COUPLE WERE RE-UNITED
HUSBY WAS ARRAIGNED ON A CHARGE OF NON-SUPPORT.
He Agreed to Support Her, and He Was Allowed to Go on Suspended Sentence—Another Tippler Who Got a Supply of Liquor at Cape Vincent.
"You must support your wife, or I will give you a good term," remarked Magistrate Farrell, in Police Court, Saturday morning, to Frederick Jeffrey, when the latter was charged with non-support.
The only excuse the accused had to offer, when the charge was read was that he had heard his wife had left town. He was quite willing to support her, and the magistrate was willing to allow him to go on suspended sentence, and the couple left the court together. The wife was willing to forget the past, and the magistrate remarked, "Go and make up again."
Cape Vincent has been put on the map, as a result of the last two sessions of the Police Court.
"Got it in Cape Vincent," piped a little man.
"Carry any of it over with you?" queried the Cadi.
"No; only what I had inside of me, and I am sorry for that."
The magistrate was sorry, too, but in his sorrow he could not overlook the stern penalties of the Ontario Temperance Act, so imposed a fine of $10 and costs.
