Davidson Gold Mines

We think that the present is the proper time to buy Davidson Gold Mines stock. The price of the issue is relatively low at the moment, and we are informed that the property will go on a producing basis before the end of this month.

The attractiveness of the Davidson as a speculative investment is exceptional; because of the extensive bodies of good milling ore opened up and ready for the mill, because of the relatively small capitalization of the company, because the company is entirely free of debt and because the mine is efficiently managed.

We believe that your profits will be larger if you wire us your orders for Davidson stock at once.
