

paragraphs may be of interest. Having spent the summer and fall in the mountains, making my graduating climb of Cathedran ander of the You hold your breath and wonder in ed dark and dismal, and the yellows to become a member of he in Banff. I which direction to look first; each and reds of other trees looked deeper and spending the remail morning train slowly and deliberately in some great ago. hewhere I had a crisis in life. They are of such im- The dusk was falling quickly, and tains and had enough grapre leaving at port. The first snow-capped peak ap- the path was barely discernible from Bann to Field, the t time was the when a glacial hung summit comes The lights of Field now began twinkfull seven hours beid J. we so many de into view; then more peaks with ling through the trees like so many age spots. Burgess their snow fields, even the crevasses stars. There were fifty minutes be-Where to go in thater, Mryery beautiful were discernable, another few steps fore my train left, though one had Question as there wer Babcef walking i and the summit is reached; never as just passed and I wondered if I had lightful and charming ith her is p.m. The long as I live shall that moment be mistaken the time on account of the Pass was said to be a m. Neen used by forgotten; looking ahead for the sum- mountain and Pacific time, so why walk, and being fond being fond to the Yoho mit I little dreamt of the view be- leave! I sat down on the trail, the started out alone at 7 dy but gradual hind. Mountains, mountains in all night had come, the day was passed trail was good, having he timber was directions, as far as the eye could and my wonderful walk a thing of ponies all summer goi b lead to my won- where only silence is heard, for a rather the edge of things," and my lalas' nothing but silence such as that is not silence, answer said, that expressed it perahead. After sev. for the "Infinite" speaks. It sur-feetly. We both agreed that to see de trat was found and passed any service ever attended on the real nature of the mountains the camb till another Thanksgiving Day. I was not only beaten trails and high roads should the est of views, I wondered overtake me, so I started, loath to go. glorious view.—E. C. McD. has climbed the indes steadily I sat down to rest; the color-

Valley. It was a sig

heavy and beautifuly

ascent all the time;

tints on poplar trees

gave just the neede

Added to the beau

were high banks

shades of green an

bright scarlet of o

'as seen along th

me, rushing may

is, but the tark

ou there make

Malcoln ed up w

Sunday my goal

o save the it

ear of Urful

ek list a se

ery. W get

Myers

his hor

gay the ested me.

seven ha

Tirae

n side, as it

(10,453 ft.) | cribable expectancy as you reach a ing was now in all the rich tints of the Alpine summit cannot be understood, nor Roman days. The mountains wore th of Hector can it be even by those who climb. blues and purples, the pine trees look-Club, staying in camp soulst of the moun- step means so much, like steps taken and richer than they had an hour

pears-a few more steps are taken when nearing the end of the trail. the autumnal reach-Mount Burgess to my left the past, but what memories, and and fruit bushes with Emerald Lake lying at its base what a Thanksgiving Day. One touch of color. (more green, if possible, than any never to be forgotten. "Alone!" by of the foliage emerald) in a most beautiful valley. No, one is not alone when with Namoss in varied President and Vice-President ahead ture, for many voices are heard: such bronze, and the of me. Mount Wapta to my right, were my thoughts at this moment he pigeon berries with its pony trail leading to the when I heard a sound-what was e trail; a stream Yoko on its side, Cathedral and moving on the trail? A figure down the moun. Mount Stephen southeast of it, and emerged from the gloom, and he too retard one's pro- to the south range upon range of was "alone." I spoke first and asked "stepping stones" snow-capped mountains. I was liter if the train that had just passed was fady felt repaid by ally dumb and numb of soul. No the regular, and to my joy it was not. Wh. Mount Stephen thought or words could exppress This "Lonely Figure"!! had walked ald, be seen to ad such a mement, it was several min-fourteen miles. We went back to the ne and needless to utes before I could think, and then I hotel together. Kindred spirits and the latter inter found my spul breathing a prayer of one with nature. He told me of his not forgotten my joy-utter joy in the fact that I was travels in the Alps and the Sierras. alive and could enjoy such a view- but nothing touched this for fast the peak loom- it surpassed even the Grand Canyon grandeur. He asked if there was ght must surely be of Arizona. To be under the canopy much to see at Banff, and I said noflately took a short of heaven with no living thing in thing that compares with this. "I k and shale, think sight as far as the eye could reach, should," he said, "imagine it were

