RENOVATE CURLING RINK

BUILDING REPORT MADE RECOMMENDATION.

Bonspiels brought in $3, which will be donated to the Red Cross Society—Small Surplus on Hand.

That the curling rink will be renovated from top to bottom and extensive alterations carried out, was the decision made at a general meeting of the Curling Club called for Wednesday evening to wind up business for the season. Owing to the rink being too damp, the members adjourned to the Court House.
The report of the building committee, which is composed of A. B. Cunningham, R. N. F. McFarlane, H. Angrove and T. M. Asselstine, was received and adopted unanimously.
This report was to the effect that the club would take a ten-year lease on the rink and that extensive alterations would be made. There will be a modern equipment, including heating plant installed. The rink will be covered with a new roof. The upstairs club room will be extended over the platform to make an observation room for members who will thus be able to watch all of the games going on. The interior will be refinished and refurbished.
There was a suggestion launched to form a new club of the afternoon members, which scheme would help in the financing of the improvements. This was not ready for action but will be considered later.
The financial report showed a slight surplus. The proceeds of the bonspiels, about $30, was donated to the Red Cross Society.
The following prizes were presented:
Club championship trophy and individual shields won by A. E. Elmer, A. G. Dorland, F. A. Palmer, J. F. Macdonald, skip.
Whig trophy won by W. H. Reid. Challenge butts won by M. P. Reid (5), W. H. Reid (5), J. Gibson (4), A. Fowler (4), S. R. Bailey, H. D. Bibby, J. J. Baker and W. J. Drysdale three points each.
Single competition: 1st prize, J. Gibson; 2nd, M. P. Reid.
Doubles competition: 1st prize, W. H. Montgomery and J. McDonald; 2nd, T. Slater and F. Lumb.
Points competition, Ogilvie shield, T. M. Asselstine, 71 points.
Points-poons: T. M. Asselstine, J. A. McRae, A. B. Cunningham, J. Matheson, T. R. Carnovsky, G. H. Smyth, A. W. Maclean, F. A. Palmer, J. F. Macdonald, T. Slater.
District cup and Rockwood tankard: To A. B. Cunningham, president of the club.

"Come What May They Will Not Break Through"

The present struggle on the Western front is known to the German people as "The Kaiser's Battle," according to the Washington Herald, and for this reason the higher powers realize that "it would hardly be to allow the Kaiser's name to be associated with a colossal military failure — as it would be if the present struggle were allowed to rest where it now stands." And so German legions desperately fight on in the hope of a miracle. That their hopes are futile is the firm conviction of the Allied armies as evinced by Premier Clemenceau's assertion that "come what may they will not break through," and the assurance of General Foch that "most glorious hopes are buoyed with the knowledge that the great statement of Lloyd George that "the French and British are buoyed with the knowledge that the great statement of the West will neglect no effort which can hasten its troops and its ships to Europe." Read in this week—April 11th issue—a sweeping review of the great struggle raging on the Western front, showing it from every angle.

The Literary Digest

REFUTE IDLE RUMORS WITH FACTS FROM "THE DIGEST."

These are days of rumors and reports that grow up overnight and unsettle the minds of patriotic citizens. Most of them are wholly false, many are due to enemy propaganda. The more alarming they are the more likely it is that their origin and purpose are Teutonic. To combat these stories of ships torpedoes and regiments destroyed you have only to know the facts, for truth, now as ever, is mighty and will prevail. To get these facts, in concise and instantly accessible form, presented without bias or partisanship, with no attempt to magnify or minimize the truth, you have merely to read THE LITERARY DIGEST. This greatest of news-weeklies keeps you accurately informed on all world events of interest in the fields of politics, art, literature, science, religion, social service, etc. It saves you the labor of reading a host of newspapers and magazines, giving you the cream of their contents in a concise form. Keep posted on the real news of the day by studying this impartial record of actual happenings.

AN EVENING WEDDING.

At the Home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Linton, Wellington street.

A quiet, but pretty wedding took place on Wednesday evening at nine o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Linton, Wellington street, when Olivia Urquhart Wood, only daughter of the late Dr. Isaac Wood, was united in marriage to J. Stuart Crawford, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Crawford, Division street. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. T. W. Savary. The bride who was given away by her uncle, W. N. Linton, looked very sweet in her simple gown of ivory satin and lace, en train, her hair was prettily arranged in tulle veil, which was prettily arranged with sprays of lily-of-the-valley and she carried a shower bouquet of roses and lily-of-the-valley. Going away the bride wore a travelling suit of navy blue and sand with hat to match and corsage bouquet of sunset roses. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Crawford will reside at 373 Alfred street.
