A CHILDREN'S FETE HELD

BEAUTIFUL COSTUMES WERE WORN IN THE CITY HALL.

Programme Consisted of Games and Dances — Refreshments Were Served to the Little Ones.

The Prince Charlie Chapter, I. O. D. E., of which Miss Eva Richardson is regent, held a most successful "Children's Fete" in the City Hall on Thursday afternoon in aid of Red Cross work. There were children of all sizes and of all ages, each one in a pretty costume made expressly for the occasion. The big hall filled with little tots and larger children dressed in all kinds of fantastic costumes representing everything from army nurses to butterflies.

The programme opened with the grand march to music by the R. C. H. A. orchestra. Then there was a series of games such as "London Bridge," "Pinning on the Donkey's Tail," etc. Refreshments were served to everyone in the hall during the afternoon.

The prize winners for the best appearing costumes went to the following: To Jean Richardson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Richardson, who appeared as a "Lady of Olden Days"; to Morton Hall, son of Capt. and Mrs. Hall, as "Uncle Sam"; to Miss Barbara Clark, daughter of Fred and Mrs. Clark, as "A Dutch Girl"; to Miss Margaret Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Davis, as "Queen of the Fairies," and to Jamie Rigney, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Rigney, who was dressed as "Greater Food Production Master Vokes and little Miss Roland won prizes for pinning the tail on the donkey. The prizes were presented by J. B. Walkem, K.C. The sum of $230 was realized from the event.

BARBERS MADE REQUESTS

ASK FOR SEVEN O'CLOCK CLOSING OF BARBER SHOPS.

Bosses Say That This Is Too Great An Inconvenience to the Public—Agree to Rate Proposition.

The barbers of the city are now asking the boss barbers for shorter hours and more money to meet the war conditions of living. In the first application there seems to be a disagreement which may require a reasonable attitude by both the bosses and their employees to straighten out.

The barbers union asked the bosses for three things at a meeting held this week. They asked for closing every day but Saturday at 7 p.m., and on Saturday at 10 p.m., and that the wages should be a guarantee of fifteen dollars and "half over twenty-one." The bosses agreed to the ten o'clock on Saturday closing, gave a guarantee of fifteen dollars and "half over twenty-two," but could not agree to the seven o'clock closing every day.

The barbers are presenting the argument that eight o'clock closing does not give them ordinary privileges for the evening as it prevents them attending a show or otherwise enjoying the entertainments that others can take in. The bosses on the other hand claim that they would rather close for any other three hours of the day than that one hour in question in the evening. The barbers are to have a meeting to consider the matter.

DREW ANOTHER BIG HOUSE.

"Eyes of the World" a Great Attraction at Grand.

"The Eyes of the World" is attracting great attention at the Grand. The wonderful production was put on, for a second time, on Thursday night, and is regarded by all who have viewed it as one of the finest photo-plays that has been seen in Kingston. There is a heart interest in the story from beginning to end. There are several most stirring scenes, especially that of the escape of the convict over the mountain.

"The Eyes of the World" will be presented again to-night and Saturday, matinee and night, and theatre-goers should not fail to take in this great treat in the line of photo-plays.

"ATTENTION, CLASS."

F-o-c-h is pronounced "Fosh," Not "Folk."

General Foch's name is not pronounced like "Folk" in English. Stephane Lauzanne, editor of Le Matin, of Paris, explained the pronunciation as follows:

"The correct pronunciation of the name of General Ferdinand Foch is with a medium 'o' and with the final 'ch' as though it were 'sh,' a trifle shortened. It will rhyme with the French soldiers' name for the unspeakable German butcher soldiers, 'Boche.' It is preferable to rhyme it with 'bosh' rather than 'folk,' which would give the general's name a German sound."