As Mount Burgess on the summit, but further away I be left and the pony trails and high left and I was walk knew not where, on another plane; roads should be taken, either on foot blase of the summit, another world-at least in the world or riding, then the grandeur; the magnificence, and awe inspiring rees (they were now The sun was now dipping behind Canadian Rockies can be seen to the ther between) I knew Mount Burgess and how quickly the best advantage. A few days should tance to my summit. color changed, the Emerald Lake be spent at Field, or if time will not be allow, at least miss one train to go whe day was perfect and mountains began to grow hazy. It through Burgess Pass, for the whole deless so that one could was time to leave or darkness would trip is certainly worth that one

HAS ROMANTIC PAST.

South Africa Possesses No Literature to Tell Its Story.

"Of all the dominions of the Britsh Empire, South Africa has had the Ambrose Pratt Writes In "The Real South Africa." "From north to try is dotted with monuments to commemorate battles, treaties, and Africa, moreover, is a land of expart of the world are there to be found vaster stretches of high tableland so weirdly broken and relieved gorges and dongas, and dark inaccessible ravines. There are taller afraid to let anything out for fear of mountains elsewhere, but none more hold and starkly menacing in form; cessions of jagged, frowning cpurs; none that offer a more powerful appeal to the imagination, "The most experienced traveler Africa at every turn. The country to itself. The veld is without a formighty battlemented Gothic castle pushed sheer upward into the blue on tier on tier of precipitous Cyclo- tongues. pean rocks, and supported and de- There is a string of beautifully fended from the lower world by a multitude of giant flying buttresses phases of military activities, pub--each rock a straight and lofty mountain, each buttress a naked near and far. mountain spur incomparably bleak, magnificent and stern. The air has maps and diagram sheets here is a a quality of clarity that makes even great chart showing the limpid brightness of the Australian atmosphere seem like mist. The sunsets surpass in gorgeousness and brazen glory the sunsets of all other lands; and the vivid coloring of the 'bush,' the dour scarlet starred monotone of the veld, are facts and contrasts that strike like shafts of fire into the fancy. Inexorably the Hun. the thought arises in the traveler's mind: 'Here is a country to compel into existence an original and peer-mankind.' He merely prepares for himself another astonishment "This wonderful land is practically destitute of an indigenous literature; it has almost absolutely failed to inspire its own children. Olive Schreiner has written 'The Story of ialists. a South African Farm.' Sir Percy Fitzgerald has written 'Jack of the note very nearly begin and end with equally tongue-tied in poetry. One reads their songs only to be sharp- German fleet. ly disappointed. The Dutch Afrikanders have no prose literature deserv. upon the value of Denmark as comsinger, Mr. Jan Cellers, has ever tic. reached a reputation. The Taal has no grammar. It is a wretched patois, merely the slang of half a dozen lan-Jan Cellers is acclaimed a poet at all, confining himself to such a medium, is remarkable; yet even his warmest admirers admit that his voice is 'still and soft,' and his range narrow."

Many War Weddings.

"Crudely stated, the war has re- battle-line that they hold now. tween August, 1914, and June, 1917, adds up to 109,500 square miles. let, president of the Statistical So- 676,010 square miles.

perhaps the most important effect at War." upon vital statistics produced by the The latter presents on the front war, he said. In births the United page the president's portrait. Above Kingdom had suffered far less than it in French, German, and English Germany and Hungary, the United are his words: Kingdom having lost 10,000 to a "We are now about to accept gage million of the population, Germany of battle with this national foe to 40,000, and Hungary 70,000. very high in several German cities, and its power." and the German rate remained some There is also a war atlas, bound 50 per cent, higher than in England, appropriately in red cartridge paper, the figures of the United Kingdom, last spring, heart-broken over the the proportion of males having not- loss of his son. iceably increased. Contrary to ex- The foreword to the atlas expectations, the war had produced no plains: effect on illegitimate births.

Came From Newfoundland.

The Daily Mail says it is feared some of the general aspects of the that the Antarctic relief ship Aurora, world war.

