In The World Of Sport

THREE DATES CONFLICT: ALL ARE IN CHICAGO

Majors Avoid Clashes During Coming Season—Open On April 15th.

An usual 154 games will be played in the American League in the coming season, according to the official schedule announced. The season will open in the east, April 15th, one day prior to the opening in the west. In the initial games Philadelphia will meet Boston at Fenway Park, while New York will cross bats with Washington in the Capital city. The western openings the next day will see St. Louis in Chicago against the world's champions, while Detroit is scheduled to play in Cleveland. The season will close October 5th.

There will be only three conflicting dates with the National League and all these will be in Chicago. Cleveland will be the opponent of the world's champions on all three occasions—June 23rd, August 31st and September 1st.

Cleveland has been awarded the greatest number of Sunday games—fourteen; Chicago, St. Louis, Philadelphia and Boston have been given thirteen Saturdays each. Independence Day games will be played in Chicago, Cleveland, Washington and Philadelphia. The Labor Day programme calls for games in St. Louis, Detroit, Washington and New York, while Decoration Day there will be games at Detroit, Cleveland, New York and Boston. New York will play two games at Boston on Bunker Hill Day, April 15th.

TROTTERING RULES AMENDED.

Horses Must Be Started Under Their Owners Name.

All horses taking part in races under the auspices of the National Trotting Association must in future be entered under the real names of their owners and must so appear in the published list of entries, under amendments made to the association's rules at its thirteenth annual meeting in New York. Several other important changes were made in the regulations and a committee report, recommending the American Trotting Association, was adopted.

In changing the rule governing entries it was decided that horses may be entered under the names of their racing stables, if the stable name has been registered with the association, for which a fee of $250 is to be charged.

It also was decided that application for removal of the penalty imposed for starting a horse out of its class, or under change of name, or both, shall not be docketed for a hearing by the board of review until all the unexpired winnings have been returned. The owner must then pay a recording fee for change of name, as well as a fee of $250.

Wells As A Referee.

Matt Wells, the English boxer, who was a ring sensation in this country a few years back, has retired from the roped arena as far as actual fighting goes. Wells, who is located at Rochester at present, has branched out as a referee. Wells, who was a former amateur lightweight champion of England, made a great hit with New York fight fans soon after the Dravay law went into effect, about 1910. Wells won the English title in 1911, defeating Freddie Welsh in a twenty-round bout in London. Welsh regained his English title in 1912, when he defeated Wells in twenty rounds.

Wisconsin And Pugilism.

They have strict pugilistic ideas in Wisconsin. After wearing of too much stalling in their fight shows, it has been decreed in that state that any fighter found guilty of faking through a fight hereafter will not get his money for the exhibition, but the same will be turned over to charity. A clause to this effect will appear in every fighter's contract, and he will not be able to recover through the courts.

To Raise $300,000.

Kentucky turf interests have undertaken a man-sized job in raising $300,000 for the Red Cross this year, but they have completed plans for a most vigorous campaign to raise the amount. As one prominent turfman put it: "We have given our word that the money will be raised for the boys 'over there,' and you can depend upon it that when the season ends the entire $300,000 will be forthcoming."

NO, THANK YOU, BARNEY.

So Answered Hans Wagner When Asked to Manage Pirates.

Once more and for the last time hath Caesar declined the kindly crown—and let it be said that this Caesar is not only an honorable man, but a "wise guy." Recently Barney Dreyfuss offered Hans Wagner, the manager of the Pittsburgh club, but old John Henry refused to lift the burden of Hugo Bodzek's shoulders. Hans always has been a shrewd man, both on and off the field, and he showed more than ordinary perspicacity in declining to take over the skippership of the waterlogged and shell-riddled Pirate craft. The leadership of the Pirates has come to be regarded in the legal light of a visit from mother-in-law—worse than the whooping cough, but few men have the stamina to decline the issue.

Wagner not only declined the Pirate crown, but he refused absolutely to consider any proposition that called for his stepping onto the ball field in a professional capacity. Hans is married, happy, with plenty of money and the respect of his neighbors. He deserves retirement.

STILL MAKING EFFORT

To Have the Race Track Betting Law Rescinded.

Some representations have been recently made here in favor of easing up on the prohibitory order last year concerning the operation of race tracks with betting. For the purpose of keeping the ponies in trim and sustaining the breeding industry, a week's racing has been informally suggested.

It is learned that the matter has not taken any definite form and considering the economics urged for war time it is doubted if any relaxation will be permitted.

Racing is not prohibited at present. Difference from the common conception of things, a race track may operate still every day in the year but Sunday. What is banned is the exemption of race tracks from the anti-betting provision of the criminal code.

Swimming A Fine Pastime.

Swimming is an exceptional pastime. It stands out by itself as one which, in addition to being pleasant for its own sake, provides the man or woman who enjoys it with an art that may prove of vital importance to the principal and to others. It is a sport which deserves well of the British nation, for the power that keeps our flag flying is derived by our command on the water. Swimming will never win a battle, it is true, but it might help, and as ships now go to the bottom quicker than a man can sink, the art is one that should be taught every boy.

To Play On Monday.

The N.H.L. game between Toronto and Canadiens scheduled for Monday night at the Toronto Arena will not be postponed until Tuesday, as first announced. The pro hockey games are not affected by the order of the Fuel Controller, and the change was therefore unnecessary.

To Curb Goat-Getters.

A stricter enforcement of the coaching rules was recommended by National League directors, so that "goat-getting" tactics from the coaching lines or the players' benches will be eliminated as far as possible in future.

