"Shock" May Help Uncle Sam.

Urban Shocker, a pitcher with the St. Louis Americans, and formerly with the Toronto Leafs, is awaiting call into the military service. He has been placed in Class A1. Shocker, whose home is in Detroit, has four brothers serving with the colors.

Lajoie Means Business.

The National Commission has ordered the Toronto Club to file its defence in the Lajoie case. Evidently the Frenchman meant what he said when he threatened to go to the commission to upset his sale by Toronto to Brooklyn.

Sporting Notes

Bert Kortland, an international sportsman, has enlisted in the Field Engineers at Vancouver. Kortland was a great cricketer.

Jack McCarren, of Allentown, Pa., was given the decision over Soldier Bartfield, of New York, in a six-round bout at Philadelphia.

Joe Stecher, the wrestler, is seriously ill at his home in Dodge, Neb.

Pitcher Bob Shawkey, of the New York Yankees, has joined the aviation corps of the U.S. army.

Bob Wagner, formerly of Hamilton and one of the best of the Hamilton City League pitchers a few years ago, has been killed in action.

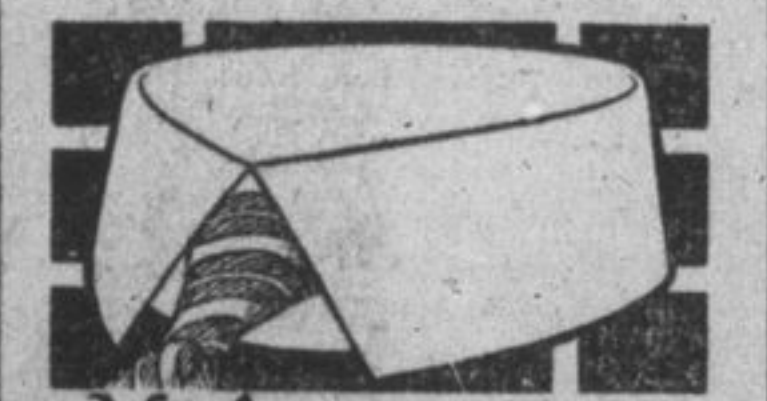

Pitcher Jim Bagby, of the Cleveland Indians, has signed his contract Bagby has been holding out for some time.

A trophy, to be known as the "S. F. Shenstone Shield," will be competed for annually between the Toronto and Hamilton Chess Clubs.

Tommy Daly, of Cambridge, noted as the player who hit a home run before the King of England in February, 1914, during the Giants-White Sox tour, is in a Class 1A of the draft. Daly is now the property of the Chicago Cubs.

