

Mother and Children Had Awful Coughs

Were Cared by DR. WOOD'S NORWAY PINE SYRUP

Mrs. Arthur Appleyard, Novar, Ont., writes: "This past winter my children and I had awful colds and coughs which we got by being in drafts. I tried a number of different remedies for us, but got no relief. I thought I would try Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, and I found it a most excellent and sure cure. It gave relief to the tickling in the throat and stopped the cough and with a few bottles we were all cured."

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup is a remedy that has been on the market for over twenty-five years, and we can recommend it as being, without doubt, the best cure for coughs and colds that you can possibly procure.

There are a lot of imitations on the market, so when you ask for "Dr. Wood's" see that you get it. Put up in a yellow wrapper, three pine trees the trade mark; price 25c and 50c; manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

W. P. O'Connor, Cost of Living Commissioner, reporting on bakers' profits in Canada, finds these not excessive, and says he finds no present evidence of unfair dealing. France's total expenditure during 1917 was 44,847,000,000 francs. The Cunard Company lost an action for damage to a wheat cargo.

CITY COUNCIL ENDORSES

PROPOSAL TO CUT DOWN TREES FOR FUEL.

Adopts Committee's Recommendation Not to Increase Firemen's Wages—Report of the Finance Committee.

The City Council last night endorsed the proposal of the Board of Works to cut down a large number of trees throughout the city for fuel purposes. The following recommendation of the board was adopted: "That whereas the city engineer has recommended that a number of trees in this municipality can be cut down to great advantage to other trees, to property, streets and health of the people, that this board be given authority to remove all trees which in the opinion of the board and city engineer comply with the above; that said wood be removed to the fair grounds in convenient lengths and cut into cord wood and stove wood, to be used for fuel, and that the parks committee be consulted as to removal of trees in the parks. It is estimated by the city engineer that a household cord can be obtained in this manner."

Ald. Chown moved, seconded by Ald. Corbett, that new trees be planted in place of those cut down. Ald. O'Connor said he would have to oppose this amendment, because he was concerned that on a great many streets there were too many trees which were a detriment both to health and property, and it would be inadvisable to replace them. The motion of Ald. Chown would come in better later in the season when it would be seen what trees should be replaced.

Ald. Kent remarked that good judgment had to be used in taking trees out. All were agreed that on some streets there were too many trees, but on others there were too few. In a good many cases there could be replanting. The trouble was that trees were planted too close together in past years. Ald. Kent asked that the trees in the city parks be cut down subject to the approval of the parks committee.

Ald. O'Connor said he would agree to consult with the parks committee about the trees to be cut out in the parks, but not to allow the parks committee to block the taking out of the trees. He would have council decide on this point.

In reply, Ald. Kent said that he would certainly object to the Board of Works interfering with the parks committee's jurisdiction. There were some trees in the City Park which should come down, he said, but the approval of the committee should be secured before any cutting took place.

Ald. O'Connor assured Ald. Kent that the Board of Works, in case of disagreement, would come back to the City Council for further orders. The parks chairman accepted Ald. O'Connor's promise.

Ald. Chown also yielded to the persuasive powers of Ald. O'Connor and withheld his amendment as to replanting of trees.

No Increase for Firemen.

Ald. Armstrong asked Ald. Litton, chairman of the fire committee, why the application of the firemen for increase in wages was not granted.

Ald. Litton replied that the committee was unanimous in refusing the firemen's request. Last year there were three increases given the firemen, and the committee felt that it could not ask council for an additional wage increase this year.

Ald. Armstrong claimed that no man with a family could live decently on less than three dollars a day.

Ald. Peters held that the firemen should get the increase. They were not being paid enough.

Ald. Chown stated that the fire committee had secured figures from other places about the size of Kings-ton and this city was paying as good wages as those places.

Ald. N. A. Smith said he had secured figures as to the cost of keeping a family, and $850 was not enough for a family of three. He favored increasing the firemen's wages.

Ald. J. W. Smith took a different view. He held that the firemen were paid as well as the other laboring men.

The Finance Report.

These recommendations of the finance committee were adopted: That funds be provided for the following war expenses: Fuel control pay list ending Feb. 12th, $14; Public Utilities Commission service, $21.66.

That the application of the Great War Veterans' Association asking for exemption from taxes be not granted, as council has no authority for doing so under the provisions of the act.

That the request of the Cataract Chapter, Daughters of the Empire for refund of rent for the City Hall, Jan. 26th, be granted.

That the resolution as passed by the City of Stratford re control of expenditures of the Board of Police Commissioners be passed by the City Council.

That the offer of William W. Dougherty and others, Parham, to supply the deerskin needs of this city with wood be accepted and that further arrangements be made by the mayor, and that distribution be made by the poor relief committee.

That the communication regarding amendment of section 7 of the Assessment Act, as outlined by the City of Guelph, be approved.

During an interval, Ald. Newman asked if the water on the aldermen's desks was boiled.

Mayor Hughes replied that the medical health officer had told him that on Friday and Saturday last the tests had showed the water as free of contamination.

"The garbage committee couldn't be affected," remarked Ald. Corbett.

"I suppose we're immune," said Ald. Newman.

The name of H. C. Nickle was added to the patriotic fund committee.

Tired All The Time

It is natural to feel tired sometimes, when you have worked or exercised sufficiently to cause a healthful feeling of fatigue. But you should be refreshed by rest. A tired feeling after a night's sleep is abnormal. It means that you are anemic—that your blood is thin and watery. It means that you need a tonic to build you up and to fortify your system against such a condition.

