The Theatres

At the Grand.
Harold Lockwood in his latest Metro triumph, "The Avenge Trail" will be seen at the Grand tonight and Tuesday matinee and night only. The story for this five-act drama was adapted from Henry Oyen's novel, "Gaston Olaf." Mr. Lockwood plays the part of Gaston and is supported by Miss Sally Cruise and a capable company among which are William Clifford and Walter P. Lewis, who have supported Mr. Lockwood in former pictures. When Gaston and his partner, Tom Pine descend upon the lawless village of Havens Falls in the heart of the northern lumber country they meet with the adventure and excitement they are seeking. Rose Havens is struggling to free herself from the embrace of Lefty Red, a notorious character. Gaston compels Red to release the girl and after a bitter struggle returns the victor. The Pathe News, comedy reels and a big-time vaudeville act entitled Peake's Educated Blockheads, will complete this sterling bill.

At the Strand.
A double feature programme that will appeal to the most exacting movie fans will hold the boards at this popular playhouse for the first three days of this week. Constance Talmadge, who will be remembered for her excellent portrayal of "Scandal," will be seen in her latest screen success, "The Honeymoon," a delightful comedy of the type which this captivating comedienne is making her own. It is a merry tale of marital mishaps which points the moral to the newly-wed bridegroom: "Never let anything break into your honeymoon." Mrs. Vernon Castle, the best known and best dressed woman in the world, will also be seen in "The Mark of Cain." Comedy and topical reels will also be shown.

At Griffin's.
Winsome Billy Burke will be seen at the above playhouse to-day, Tuesday and Wednesday in her newest, much-heralded photoplay, "Eve's Daughter." The story deals with the life of a girl, suddenly left a little money by her father after a life of repression and hardship. How she nearly outsteps the bounds of convention spending all her money in "one good time," only to be saved in time by the man who loves her and a girl she has helped, make up a thrilling and at times humorous story that will prove highly entertaining. The story is decidedly different and the fact that Miss Burke wears frocks of the very latest design adds greatly to the attraction. Jack Pickford and Louise Huff, the daintiest and most popular combination of players on the screen, will be another attraction, appearing in what is termed their greatest achievement, "The Varmint." This story is peculiarly adapted to the talents of these youthful players, and in it they are given full scope for work of the "very best." Our usual thrilling episode of "Vengeance and the Woman," contributes another important portion of our programme for the first half of the week.