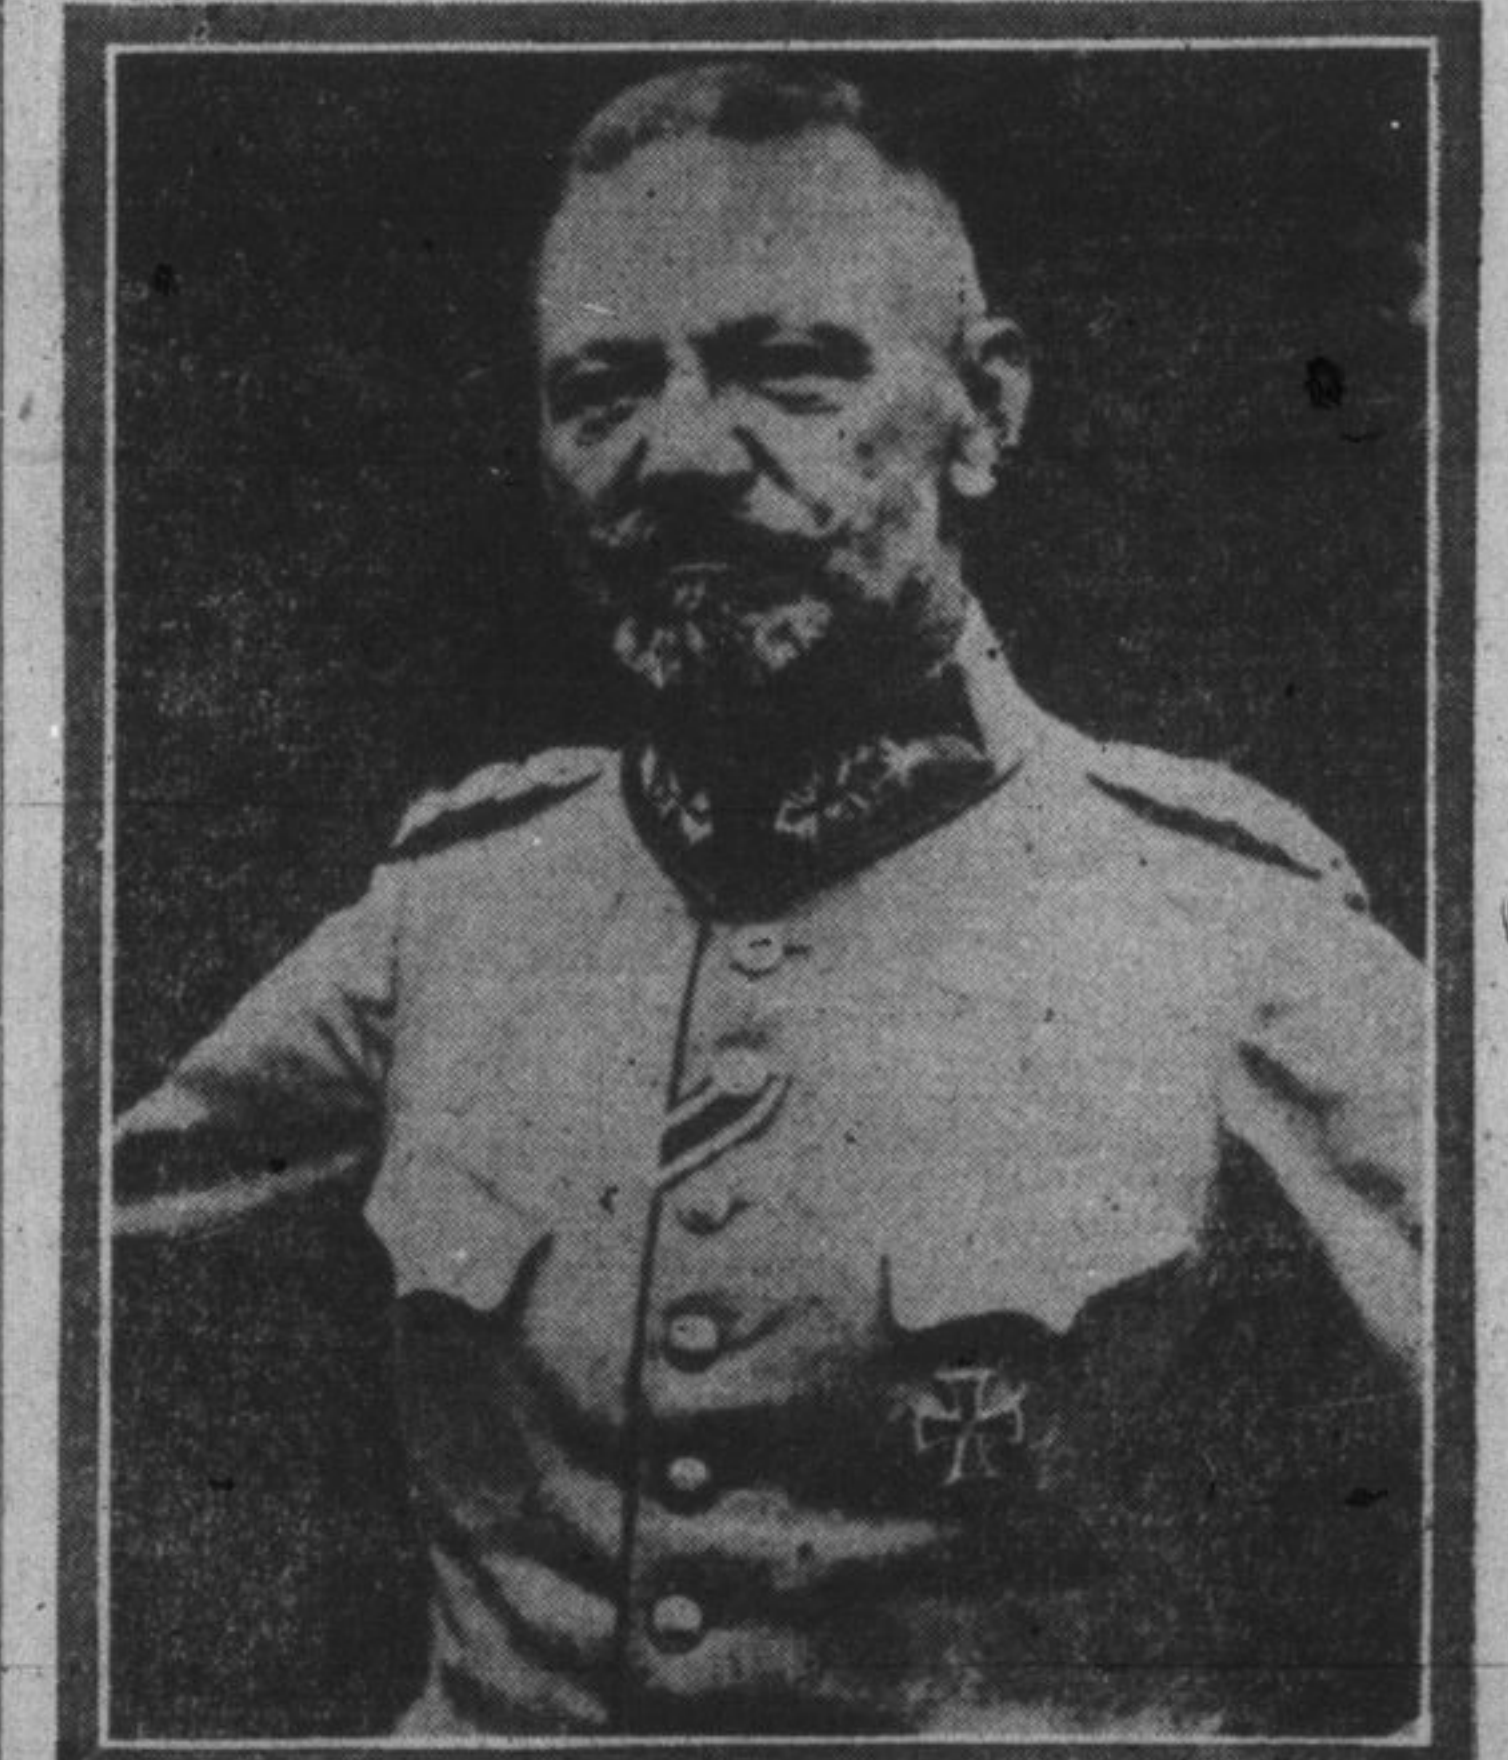

With the addition of Pratt and Bodie the Yankees now have four players who have batted in clean-up positions. Pipp has been clean-up man for the Yanks, Baker for the Athletics and Yanks, Bodie and Pratt both are right-handed batters, who will give the Yanks a much better balanced batting line-up than last season.

Harry D. Lord, former big league third baseman, may coach baseball at Bates College this spring.

Milton Stock, Dave Bancroft, and Bert Nighthof, so far as is known, have not yet signed their contracts with the Phillies.

IN CHARGE OF PART OF THE KAISER'S GREAT DRIVE

GENERAL VON GALLWITZ

General Von Gallwitz, who, it is believed, is in command of the German forces facing our boys in the Lorraine sector, was prominent in the Russian and Serbian campaigns. Apparently he was transferred from the east to the western front in the early part of this year.

WEST TO HAVE BIG BOUT.

The Eastern Offers Are Unlikely to Be Accepted.

Indications now point to the possibility that the proposed heavy-weight championship boxing bout between Jess Willard and Fred Fulton will be held in one of the large western cities. Colorado is said to be the probable state, but there are other locations of the west which are now being considered by Colonel J. C. Miller, co-partner of Willard in the promotion of the bout.

Colonel Miller refused to say positively whether he has decided on a battleground, but he has hinted that the hopes that have been entertained that the bout would be held in the Eastern section of the country would not materialize.

Several additional offers were received by Miller, but what these were or from whom they came he promoter refuses to divulge. He says, however, that he expects within the next few days to be able to announce the site for the contest. Willard will not visit this city. He is on his way to Chicago after completing the sale of his circus horses in Baltimore.

TENER UNFAVORABLE.

To Clubs Making Use Of Daylight Saving.

If organized baseball intends to start its games later this season by taking advantage of the time-saving law it is in for strong opposition to the scheme from within its own ranks. No less an authority than John Kinley Tener, president of the National League, has gone firmly on record as being against any such subterfuge.

