March 25.—Miss Margaret Nolan, who has been on an extended visit to her sister, Mrs. Deering, in Bluefield, Va., returned home Friday. Miss A. Aguirre made a flying visit to friends in Ottawa last week. Miss Anna Stevens has returned from a visit to friends in Trenton. The roads are in places almost impassable either with cutters or buggy. The water is two feet or more deep over the roads in places. The tapping of the sugar bushes has been the order of the day during the lovely weather of the past week. The fiftieth anniversary of the Farmers' Pride cheese factory was held on the 20th inst. by the proprietors, Messrs. Archibald Stevens and Preston. A good attendance of patrons and others were on hand. The chair was filled by the president, William B. Phelps, who gave a few items of interest in a short history of the factory since established in 1867. In the year 1870 the whole season's cheese was sold for 5¢ per lb., 2¢ going to the maker and 3¢ to the patrons. Quite a difference between those and present-day prices. The usual business was disposed of. The manufacturer, Mr. Preston, is to get 2¢ per lb. this year, which is a slight advance on last year.

BRITISH BATTLE LINE AND POINT WHERE GERMANS CUT THROUGH

There is reason to believe that fifty German divisions approximately 650,000 men are following into the struggle and probably half as many more approximately 325,000 are in close reserve. The British War Office states that the British are falling back in good order across a devastated area to previously prepared positions. With very heavy fighting in progress on the whole front and with fresh German forces in action, the British troops on the northern front of the battlefield are holding their positions. The Germans forced their way into Mory (four miles west of Lagucourt and the same distance southwest of Bullecourt), but a dashing counter-attack drove them out. A large party was surrounded and probably was captured.

MATHIEU'S SYRUP OF TAR & COD-LIVER OIL

CURES
Coughs, Colds, Grippe, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Asthma, Etc.
MATHIEU'S SYRUP is a sovereign tonic combining the curative properties of TAR and the strengthening virtues of COD LIVER OIL. Colds, when neglected or badly treated give rise to consequences of such a grave character that you should not risk using inferior preparations. MATHIEU'S SYRUP is the only genuine remedy whose reputation has caused to crop up many imitations of doubtful value.
