phone 554.
The ladies are very busy working at the Red Cross headquarters. They deserve every help from citizens in the way of funds.
The half of February is past. Will it be an early spring? We have seen dust blowing on Kingston streets on March 17th.
There must be early planning by Kingston coal men to get a good supply for next winter. The corporation's influence should also be commanded.

There is always something to take the joy out of life. Last week we were kicking about the cold weather. This week it is the wet weather that is causing the trouble.
The remains of the late Miss J. M. Pattison, school teacher, are being transferred by the James Reid firm to Milton for burial. The Board of Education sent a wreath.
Capt. George Hanley, formerly of Kingston, is with the British Medical Service in Mesopotamia, where the temperature was 130 degrees in the shade some weeks ago.
The "kiddies" attending school were disappointed when it was learned that the Board of Education had not decided to close the schools on account of the shortage of coal.
Now is the time to have your piano tuned. We carry two expert tuners and will assure entire satisfaction. C. W. Lindsay, Ltd.
Owing to the coal shortage in the homes there are many parents who would not like to see the schools close, as the schools have been far more comfortable for the children than the homes.
As a result of the good work of the police in stirring up the merchants, the walks on Princess street are in fine shape. Practically every piece of walk has been cleared of snow.
The kindergarten and primary teacher of this city made up eighteen valentine boxes consisting of candy and "comforts" and were sent to the infirmaries boys at Mowat Memorial Hospital.
Dr. John Newton, a long time resident of Deseronto, died on Wednesday, aged seventy-five years, and was buried on Friday. He was an ex-mayor. A widow and large family survive.
We will rent you a piano, and at end of six months if you feel like purchasing instrument we will allow the six months' rental on purchase price, and arrange easy terms on balance. C. W. Lindsay, Ltd.
A canine belonging to a resident of Rideau street made an attack on Mr. Murray, recently appointed as a letter carrier, on Friday morning, and as a result Mr. Murray suffered a serious wound.
A Belleville boy skipped out on Thursday, according to the police of that city, with some of his mother's money, and it was thought he had headed for Kingston, but no trace could be found of him here.
Sergt. Bolloson, Sergt. Eaton and G. J. Black, who left here with the 5th Field Battery of the First Canadian contingent, also G. George Manning, of the R.C.H.A., have returned home on three months' furlough.
The two alleged deserters, Ples Miller and Hammond, who tried to go into the United States, but were turned back at Cape Vincent on Thursday, were taken in charge by the provost marshal, and will now have to stand their trial.
P. E. Munro, specialist in classics at Riverdale Collegiate Institute, has been recommended by the management committee of the Toronto Board of Education for the position of principal of Ryerson school. Mr. Munro is a Queen's University arts graduate.
We will rent you a piano, and at end of six months if you feel like purchasing instrument we will allow the six months' rental on purchase price, and arrange easy terms on balance. C. W. Lindsay, Ltd.
On Monday night the officials of Queen street Methodist church will discuss the ministerial term and ballot on a referendum referred to them by the General Conference. The issue is: Is the four year term long enough? If not, what better plan can be presented?

NOTICE.
Every Citizen Should Read This Article.
By order of the Fuel Controller we are forced to close our store every day at five o'clock, except Saturdays, and open at 9 a.m. We will greatly appreciate the kindness of all our customers if they will manage to shop early, and oblige.

Landowne People Annoyed.
A Landowne correspondent writes to the Whig complaining of the rowdy actions of certain boys and young men, who drive up and down the streets at late hours of the night and throw sticks, etc., at people's doors and otherwise annoy citizens and damage property. A number of names have been received, and the disturbers will probably face a court charge.

Canadian Executions.
Wounded—T. W. Jamieson, Peterboro.

ATTACKED BY CAT; CONDITION SERIOUS

Mrs. (Dr.) Addison of Athens, Victim of An Unusual Accident.

As Mrs. (Dr.) Addison, Athens, was putting her pet cat in the cellar for the night, the cat, which is very large, attacked her with all the fierceness of a wild cat, throwing her to the floor and badly lacerating her hand and arm. Dr. Moore was hastily summoned. He did all he could through dressing the wounds, but owing to Mrs. Addison's advanced years her condition is considered precarious.

PROBATE GRANTED.

WHAT DO YOU THINK?
Merchant Asks Farmers To Show Consideration.

Is a farmer justified in taking the stand of refusing $2. for a bag of oats and holding those oats until the price goes up to $3. This is the question that was put to the Whig by a merchant on Thursday, who added, "With the sacrifices that the city residents are making in the country's cause now, one would think that the farmer would go easy on the profiteering line." In the list of "Hold-up prices" he quoted hay at $16 a ton.

A Pleasing Musical Play.
"There She Goes," a new musical comedy, drew a large audience at the Grand last night, and some exceptionally good vaudeville acts were featured. The whirlwind dancing of the Le Roys, the xylophone playing of Cal Clifford and the singing of a quartette were most entertaining. The chorus work was good throughout, and the girls were very attractive. Harvey Orr and Kenneth Christy were the popular comedians.

Exemption Decisions.
Judge Lavell gave the following exemption decisions on Friday: E. G. Cummins, medical student, 16 Division street, not a Canadian. A. E. DeMill, machinist, 390 Division street, until April 1st. E. B. Green, sectionman, Verona, until Class two is called.

Congratulations, Mr. Carrel.
Frank Carrel, the genial publisher of the Quebec Telegraph, has been appointed a member of the Legislative Council of Quebec, and his fellow journalists heartily congratulate him. Mr. Carrel has been an extensive traveller and illuminating writer and will add dignity and influence to Quebec's upper chamber.

Colds Cause Headache and Grip.
LAXATIVE BROMO QUININE Tablets remove the cause. There is only one "Bromo Quinine." E. W. GROVE'S signature on box. 20c.

Business got slack in the police court on Friday. There were no cases for the magistrate.

THE EARLY CLOSING.
Each Line of Trade Has Its Own Argument to Put Up.

Each line of trade has its own argument regarding the early closing of shops to help out the fuel situation. For instance, the shoe shiners do their big trade in the evening, and they are strongly opposed to putting up their shutters at 5 p.m. If they were to close at 5 o'clock each day they might just as well close up shop altogether, as they would lose the bulk of their business. And it was the same with the barbers. They make hay from early in the afternoon up till closing time, at 8 o'clock, and if they were to close at 5 p.m. the cash register would be minus quite a large sum. And so the argument goes all along the line. With dry goods and other stores selling different commodities the bulk, if not all of the day's shopping has been finished.

TO SECURE WOOD SUPPLY
For the Deserving Needy from Farmers Around Parham.

At a meeting of the Civic Finance Committee on Thursday evening, it was decided to accept the offer of W. H. Daybert and others of Parham to furnish a supply of wood for the deserving needy. Mayor Hughes will arrange the details.
The committee refused to grant the request of the Great War Veterans' Association for exemption from taxation, as the Municipal Act does not provide for such.

A Pleasant Send-Off.
Cut Knife, Saak, Grinder.

It was with sincere regret that the many friends of Miss Kennedy bade her good-bye, when departing for her new home in Kingston, Ont. on Jan. 29th.
She will be greatly missed in patriotic work, but especially so in the Homemakers' Club of Cut Knife, of which she was president.
The workers of the Club presented her with a beautiful mantel-clock, in mahogany and gold, as a reminder of many happy hours spent together. Miss Kennedy very much appreciated the honor done her and the good will which accompanied the gift.
