

Canadian Boys in Service — Scenes of Interest From Afar

Sergt. Bernard M. Davey, sitting, son of James Davey of Wilton, and Sergt. E. H. Willingcraft, two loyal sons who went overseas with the 146th Battalion and won their stripes on the field of fame.

Mary Katherine and William Charles Clark, two Bajus Cottagers, Kingston, children of Corp. W. H. Clark, now in France. The younger child was born since his father went overseas.

Corp. W. H. Clark, with Cavalry in France. His wife resides at 2 Bajus Cottages, Kingston. Before going overseas Corp. Clark was with the Canadian Permanent Army Service Corps and reverted to the rank of Private in order to get overseas.

Battalion Runner George H. Forsythe, third son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Forsythe, Portsmouth, who was trained in Hamilton, with the C. M. R.'s and went to England with a draft in October, 1916, and to France in December, 1916. He was wounded February 16th, 1917, on the side of the head by shrapnel. He was sent back to the lines again and was wounded in the right shoulder, Nov. 10th. He is now convalescing at a camp at Workingham, Bearwood, in England. He has two brothers in uniform.

Pte. Percy Babcock, 155th Battalion, formerly of Belleville, killed in action, November 6th, 1917, brother of George Babcock, 15 Lower Charles Street, Kingston.

Three sons of Ex-Alderman and Mrs. J. B. Cooke, Kingston, serving King and Country.

