

Special Features

There are certain features—special exclusive features not found in other Player-Pianos—that make the Heintzman & Co.

Player-Piano

"The Different Player-Piano."

a distinctive musical creation.

One of these special features is its patented Aluminum Player-Action. The great trouble with the ordinary wooden action player-piano is air leakage in the valves which swell and shrink according to weather and climatic conditions. Being cast from a solid piece of aluminum without joints or seams, this is impossible with this instrument. This feature ensures absolute and volume under any condition, and makes the player-piano practically "wear-proof" and "trouble-proof." A thorough examination and comparison is invited.

PERMANENCE OF TONE

GANANOQUE

(From Our Own Correspondent)
March 4.—The funeral of the late Samuel Steacey, market clerk who was found dead in his office on Thursday afternoon last, was held Saturday afternoon at St. Andrew's Church, where the pastor, Rev. C. E. Kidd and Rev. Henry Gracey, D.D., conducted a very impressive service, after which the remains were placed in the vault at Willowbank Cemetery. The deceased had been for many years sexton of that church and had also been caretaker of Willowbank cemetery for a number of years. Deceased is survived by his second wife (formerly Miss Latham, of Lyn), one son Chester of Vancouver, B.C., and one daughter, Mrs. George Shurtliff of Hamilton, both by his first wife. One brother, John E. Steacey is a resident of this town. The Salvation Army corps held a "Tag Day" on Saturday, the proceeds of which are to be utilized in furnishing huts for the soldiers in France and Flanders. They met with a fairly generous response.

As usual at this season of the year superintendent Charles Cotton of the Gananoque Water Power Co. has been compelled during the past week to have a gang of men at both upper and lower dams to keep the ice cut away from timbers and gates so as in the event of a general break up there will be no danger of undue pressure from that source carrying the dams away. Frederick Hoasler, Garden street, has been confined to his home by illness for the past week.

As a result of the canvass of the town during the past week in aid of the local Patriotic and Red Cross maintenance funds, the collectors have so far reported guarantees amounting to $5,000 with the whole of the north ward and some sections still to be canvassed.

Patrick Adair, Pine street, who has acted as sexton of St. John's church since his arrival from Ireland upwards of a year ago, has accepted the position of caretaker of the Gananoque cemetery and has removed to the caretaker's residence there.

Mrs. Jordon, William street, undergoing treatment for the past few weeks in Kingston General Hospital for her eyes, has returned home. The doctors found it necessary to remove one eye in order to save the sight of the other one. At the morning service in Grace church yesterday the pastor, Rev.

Walter S. Lennon gave a special sermon to Troop No. 2 of Boy Scouts and Girl Guides, entitled "A Bible Scout and His Badges." Both troops were well represented.

In St. Andrew's church yesterday morning Rev. C. E. Kidd conducted a very impressive memorial service, dealing with the sad loss to the community and especially to St. Andrew's Church in the recent sad decease of Mrs. W. G. Matthew.

Pte. Bradley Acton, son of the late James Acton, who enlisted voluntarily for service overseas last fall spent some time during the past week in town with relatives, and returned to Kingston on Saturday. Corp. Fred McIntosh of the Special Service Battalion of Kingston, spent the past week in town with relatives.

Matthew Tomkins for a number of years past foreman in the rolling mill of the works of the Ontario Steel Products Company has resigned his position and has accepted a situation as fireman on the G. T. R. and starts on his new duties to-day.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Williamson, King street east, spending the past two months in Boston with their daughter, Mrs. E. O. Ericson, have returned home.

George Liddell, a former resident of this town, located for some time past in Brockville in the employ of the Canada Carriage Company has resigned his position and returned to this town to reside.

Mrs. Sidney McKenzie and young son, spending several weeks here with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles K. Wright, Sydenham street, have returned to their home in Preston.

Stove Exploded.

Tweed, March, 4.—We haven't heard of anybody missing any wood lately but Albert Farrar's stove blew up on Wednesday morning, just the same. The case however, was not to be found in the wood, this time. It appears he came across a can of cherries that was leaking and instead of tossing it on the garbage heap, Albert tossed it into the stove and how he can toss the stove on the garbage heap, the can became heated and the steam and air within it came compressed until the can gave way. The stove was ripped open from bottom to top and the lids were lifted to the ceiling.

Cherry juice and ashes flew everywhere. It went off like a good sized bomb, fortunately no one in the store was hurt, but they were badly scared.

IRRITATING FORM OF ITCHING PILES

A Source of Continual Worry and Annoyance — Sleep and Rest Impossible Until Relief is Obtained.

Bridgetown, N.S., Mar. 4. — All classes of people are subject to piles, but especially those who are exposed to dampness, Teamsters, farmers, railroad men and laborers suffer greatly from this distressing ailment.

While there are plenty of remedies recommended as a treatment for Piles, Dr. Chase's Ointment is the only actual and guaranteed cure. It is truly wonderful how the merit of this preparation has become known throughout this continent and Europe.

But when a person has endured the torture of piles, the itching, stinging sensation, the sleepless nights of misery, the annoyance during the day, when going about the daily work, he feels grateful for the relief and cure brought about by Dr. Chase's Ointment, and does not forget to recommend it to his friends.

Mr. E. G. Langley, Bridgetown, N.S., writes: "I have much pleasure in recommending Dr. Chase's Ointment. For about fifteen years I was troubled with piles, and all the so-called remedies that I used brought me no relief. At last I tried Dr. Chase's Ointment, and am glad to say that it made a complete cure. It is nearly twenty years ago since I was cured, and I have never been troubled with piles since. At the one time I was away from home travelling a great deal, and I always carried a box of Dr. Chase's Ointment with me. Ever since I was cured I have been recommending it to everyone whom I knew to be troubled with piles."

Dr. Chase's Ointment, 60 cents a box, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto. Do not be talked into accepting a substitute. Imitations only disappoint.

For two years he had been employed in the People's State Bank, at Detroit, and previous to leaving Kingston had been for two years on the staff of the Merchants' Bank. He was a graduate of the Collegiate Institute and Kingston Business College. He had a wide circle of friends in Kingston, and the news of his death was received with sincere regret. Deceased is survived by his mother and one brother, Ross, of Glenvale. The remains are being brought for interment at Sydenham.

The Late William McIlquham.

135 CANDIDATES LOSE THEIR DEPOSITS

As the Result of the Final Returns in the Dominion Elections.
Ottawa, March 4.—No fewer than 135 candidates lost their election deposits, which means that $27,000 will be turned into the Treasury by them to help pay war expenses. Of these 135 who lost their deposits, 110 were Opposition candidates and 25 Government candidates. In Ontario 41 Opposition candidates lost their deposits, and in Quebec 22 Government candidates lost their deposits. Every Labor candidate except Rolfe in Hamilton received fewer votes than the successful candidate's majority, and consequently their $200 deposit with the Returning Officer will not be handed back.

EX-CZAR LOYAL TO ALLIES.

Denies Rumor That Nicholas Had Notion of Separate Peace.

London, March 4.—Speaking at a dinner given in his honor in London, Sir George Buchanan, British ambassador to Russia, who is now on leave, took occasion to correct the widespread report that at the time of his abdication Emperor Nicholas was ready to conclude a separate peace. Sir George said there was not a word of truth in this report. Doubtless Nicholas had much to answer for, he remarked, but he would never have betrayed the cause of the Allies, and was always a loyal friend to England.