Mr. Tener does not believe baseball should take advantage of the daylight-saving idea to make money. He believes the public has been loyal to the national game through the period of stress, and that baseball—the major league clubs, at least—should show its appreciation by observing the daylight law to the letter.

Eleven Fat Years.

Walter Johnson has been with the Washington Club eleven years and in that period has won 249 games and lost 196. He has won more games than he has lost for the Nationals for the last eight years.

His best season was in 1912, when he chalked up 36 victories and lost only seven games. The year previous his record was 32 won and 12 lost. Last season he won 23 and lost 16 games. He ranks as one of the greatest pitchers that has ever been in the game. He put Washington on the baseball map.

Milton Stock, Dave Bancroft, and Bert Nighthof, so far as is known, have not yet signed their contracts with the Phillies.

DETROIT HAVE TWO COBBS.

Tyrus and Joseph, Latter Just From Bush League.

Hughie Jennings has definitely decided to retain Joe Cobb on the Tiger roster, for a part of the season, at least, and the Detroit team will now have two Cobbs at attractions. Instead of one. It is quite a jump for a youngster to come from a Class D league to the majors, but the former Blue Ridge Leaguer has turned the trick.

In size Joseph is much smaller than Tyrus, but in the bush he wielded a bat in the same style as his more famous namesake. The fore part of last season young Cobb was with a factory team in eastern Pennsylvania. Along towards the end of the season the manager of the Cumberland team of the Blue Ridge League needed a catcher, so he signed Cobb. Although the kid only caught in a few games, he slugged the ball for an average of nearly 400, and, fortunately, a Tiger scout saw him while he was in the midst of this batting spree.

Joe's mechanical work is all that could be asked of a catcher with no more experience, and it has so impressed Jennings that he is confident that the boy has the makings of a big league catcher. He handles his pitchers well and has a rifle peg to the bases. Naturally, he does not have the knowledge of the finer points of the game that are possessed by men coming from the American association, or like leagues. This, however, will be his chief duty this summer, and if he proves an apt pupil he will get his chance the following year. The youngster is of Slavic origin, and what his name was in the original tongue one can only surmise.

When Tyrus reported to the team, one of the first things he asked was, which fellow was Cobb.

Suspension of Racing.

The suspension of racing in Canada means that there is going to be many idle horses this summer and also a number of trainers and riders with plenty of time on their hands. Many of the horses which raced at New Orleans and Havana during the winter months were campaigned over the half mile tracks in the country during the summer months, having four months of continuous racing between the half-mile courses at Toronto and Montreal. There will be racing at Maryland, Kentucky and New York this summer, but the class of horses racing at the big tracks is so good that but few of the equines which started on the merry-go-rounds could hope to win any money. It looks as though many of the horses which wintered at Havana will have to summer there, for, between transportation troubles and the poor outlook for third-grade horses, there will be little use in shipping them.

Evers With Boston Team.

Unless he becomes disabled, Johnny Evers will play second base for the Boston Red Sox all season. The fiery Trojan after a holding out at Hot Springs, has discovered that his throwing arm is as strong as ever.

The attack of neuritis which put him out of it last year and caused his release by the Braves and Phillies has not returned. Evers, however, fears cold weather and doesn't intend to take chances until the hot sun begins to blaze. Manager Barrow of the Red Sox played a long shot when he signed Evers in February, but it looks as if he will cash. With Evers at his best the Red Sox should kick up plenty of dust.

Pretty Soft "Pickin'."

Exactly $3,758.56 was earned by the Toronto players in the Stanley Cup series, and this was divided among thirteen of them, which included Manager Charlie Querrie, Coach Dick Carroll and Trainer Frank Carroll. Each individual received $289.12. This is the largest amount ever earned by the players in a Stanley Cup series. The players shared in only the first three games, with the Arena taking thirty per cent, and the winners six per cent, of the remaining seventy per cent, and the losers forty per cent, of that.

Big Price For Bulldog.

The biggest deal ever put through in dogs in local circles was concluded in Montreal when Dr. J. H. Villeneuve, acting as agent for J. F. Lakin, of Toronto, sold to Fred Charbonnier, of Montreal, the famous dog, Kersal King, acknowledged the best bulldog in Canada, for the sum of $2,350.

The Tigers and Reds are scheduled to play fourteen games this spring, the series opening on April 1, at Waxahachie, and closing on April 14th, at Cincinnati.
