The Theatres

At the Grand.
The Grand Opera House offers an exceptionally attractive bill for Monday and Tuesday, April 8th and 9th. Everybody's screen favorite, Harold Lockwood, enacts the most vigorous role he has had in his experience before the camera in Metro's production of "The Avenging Trail," a five-act drama of the timberlands, adapted from Henry Oyen's novel, "Gaston Olaf." An unusually fine cast supports Harold Lockwood who plays the part of Gaston Olaf and is described as a blood brother to the great outdoors, as big, as free, as lawless. His leading woman is Miss Sally Crute, and among the players in this picture are Joseph Dalley, Walter P. Lewis, William Clifford, and several other well known artists. The scenes obtained were in the White Mountains of New Hampshire where Mr. Lockwood, director Francis Ford and over twenty members of the Metro company spent three weeks time staging exteriors. A good vaudeville act, the Pathe News and some comedy reels will round out a first class programme.

At Griffin's.
Our pleasing programme of superb features attracted another goodly audience last night and the same display of keen interest as shown as on the previous night. Pauline Frederick, the gifted and beautiful emotional star, was seen in "Madame Jealousy," a convincing allegorical story, that for sheer gripping force is without an equal. Don't miss this great picture, and also Sessue Hayakawa in the beautiful soul-stirring drama, "Hidden Pearls," the most magnificently staged production in which this wonderful star has ever appeared. These two pictures along with an unusually interesting episode of "The Fatal Ring," completed our programme for this evening.

At the Strand.
A double feature programme that will appeal to the most exacting movie fans will hold the boards at this popular playhouse for the first three days of the week. Constance Talmadge, who will be remembered for her excellent portrayal of "Scandal," will be seen in her latest screen success, "The Honeymoon," a delightful comedy of the type which this captivating comedienne is making her own. It is a merry tale of marital mishaps which points the moral to the newly-wed bridegroom: "Never let anything break into your honeymoon." Mrs. Vernon Castle, the best known and best dressed woman in the world, will also be seen in "The Mark of Cain." Comedy and topical reels will also be shown.

Can Thank the Press.
In an interview, Dr. S. B. Sinclair of the City Home Garden Branch of the Ontario Department of Agriculture, said: "The citizens of this country can thank the newspapers for the greater production efforts. Perhaps no other agency has so helped the Department in its work as the press which has given columns and columns for this cause."

School of Navigation Closed.

In the War Zone.