If you do not take prompt steps to improve the blood you are inviting disease, because poor blood means that your power of resistance is lowered. Thin blood is largely the result of your own fault. It results from neglect, because the blood can be built up. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills supply the elements that the blood needs to make it rich and red and to enable it to carry more oxygen.

That is why these pills change weak men and women into robust, healthy people. There is no spot in this great country where you will not find some former sufferer who has been restored to the blessing of good health through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. If you are feeling at all out of sorts do not further neglect yourself, a fair treatment with these pills will give you new strength to meet life's duties.

You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills through any dealer in medicine, or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brookville, Ont.

PRaises THE BOLSHIEVKS.

Would Rather be One Than an M.P. in England. Montreal, Feb. 19.—James Simpson, Toronto, vice-president of the Trades Congress of Canada, aroused a large audience in the Monument Nationale here this afternoon to enthusiastic cheers by unstinted praise of Trotsky and Lenin of Russia, and admiration for the Bolsheviki Government. Referring to the nationalization of the banking institutions of Russia, and the Government control of factories, Mr. Simpson said:

"I tell you I would rather be a member of the Bolsheviki Government doing that than be a member of the British House of Commons, permitting their lords and earls and dukes to hold on to their big estates while their people, mothers and daughters are standing in queues a quarter of a mile long waiting to get a quarter of a pound of butter, a bit of sugar and a little tea."

A Voice—"How long are they going to stand it, Jimmy?"

"Not very long," replied Mr. Simpson. "If I understand the working class mind in the Mother Country they recognize their power, but they want to exercise it at the right moment, and in the most effective way they can to bring results."

A YOUNG WIFE MURDERED

STRANGLER TO DEATH IN SMALL HOTEL IN DETROIT.

Detroit, Feb. 19.—Strangled by a man who accompanied her to a room at midnight, and who was heard to leave less than a hour afterwards, the body of beautiful Daisy Gates, 27 years old, was found in a lodging house at 142 Forth street west. Deep marks of a man's fingers on the girl's throat, where nails had cut into the flesh, bore mute evidence to the manner in which she had been slain.

The corner of a pillow slip crumpled into her mouth acted as a gag and apparently prevented any outcry, for occupants of adjacent rooms declare they heard no sound during the time that the girl's companion was with her.

Tightly knotted around her neck was a towel, indicating that the murderer, after choking his victim into unconsciousness, desired to make sure she should not revive. The body lay face downward on the bed with the head completely covered by three pillows piled one on top of the other.

The man who brought the girl to the lodging house registered for her and himself as James Morgan and wife. He is described as being about 25 years old, five feet six or seven inches in height, smooth shaven and well dressed.

The young woman was identified by Mrs. J. H. Thomas, 52 West Grand River avenue, whom she had visited a few hours before she was killed.

Mrs. Thomas says the Gates girl told her that her husband, Charles Gates, planned to take a train for Toronto that night, where his mother, a Mrs. Dolphman, lives at 117 Beatrice street.

The police have communicated with the Toronto authorities in an effort to learn whether Gates reached there and to find out what light he can throw on the tragedy.

Two valuable diamond rings worn by the girl when she called on Mrs. Thomas were missing when her body was discovered. Mrs. Thomas also says her visitor had about $50 with her. All the money found in the room in which he was murdered was six $1 bills.

In addition to Gates the police are trying to learn the identity of another man, believed to have been intimate with the slain girl.

The Russian Soldiers.

The Russian peasant are not radically altered when they put on a uniform. They learned, after long generations, to accept the duty of military service; they learned to die for the czar," and to fight hard, suffer heroically, and die like men, in obedience to that loyalty. It was that one thing that lifted them above the mud of their fields and made them as good soldiers in their slow way as any in the world.

But, when you broke the mainspring of their loyalty and obedience, when you took from them their impulse of devotion, when instead of loyalty you offered them self-seeking and self-interest—and this is in effect what the revolution has done—then self-interest and self-preservation began to work. When, in the old days, you told the peasant soldier to die for the czar, he went forward and died like a man. But now, when the spark of loyalty has been snuffed out, when every impulse of selflessness in him has been appealed to, you tell him to go forward and die "for the people," he has logic enough in him to say: "Very well, but I am the people! I will begin by saving my own skin!" What he really wants is, to go home to his village.

Logic means no more to him than trigonometry. He does not want to govern himself; he wants to go home to his fields among the pine trees. He thinks of the revolution as simply the opportunity to go home to his land; perhaps also the opportunity to get more land, which at present belongs to his neighbors.

If it is said, on good evidence, that more than one "strategic retreat" of the Russians on the front was started in this way: The German aviators dropped papers saying, "They are dividing up the lands back home; go quick, or you will get none!" And they went quick, thinking of nothing else, caring for nothing else in the world.

Free Trade In Germany.

Germany adds another startling example of the benefits of free trade. The Napoleonic wars left a multitude of petty kingdoms, duchies, and principalities, completely independent, but not individually self-sustaining. Between them raged a frantic tariff war, supplemented by trade agreements to give one view commercial advantages which at the same time were offset by their mutual jealousies and restrictive policies. These obstructions existed even between the minor political subdivisions of the separate kingdoms. Prussia led in the direction of reform. Unrestricted trade intercourse within her own dominions was established, and Prussian prosperity followed. The example was a strong argument in favor of extending the principles to associations of the Germanic states. Out of the original Prussian Zollverein of 1818, arose the commercial union which extended until, by 1842, is included the whole of Germany with the exception of the Hanseatic towns, Mecklenburg, Hanover, and Austria. This led logically to the Diet of Frankfurt in 1848, which proposed a basis of political consolidation.—Atlantic.
