"Peter Ibbetson," a dramatization which had been authorized by George Du Maurier and over the manuscript time, Miss Collier urged Mr. Raphael to complete the play and for-ward it to her. A little later, Miss Collier was called upon to provide a play for a charitable entertainment. The Raphael dramatization turned up at an opportune moment. And so it was that with a star cast it was presented at His Majesty's Theatre, London, two years ago, and was re-

Clune's cinema operatic spectacle, "Ramona," during its big Broadway run last summer, paid its producers an unusual compliment. These spectators declared it was the first big photodrama they ever have seen in which the real lines of a play were really spoken by the actors and "read" with effort to convey exact meaning. One of the officers of the society wrote Mr. Clune that expert lip readers, as mutes must be, have in the past seen many expressions emanating from the mouths of screen actors which were out of keping with the character por-trayal. They expressed with all the eloquence possible of a rapidly mov-ing pencil on a pad of paper, grati-fication felt upon finally finding a Constance Collier, who is to appear screen production wherein the ac-

FORD Cars

We aimed to give good advice in urging prospective Ford buyers to place their orders for cars before an advance, and will now venture to advise those who did not order to do so at once, as there is likely to be a scarcity of Ford cars, and another advance is quite possible. The Ford factory at Detroit has been forced to reduce its production from 3,200 cars daily to 1,700, and the Canadian factory at Ford, Ont., is from 4,090 to 5,000 behind in their orders at the present time, and with no prospect in sight of catching up on account of the scarcity of
