

Young Men's Suits

Our spring models in young men's suits have a smartness, dash and vim about them that is very pleasing to smart dressers. Every little kink and curve has a meaning of its own.

We are showing some very stunning new fabrics and colorings — exclusive styles. Suits $18, $20, $22, $25, $28, $30.

Spring overcoats, $15, $18, $20, $22, $25.

The pleasure is ours when we show.

Military News

The Depot Battalion draft was inspected Saturday morning by Gen. Hemming. Major G. L. Starr presented the men with testimonials.

This afternoon at the Armouries, Hon. Capt. (Canon) W. F. FitzGerald, honorary chaplain to the artillery, distributed testimonials to the members of the Depot Batteries' draft which is leaving Kingston. Gen. Hemming inspected the men.

Brig. Gen. T. D. R. Hemming inspected the infantry and artillery drafts on Saturday. The Depot Battalion draft of 200 was inspected in the morning and the artillery draft of 100 in the afternoon.

Capt. J. J. Graham is reported to have denied the truth of the story which said that deserters from Kingston had started a war camp on the Ottawa river, and were ready to die before being captured.

Sergt. E. J. Cloutier, "C" Battery, R.C.H.A., who was recently promoted to the commissioned rank, has been posted for duty to the Depot Batteries.

Lieut. W. J. Barrett, Depot Battalion, is on sick leave.

Church parade on Sunday will be voluntary.

Lieut. G. W. Ross and Lieut. F. A. Vivian have been struck off the strength of the C. E. F.

The Garrison Club debates are proving very interesting. The one planned for Wednesday evening has this subject: "It is desirable that the Government assume control of all labor in the present emergency, and prepare a system of wages commensurate with the scale of military pay."

MOTHERS' COUNCIL OF Y.M.C.A.

Mrs. G. A. Bateman Re-Elected President of the Year.

The annual meeting of the Mothers' Council of the boys' division of the Y.M.C.A. was held Friday afternoon. Mrs. George A. Bateman, the president, presided. Devotional exercises were led by Mrs. R. Newlands. The treasurer's report by Mrs. A. W. Richardson shows a tidy little sum in the bank. The secretary's report was given by Mrs. George McCallum, which went to show that the ladies had had a busy year. Mention was made that in the neighborhood of $200 was spent in re-decorating and putting a new tile in the building for the boys' work secretary. A report of the room committee was given by Mrs. George A. Wright, which showed that her committee had done good work during the year. The social convener work wasn't quite so extensive as in other years because they had been asked to conserve in the food. This report was given by Mrs. S. Hambrook. The membership conveners, Mrs. Campbell and Mrs. Nash, reported having received many new members for the council. The report of the work of the boys' division was given by the boys' work secretary, S. T. Lilley, and brought out many interesting and encouraging points.

The election of officers resulted: President, Mrs. G. A. Bateman; first vice, Mrs. A. Newlands; second vice, Mrs. Roney; treasurer, Mrs. A. W. Richardson; secretary, Mrs. George McCallum; room conveners, Mrs. G. A. Wright and Mrs. Turner; social conveners, Mrs. Hambrook and Mrs. Connor; membership, Mrs. Campbell and Mrs. Nash; convener of music, Mrs. Van Dresser.

PUPS WERE OFFERED.

Saturday's Market, Offering of Potatoes, Pups and Pigs.

With potatoes at $2 a bag, eggs at 45c a dozen, butter at 45c and 50c a pound, little pigs at $15 a pair, and collie pups at $2 each, there was a large and varied market on Saturday morning.

One man had a crate of little tan collie pups which he was selling, and it was one of the principal attractions of the market.

The Wolfe Islander brought over her first market crowd of the year, and the Shambles were crowded to capacity with the island produce.

PRaises THE Y. M. C. A.

Returned Soldier Speaks of Work It Does in France.

Pte. H. Belmore, who has completed four years in France, says this about the Y. M. C. A. in France: "No one can speak too highly in praise of the work of the Y. M. C. A. in France. When we were back in the lines we had our cricket and other games. Their centers are the finest over there, and the stuff sold is as cheap as in Canada and cheaper than in England. The work is splendid and deserves the support of every one at home."

The Theatres

To-night, "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch."

"Mrs. Wiggs and her Cabbage Patch" is like a hardy perennial which blossoms each successive season in a desert of dramatic weeds and noxious undergrowth. To the jaded theatregoer who has been asked to square the eternal triangle, laugh at barren comedians and hackneyed situations, or sympathize with wronged heroines in black or purple shawls; it comes like the first breath of spring and gives a tonic to the tired senses. Mrs. Wiggs is human to the last degree; the characters are real, red-blooded, everyday people and therein lies its strength. The story with which most readers of Alice Hegan Rice's works are familiar deals with the struggle of a devoted wife who is abandoned by her worthless husband and left to care for a large family of small children. Does Mrs. Wiggs go into sack cloth and ashes, or air her grievances through the Beatrice Fairfax column of the local newspaper? No! She resolutely faces the situation, buckles down to duty and by her cheerfulness, good humor and adroit management, not only succeeds in overcoming her own difficulties, but straightens out the troubles of most of her neighbors as well.

At Griffin's. Another large and highly delighted audience attended this popular play last evening and were unanimous in their praise of the well-selected programme exhibited. Douglas Fairbanks, the international favorite, is seen at his best in his most recent screen success, "A Modern Musketeer," which tells the story of Ned Thacker, who has the spirit of D'Artagnan, and whose chivalry is not understood by the present generation. Like the Dumas hero, he manages to get into innumerable scrapes, some humorous and others sensational. William Foxe's new star, Sonia Marikova, was a decided attraction last evening in "The Painted Madonna," which held the interest of the audience from first to last. Mme. Mackova's forthcoming production will be looked forward to with genuine interest. In addition to the above mentioned features, Charlie Chaplin in "Woman" and Pearl White in the great serial "The Fatal Ring" add greatly to the attractiveness of the programme, which will be given a final exhibition this evening.

At the Strand.

A special super production entitled "The Grand Passion," with Dorothy Phillips in the stellar role, will be the headline attraction at the Strand for the first three days of next week. It's the story of a beautiful girl for whose love a masterless boss reformed himself and revolutionized his town. Ethel Barrymore will also be seen in a five act Metro wonderplay, "Life's Whirlpool," a photoplay filled with opportunities for splendid human emotion. The life of Esther Darcy (Ethel Barrymore), is one of those strangely selected by fate to be filled with storms and dangers. But at last the fury of the storm breaks and passes and a rainbow of happiness gives promise of peaceful days to come. Comedy and topical reels will also be shown.

Not Eager to Return.

Gunner H. Belmore, Canadian Artillery, who was reported in Friday's issue of the Whig as saying he could hardly wait to get back to the front, says that he does not express himself that strongly. If he has to go back he will go, but Gunner Belmore remarked that any man who had served three years at the front as he has done, with only seventeen days' leave until his present furlough home, does not wish to get back to fight. Gunner Belmore is now with his wife and family at 398 Barrie street. He suffered from rheumatism in the feet.