The Aurora, formerly a Newfound- British navy. land sealing steamer, carried the "The eighth map demonstrates the Mawson Antarctic expedition to collapse of Germany's ambition in Adelie Land in 1913 and rescued the the East, and the ninth illustrates While going to the assistance of the which she, has lost overseas. The Shackleton expedition early in 1916 tenth map shows the isolation in the Aurora was damaged and return- which Germany has placed herself ed to New Zealand, after leaving by her criminal outrages on civilizasome of its crew at Russ Barrier, Sir tion, and the eleventh explains, by Ernest Shackleton set out to rescue chapter and verse, the claims to the members of the Aurora's crew in world domination which have been Chesterton Fined.

Mr. G. K. Chesterton was fined 10s development' of other races. Piano, violin and other stringed having an unscreened light in his many, at the commencement of the house. He admitted the offence, and fourth year of war, is gripped in a matic Art. Fall pupils may said the police constable was only relentless vice of steel, and points

> World's | epest Valley. The deepest valley is believed to be in Patenti, : It is at least one thousand three hundred feet below the level of the sen,

England Speaks For Herself

printed matter and photographic information which the British Pictorial Service and the newlyformed Department of Commercial Intelligence are sending to the ends of the earth in the interests of the British Empire's side of the war.

What a healthy change this policy represents from the first cautious months, when the authorities were "comfort to the enemy!"

In this article I wish to deal with the work of the Pictorial Service. Thousands upon thousands of battle-front pictures have been taken, at sea and on land, and the photographers have dared anything and

There are four pictorial bookletsthing so much as the flat roof of a On," "Behind the Lines," "Through Swamps and Forest." They are the > illustrated papers, portraying all lished for consumption in the East, Among the extensive assortment of

"WHAT GERMANY WANTS: HER CLAIMS AS SET FORTH BY LEADERS OF GERMAN

THOUGHT." The whole world is here laid out, on Mercator's projection, and the red spots are the would-be dominion of All South American is red, and most of Africa. The bloody trail is over Scandinavia and the whole of less literature, to breed a race of Central Europe, Turkey, Syria, poets, with a brand new message for China, the Dutch West Indies. One wonders at the moderation of the cartographer in leaving out the United States.

In the border of the chart there are thirty-six quotations giving the swollen vaticinations of Prussian imper-

"Holland, together with her royal family, her European possessions and Bushveld.' The prose achievements her colonies in South America, the of South Africa that are worthy of Indian Islands and Australasia, must become the all of Germany," writes those two books. The country is Tannenberg in "Gross Deutschland." Werner Sombart claims Dover. hears of a few English versifiers and Malta, and Suez as stations for the General von Bernhardi lays stress ing of the hame at all, and but one manding the approaches to the Bai-

Ernest Hasse intends to absorb the Scandinavian countries. The bold editor, Maximilian Harguages jumbled together. That Mr. den, whose independence of thought has been admired even by his foes, talks of "German cannon on the routes to Egypt and India" as "worthy of great sacrifices."

Another portrays "The British Empire at War," giving the homes of the fighting men and the routes they have traveled to come to Britain's aid, and the part of the far-flung sulted in 200,000 persons in the The territory occupied by the Cen-

United Kingdom being married be- tral powers outside their own borders who in the ordinary course would not The territory held by the Allies have married," says Sir Bernard Mal- outside their own borders adds up to

There are also four-page pictorial The loss of potential lives to the sheets, such as "Bagdad in British belligerent countries by the decrease Hands," "Haig's Smashing Blow in in the number of children born was the West," and "The United States liberty, and shall, if necessary, spend The infant mortality in the sum- the whole force of the nation to mer of 1917 appeared to have been check and nullify its pretensions

An alteration in the sex ratio of the maps made at Stanford's classic birth appeared to be established by establishment. Poor Stanford died

"This atlas has been designed to illustrate for the student not only the actual battle fronts but also which took part in the Shackleton "The first five maps show without expedition, has been lost with all comment the theaters of war in the hands while returning to England. West, in the East, on the Italian It is understood the vessel sailed front, in the Balkans, and in the from Wellington, N.Z., in June with Asiatic possessions in Turkey. The a crew of about 22, and nothing has sixth map illustrates in greater debeen heard from it since. Vessels tall the British front in the West, sent out to search for it found only while the seventh shows the various a life-buoy marked Aurora and some theatres of war in which British wreckage. Lloyd's recently posted troops are engaged and the vast disthe Aurora as being considerably tances which they have safely traveled under the protection of the expedition later in the same year, the vast extent of the possessions December, 1916. He found seven of put forward by her leaders. The them alive, but three others had per- twelfth map illustrates the growth of the military domination of Prussia, while the thirteenth is an effective exposure of the professed desire of the Central powers for the 'free begin at any date. Terms on apdoing his duty in hriging the case to the final and decisive victory of plication. lerton S. Waldo in Detroit Free

> It takes a ton of apples to make about one hundred and fifty gallons

Press.

