TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN. TAKE NOTICE that a meeting will be held in the court house at the City of Ottawa, on Tuesday the 12th day of March, 1918, at ten-thirty o'clock in the forenoon, for the purpose of considering the investigation into and concerning the manufacture, sale, price and supply of newspapers, and also for consideration of the remuneration to be paid to the manufacturer of newspapers as to differential to be adjusted between the manufacturers.

A SENATOR'S GIFT. Has Donated $60,000 to Found Chair in University. Halifax, N.S., March 4.—Senator Dennis, president of the Halifax Herald, gave Dalhousie University $60,000 for the purpose of founding a chair in memory of his son, Capt. Eric Dennis, who was killed in action at the battle of Vimy Ridge. The gift provides also that prizes shall be given, and that the student taking the class who stands highest at graduation shall receive a prize of $250, with the Eric Dennis gold medal. The governors of Dalhousie University in accepting the handsome gift, passed a resolution setting forth their high appreciation of the generosity of Senator Dennis.

Service To Be Unionized. Ottawa, March 4.—The entire government telegraph system is to be unionized. The operators are to join the Commercial Telegraphers' Union, which means that hours of work, rates of pay, apprenticeships, discharge and promotions will be subject to supervision by the union officials, and that political pull will no longer cut any figure in the administration of the government telegraph system.

Many merchants have complained to the Whig that express parcels from over the line are being rifled and that practically every one is "short" according to the invoice. An investigation is being conducted. Guelph will organize toward a memorial to the late Lieut-Col. John McCrae, the author of "In Flanders Fields," who was a resident of that city.

The remains of the late Corp. L. A. Spurling were transferred to Swan Lake, Man., on Monday morning by the firm of R. J. Reid.