WILLARD TO MEET WINNER

The Champion Agrees to Fight Either Fulton or Dempsey.

Jess Willard, heavyweight champion of the world, has issued a statement of his intentions. "It is not true," Jack Dempsey's manager has been telling, that I have agreed to meet Dempsey in Cheyenne on that date," Willard said, "but I will fight him if he first defeats Fred Fulton or I will fight Fulton if he beats Dempsey. I am willing and anxious to defend my title, but I do not think the public wants me to fight any but the best fighter. Let these two settle that, and I will meet the winner."

Sullivan Would Have Won.

What would Jess Willard have looked like in a bout with John L. Sullivan had he met the late veteran when he was in his prime? Jim Corbett, who won the championship from John L., says it would have been a farce with Sullivan on top.

Jeffries says that none of the younger fighters could have stood up under John L.'s mighty wallop.

Cost More To See Gamps.

Increases in admission charges to all major league baseball parks in the United States for the coming season were decided upon at a conference at New York of American and National League clubowners. It was decided to increase the price of 25-cent seats to 30 cents, 50-cent seats to 55 cents, 75-cent seats to 85 cents, and the dollar seats to $1.10.

Giants May Lose Robertson.

Dave Robertson, Giant right-fielder is talking of retiring again, and this time he says he really means it. In addition to being displeased with his 1918 contract, Davy declares that he has had pretty near enough of baseball and wants to settle down in Norfolk and begin the practice of medicine.

Evers With Barrow.

Johnny Evers, the veteran second baseman, unconditionally released from the Philadelphia Nationals last summer, has signed a contract with the Boston Americans. It was reported in baseball circles that Evers would not play, but would act in an advisory capacity to Edward Barrow, the new manager.

$100,000 For Heavyweight Bout.

Wyoming oilmen announced that only the consent of the War Department is needed for a July 4th heavyweight battle at Fort Russell between Jess Willard and Jack Dempsey. The syndicate, headed by P. Chester Thompson, of Cheyenne, has offered $100,000 cash for war charity if allowed to stage the contest.

To Settle Things Up.

Regardless of the Baltimore club's suit against the National and American Leagues, it is understood that all financial matters between the major organizations and the representatives of the Pittsburgh, Newark and Brooklyn Federal League Clubs will be adjusted within a few days.

Cubs' Claim Disallowed.

The National League directors yesterday refused to allow the Chicago club's claim of $2,500 paid as salary to an injured player, Victor Saier, from the date that the Pittsburgh club claimed him. The player remains with Pittsburgh, and Chicago loses the money.

Instantly! Corns Stop Hurting! Corns Loosen and Lift Out

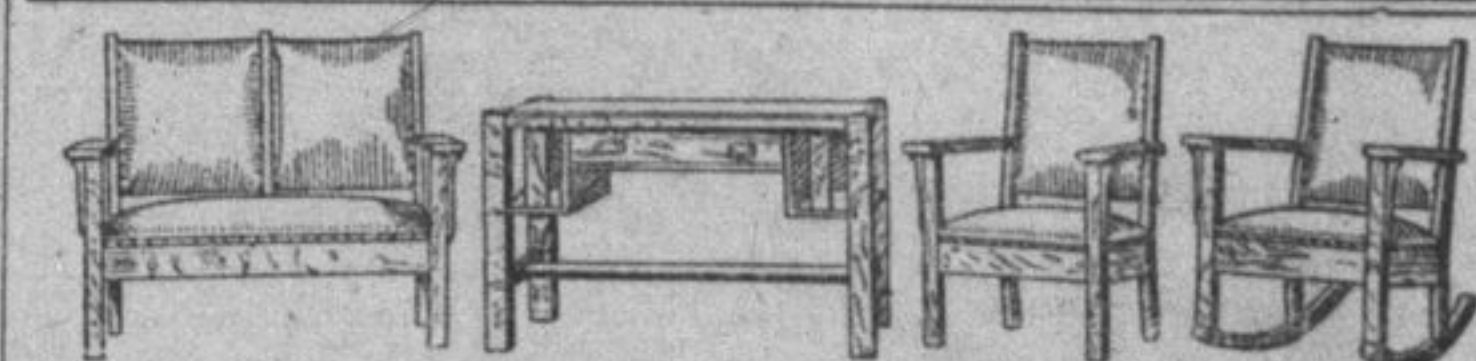

No pain! Few drops loosen corns and calluses so they fall off—Try it! Magic!

For a few cents you can get a small bottle of the magic drug freezone recently discovered by a Cincinnati man.

Just ask at any drug store for a small bottle of freezone. Apply a few drops upon a tender, aching corn and instantly all soreness disappears and shortly you will find the corn so loose that you lift it out, root and all, with the fingers.

Just think! Not one bit of pain before applying freezone or afterwards. It doesn't even irritate the surrounding skin.

Hard corns, soft corns, or corns between the toes, also hardened calluses on bottom of feet hurting up and fall off without hurting a particle. It is a scientific compound made from ether. Got the genuine!

Why Best for Babies?

"Grassy" Chamberlain "I am often asked why Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is best for babies. Well, there are several reasons:

- First: It is perfectly harmless and can be given with every confidence to the youngest or most delicate child.
- Secondly: It contains no alcohol, opium, chloroform, morphine or any other narcotic.
- Thirdly: Children like it, and no persuasion is needed to get them to take it.

For the above reasons alone it is impossible to get a better medicine for babies than

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy

But aside from its safety it relieves coughs and colds, is the best remedy known for croup, and when given as soon as the croupy cough appears it will even prevent the attack."

Yours for Health—J. J. Chamberlain