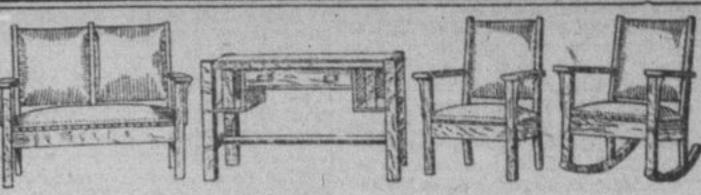

THE

OF CANADA HEAD OFFICE - TORONTO

BUSINESS ACCOUNTS

All classes of business accounts receive careful attention.

KINGSTON BRANCH,

Room Furniture

Couches, Chesterfields, Tables, Chairs and Rockers All Latest Designs and Finishes. Largest and Best Selection.

R. J. Reid

Leading Undertaker.

J. F. ROWLAND,

Phone 577.

Manager.

Bears the Signature use

Exact Copy of Wrapper.

INFANTS CHILDREN

Gheerfulness and Rest Contain

neither Opium, Morphine no

Mineral, NOT NARGOTIC

A helpful Remedy for Constipation and Diarrhoca.

and Feverishness and

THE CENTAUR COMPANY MONTREAL & NEW YORK.

At 6 months old

35 Doses - 35 CENT

COURT IN

LOSS OF SLEEP

Pumplin Seed

There Are Always Two

Don't take the other fellow's word for it. Find out for yourself.

We are only asking for the opportunity to quote on your printing needs.

The first decision does not prove that we are, or the other fellow is, the highest tenderer on other decisions.

There is such a thing as doing some work without profit just to "get on the inside track."

Here's Another Point

We are building a reputation for doing work that pleases our patrons at prices they know to be reasonable. We can do the same for you.

JOB DEPARTMENT BRITISH WHIG PUBLISHING CO., Ltd. Phone 292.

Specializers on Direct by Mail Advertising. Our full line of 1919 calendars now ready. Bargains in Loose Leaf Material.

"War Office Times." on the requirements of the men in the Army will natur-EXTRACT FROM ally be of interest to those who have relations or friends in the service. The clipping, given herewith, is an ex-"WAR OFFICE TIMES" tract from this paper and shows that Zam-Buk is regarded by those in authority as indispensable. So much so, in fact, that large orders for Zam-Buk have been received Amongst the troubles with which from the Government for the British Army in France. the Army has to cope is the ques-Zam-Buk is put up in boxes of convenient size for tion of sore feet amongst the men. carrying 'n the pocket, so that a man may have it ready This may sound trivial, but in to apply at the right moment. Many a case of bloodreality is a matter of the gravest poisoning has been avoided by the timely use of Zamimportance. Obviously, to be of Buk. There is nothing can take its place for cuts, burns, use, an army must be in good barbed wire scratches, blisters, bruises, sprains, rheumatmarching condition, but it is a ism, chapped hands, cold cracks and sores of all kinds. physical impossibility for even the Don't let your soldier go without his box of Zam-Buk. bravest man to go on if he is suf-In the home, also, Zam-Buk is just as necessary for the many little accidents which are of almost daily fering from sore feet. occurrence, as well as for more serious troubles such as eczema, chronic sores, blood-poisoning and piles. All dealers or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto. 50c box, 3 for $1.25.

From information which reaches us from the front, however, this lifficulty is being met by the use of Zam-Buk, which is proving most hoadious for this painful allment. We should like to see a box or two of this excellent "first aid" supplied to every soldier. In our opinion it would greatly add to the efficiency of the Army.

We have just received our new coods for your Christmas Cake and

New Walnuts. Choice Oranges and Grapes. Mixed Candies and Chocolates and

E. H. BAKER Cor Montreal and Charles Sts.

Phone 1263.

FARMS FOR SALE

Neart the city, at low prices.

W.H.Godwin & Son 39 Brock Street Phone 424

The Telgmann School of Music.

Zam-Buk

216 Frontenac Street. Phone 1610.