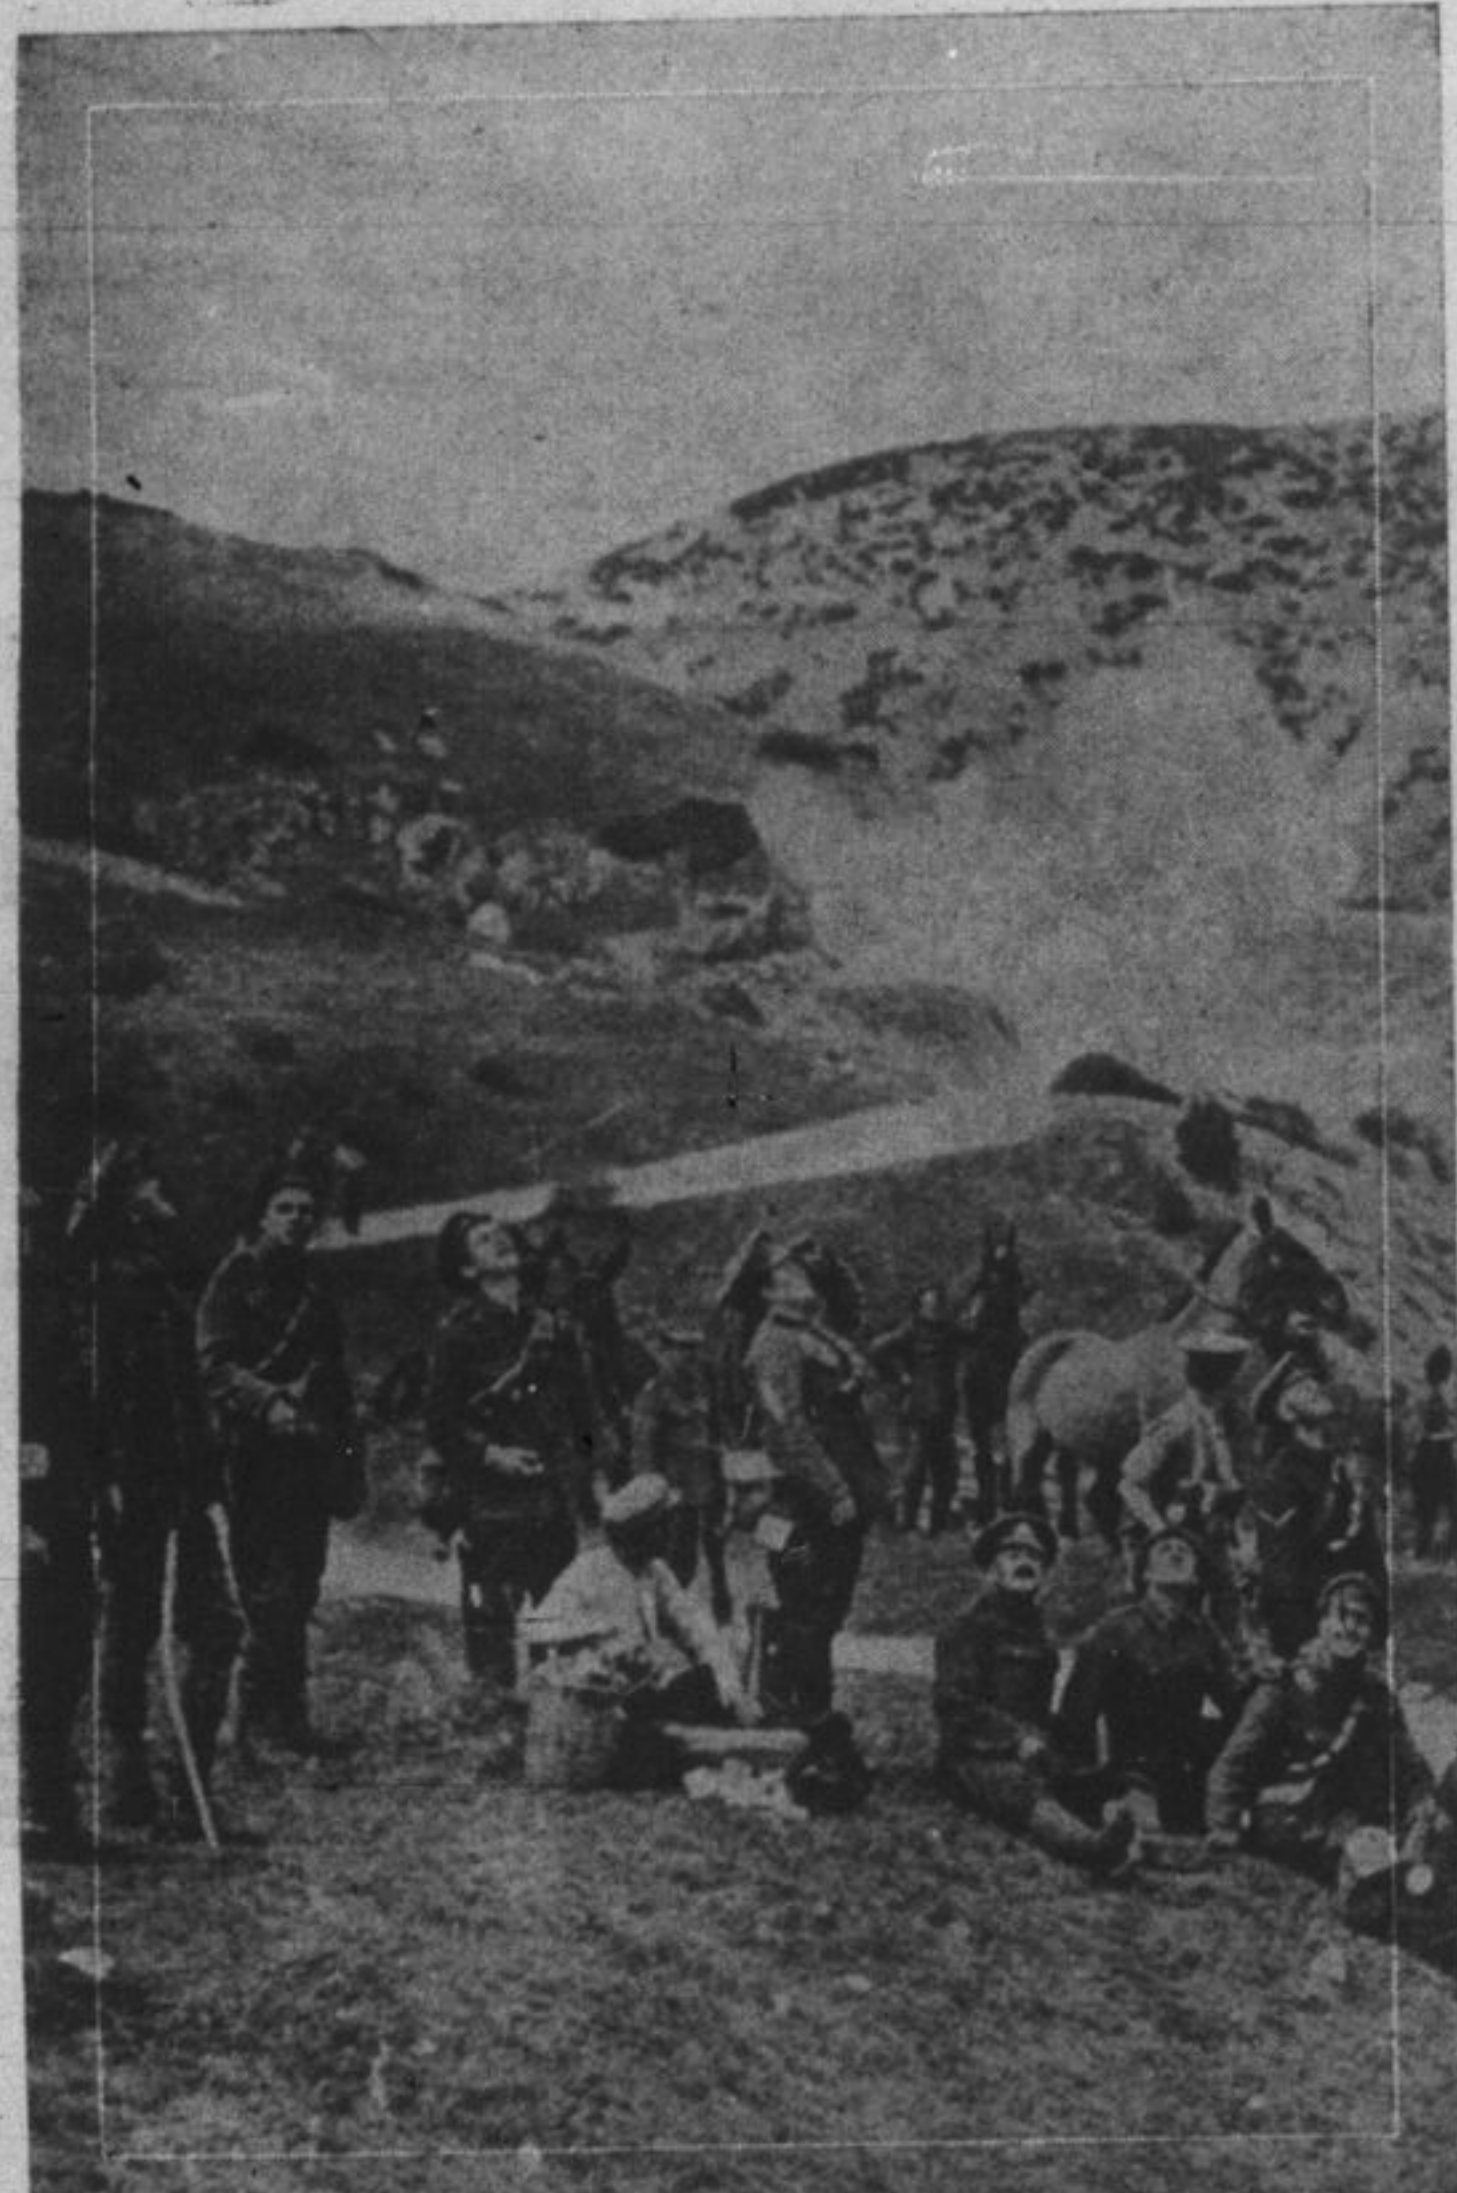

Capt. Alfred B. Cooke, a graduate in medicine at Queen's University in 1912. He resigned a lucrative practice in Brooklyn, N. Y. to join the Canadian Army Medical Corps in November, 1917, and is now in England where he transferred to the British A. M. C.

Lieut. M. Melville Cooke, who left Kingston in April, 1916, with the C. A. S. C. He has been in France since September, 1916, and is now being transferred back to London for duty on experts. He belonged to the Science 1917 Class at Queen's College and played on the first and second football teams for several years.

Sergt. Harvey M. Cooke who left Kingston on April 16, 1916, and is serving with the Mechanical Transport in Southampton, England. He was well known in sporting circles, being a member of the K. C. I. Hockey and football teams. Sergt. Cooke was an Arts student at Queen University.

With our troops in Palestine. Watching a hostile airplane drop bombs. One has just landed a little shy of its mark.

AT A BATTLE OF THE RIDGES
Irish Guardsmen taking up duckboards to make track over newly-captured ground.

GREAT BLACK SEA PORT COVETED BY THE GERMANS
Waterfront at Odessa, where there are six separate harbors forming the "Back-door" of Russia and a gateway to Persia and Central Asia.

CAMPAIGNING IN MESOPOTAMIA
Special rafts have been constructed for carrying Indian troops.

TROOPS ON THEIR WAY TO THE FIRING LINE
France is now the scene of many such processions, as soldiers are being rushed towards the firing line.

INDIAN NATIVE TROOPS IN MESOPOTAMIA
Soldiers from the British forces enjoying a ride on the Bagdad-Kadhima tramway.