SIX SONS ARE IN KHAKI

PROUD RECORD OF FORMER KINGSTON FAMILY.

Capt. and Mrs. John Ryan, of Erie, Pa., Has Half Dozen Boys In The Fight, And Two More Eager to Get Into It.

Six sons lined up to do their "bit" in the great war, and two more very eager to go, is the proud record of a former well-known Kingston family, who now reside at Erie, Pa.

Six sons of Capt. and Mrs. Ryan, of 507 Sassafras street, Erie, Pa., have signed up to aid Uncle Sam and the Allies. The Ryan family formerly lived at the Grove Inn, and will be remembered by a large number of citizens. They moved away from here fifteen years ago.

Mrs. Ryan's parents were natives of County Wicklow, Ireland, and resided in Kingston for a great number of years, 13 are buried in St. Mary's cemetery. Mr. O'Byrne was a veteran of the Crimea war, and enlisted in the 88th Connaught Rangers.

Mrs. J. V. Donoghue, Mrs. J. Dacey, Patrick O'Byrne and the late Simon O'Byrne who was electrocuted on one of the city's electric light poles, are sisters and brothers of Mrs. Capt. John Ryan, also William, of New York City.

And what makes the story much more patriotic, is that those in the service enlisted under America's banner since the United States declared war on Germany.

Cast aside personal ambitions, six members of the original family, which numbered fifteen, but of which only eleven are now alive, heeded the call to Uncle Sam. Following is the honor roll:

Peter B., aged thirty-two years, army aero service; William J., aged thirty, at camp Lee, Va.; Patrick, twenty-three years old, navy seaman on board battleship; Herbert, twenty-six years old, army at Fort Hancock, G.A.; Gerald B., twenty-two years old, chief engineer on submarine chaser; Arthur W., twenty years old, gunner in navy merchant marine of transport service.

Lee, twelve years old, is dreaming of future service, and two girls, Kathleen, fourteen years old, and Olive, ten years old, complete one of the most patriotic families in the United States.

Capt. John Ryan and Mrs. Ryan were married in Kingston nearly thirty-four years ago. Capt. Ryan's people settled on Wolfe Island. In his early days he followed the fishing trade, and in time followed boating. Later he became a captain of a freighter, and travelled all over the great lakes. Twelve years ago he put the lakes, and settled in Erie.

At the present time he is employed at the Jarecki Manufacturing Company's plant.

Mrs. Ryan is a very proud woman and justly so. "If I had a dozen more boys, and they wanted to go to the front, I would gladly let them go," she said. "I have been remembered by patriotic people of Erie, and they are just as proud of my family as myself."

His Last Complaint. The hardened malefactor stood upon the platform awaiting execution. The noose was about his neck, and the hangman was awaiting at his post. But the chaplain decided to make a final appeal to the criminal to confess his guilt.

"My man," said he gently, "have you nothing upon your mind that you would like to confess? Haven't you anything you would like to tell me?"

For one moment the doomed man hesitated; then in a confidential whisper he replied: "Yus, guv'nor, I 'ave. This 'ere platform ain't safe."

Prisoner of War. Brockville, March 23.—Pte. E. G. Olmstead, a Leeds county man, who enlisted in the 59th Battalion, is a prisoner of war in Germany, according to a letter received by his mother who resides at Portland. Two other brothers are serving with the Canadian forces in France.

OH Resident of Clifford Finds the Remedy He Has Been Looking for for Years in Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Clifford, Ont., Mar. 22.—(Special.)—After suffering from sciatica for two years, Mr. Chris Binkle, Sr., a well-known resident of this place, declares that he has found the relief he so long looked for in Dodd's Kidney Pills.

"I have been ailing in all about five years," Mr. Binkle states. "I had backache and stiffness in the joints, with an occasional attack of rheumatism."

"I was often dizzy, I had dark circles under my eyes, and I had flashes of light or floating specks before my eyes."

"About two years ago Sciatica was added to my troubles, and I suffered with it till an advertisement led me to try Dodd's Kidney Pills. They helped me more than anything I have ever taken."

"I took six boxes in all. But now if I feel an attack coming on I just take a couple of Dodd's Kidney Pills, and that checks it. Dodd's Kidney Pills have given me good satisfaction."

All of Mr. Binkle's symptoms are symptoms of kidney trouble. That is why Dodd's Kidney Pills did him so much good. Dodd's Kidney Pills are purely and simply a kidney remedy.

Kidge Evans, the World's kiddie star, and Henry Hall, the famous stage star, are both seen in the new World-Picture Brady-made, "The Volunteer," at the Grand next Monday and Tuesday. "The Volunteer" is a very unique offering, a different sort of motion picture entirely. The story starts in the studio of World-Pictures where the stars are seen working in various pictures and some very fascinating glimpses of the studio are given. Among the stars seen in "The Volunteer" are Kitty Gordon, Ethel Clayton, June Elvidge, Evelyn Greeley, Carlisle Blackwell and Montagu Love. The latest Pathe News and good comedy reels will also be shown, while an act of feature vaudeville completes the bill.

"Oh, Boy" Coming.

Not since the days of "Floradora" has there been a light musical entertainment that has caught the public fancy as instantaneously and as securely as "Oh, Boy!" which comes to the Grand for two nights, commencing Good Friday, with a matinee on Saturday afternoon. This fact is emphasized by the records established in other cities. "Oh, Boy!" is now playing its second season in New York and is in its sixth month of popularity in Chicago. The company which will present this Constock-Elliott production at the Grand, comes direct from five months in Boston, and is the same big cast and production.
